Every woman loves a pretty shoe, and especially one which makes the foot appear small. The shoe and pumps this year used for dancing are very pleasing. To be in the height of fashion one should slipper and stockings should match the dress. But this rule is not always followed, as many wear white slippers and stockings with any dress, also black patent leather, or suede with the darker shades are very good. A striking and novel feature of this winter's dress is the use of a large variety of garnitures. These trimmings take the form of rosettes, buckles, pompons and roses of satin ribbon or chiffon. Evening slippers are extravagantly ornamented, many being heavily beaded to form buckles or rosettes. Often times the beads cost more than the slippers themselves. Slipper buckles have almost taken the place of the shoe buckles in the things this year. They include those of enamel, of gold filigree, gold buckles in art nouveau shape, rhinestone buckles and many delicate ornaments in which rhinestones are set. Yellow evening dresses are very popular at the present time and the proper slipper is of silk with the stockings in yellow silk, matching the dress as near as possible.

A unique and interesting affair is a rainbow party. The party I speak of was one given by a little mission band although it might be given by any child for her little friends. The band met once a week and at each meeting each child brought two cents and received a piece of ribbon about four inches long and an inch wide. The child received a different color each time and when the time for the party arrived each child had enough ribbon to make the colors of the rainbow. The room in which the party was held was beautifully festooned with crepe paper. As nearly as possible, the paper of different colors was arranged in the shape of a rainbow. Near the entrance the paper was brought to a point and here was fastened the "pot of gold" carrying out the old "rainbow" idea that who ever was fortunate enough to reach the end of the rainbow might have for his own the wonderful "pot of gold." The children's parents were invited and as they came in they dropped a nickel of a dime into the "pot of gold." Punch was served and little tea cakes with rainbow tinted frosting. Altogether the affair was quite charming and the little people thoroughly enjoyed it.

"Free Riot" Laws

How would you like to be pointed out, as a tough, bully, law-breaker and criminal, because you are a member of a labor union, and ruled tyrannically by the leaders who are known to be men of "violent tendencies" (as the Goldfield Committee reported)—who make a business of stirring up trouble, strikes, picketing, boycotting, shaming, dynamiting, destruction of property and who stop industries and force their own union members to go without wages until the leaders can assert their right to degrade and rule?

All of this with fat and sure salaries for the leaders and more or less poverty for their working members.

The writer of this has a little money to spend in telling the public the workman's story. Take one as an example (there are several hundred thousand).

He was born in the town he calls "home," had a school education and by chance slipped thru the "union" restrictions which kept several of his mates from leaving a trade, by securing an apprenticeship. After serving, he became a mechanic, owned a home, was a highly respected neighbor and citizen and prosperous.

Finally a paid "organizer" appeared in the town, a union was formed and he was induced to join under threat of being called a "scab." He knew the organizers got a commission on him and each other new member, and while he thought a union of workmen would be a good thing on some accounts, he didn't exactly like the looks of things, but couldn't help himself.

Then he was ordered to strike to force the discharge of all independent men.

So he lost much by idleness and saw violence and destruction of property in the name of the "union," he of course being charged as one of the lawbreakers although he stayed at home and kept out of trouble and didn't need any injunction to prevent him from committing crime.

He lost his wages and had to bear much odium in order to help fill the pockets of the labor leaders and give them more power.

He was further humiliated by observing that the rank and file of the union men were absolutely controlled by a few leaders who ran things to suit themselves and forced the public to class all union men as indorsing the lawless and despicable acts of these leaders and their bullies.

In a strike, the public had learned by experience to look for lawlessness and violence. Men were followed and bulldozed, attacked and at times murdered.

Horses were maimed, harness cut and wagons and goods destroyed. Women followed and insulted and sometimes stripped naked. Mines were dynamited and flooded, men shot from ambush and homes blown up. Industries were stopped and thousands thrown out of work.

Every time a murder or any lawless act was committed he saw these "leaders" rush into print to deny, and take union money to defend those whom the union men knew to be criminals.

Every act of these Union Leaders seemed to show their sympathy with and desire for lawlessness and violence. They would protest against the presence of police, soldiers or any other peace officer hired by the people.

They would employ all forms of hidden and mean acts to harm other men.

All of these things caused the common people to look upon union men as possible law-breakers and enemies to the peace of the community.

This was further added to by the leaders taking the money of the union members to hire lawyers and lobbyists in Congress to change the penal laws so the real toughs in the unions could commit acts of violence and not be punished.

Also to enact an anti-injunction law so that the people's courts could not issue injunctions which would prevent violence and loss of property.

These things plainly showed that these leaders wanted to be free to commit violence, attack their fellow men, stop industries and destroy property in the name of union labor and set go free.

If union men don't want to riot or commit violence an injunction to prevent it won't hurt him.

This work makes honest, peaceable union workmen disgusted for they are being classed as anarchists.

It is most unfair to reputable union men that they be subject to such leaders and unable either to correct them or escape their anger if not obey.

Organizations of Labor or Capital may exist and operate peacefully and legally, but most of the paid leaders of the unions plainly seek to break the law and commit acts of violence to increase their power, force all men to join and pay increased fees.

It is a dangerous condition demanding attention from every lover of his country.

When workmen are fined and forced to pay from $25.00 to $1000.00 for some "disobedience" of orders from the leaders, some idea of the extent of their slavery can be understood.

A few designing men have gained control of "organized labor" and are sawing schemes to rivet the shackles on their own members and on all citizens. Give them the "free riot" laws and they can enforce obedience.

Take a careful look at the work of these Labor leaders now before Congress.

Demand a revision of the "penal code" so that rioters and toughs directed by Labor Union managers may commit various acts of lawlessness and go free.

They demand an anti-injunction law, so that the hands of the people's courts shall be tied and they cannot issue restraining orders to prevent acts, sure to result in riot, assaulting of other workmen, dynamiting and destruction of property. This is known as the "Free Riot Act."

They demand that no free American who fails to pay fees to the union leaders, be allowed to work in certain gov't departments.

They demand the defeat of public men who vote against these measures of anarchy.

The "union" man's money is used to work these measures through.

It is a most dangerous condition confronting the people, but our workmen and other citizens can preserve their freedom by acting, and acting promptly.

President Roosevelt is quoted as saying, "The worst foes of America are the foes of that orderly liberty without which our Republic must speedily perish. The reckless labor agitator who arouses the mob to riot and bloodshed is in the last analysis the most dangerous of the workmen's enemies. This man is a real peril, and so is his sympathizer, who, to catch votes, denounces the judiciary and military because they put down mobs."

The man who has done us harm are those who preach the doctrine of anarchy and demand that labor will bring them with the pale of the law; for these men lead thousands astray by the fact that they go unpunished or even rewarded for their misdeeds.

The constitution seeks to guarantee to every American, freedom and the right to the pursuit of happiness in his own way. It is not intended that a select few gain control of an organization and by absolute power and violence rule all other men and force them to pay monthly fees, as planned by these labor leaders.

We don't want new laws that make Violence, Dynamiting, Boycotting and general mob rule safe to the tenth element. That would destroy industries and commerce and put workpeople into poverty, with every man's hand raised against his neighbor.

Men of America must take a stand against these insidious attacks on their God-given personal liberty.

The way to help yourself is to write now, and again later, to the members of Congress, whose names you can get and tell them your wishes.

They will understand readily if your letter asks them to "Vote against any bill, whether presented by Labor or Capital, if it is a 'class' measure and intended to benefit a few and injure the many. Demand more good laws against criminals, not less."

Tell them we don't want this country filled up with criminals, made so by cowardly legislation in the interests of Labor Union Bosses, grafters, frauds, dynamiters and anarchists.

Then watch how they vote. Past history shows that the people defeat public men who forget the great majority of their free constituents and work for measures introduced solely to put more power into the hands of designing labor leaders.

When the people speak, things are done.

There are brave members of Congress who stand up for the law-abiding citizens and refuse to vote for the anarchy of these labor leaders, but such Congressmen want words of encouragement from the people.

A few members of Congress think they can continue to hold office by bowing to the shouts and demands of these organized labor leaders in whom anarchy and disorder is incarnated. Such public men (there are but few) are willing to prostitute their own ideas of right and justice to carry favor with an organization thought to be strong enough to keep them in office. That is a fatal mistake.

Look at the members of Congress who have been opposed at the polls by all the forces the leaders of organized labor could bring to bear.

Every Congressman who has stood up fearlessly for the rights of the common people and refused to vote for "free riot" and such bills, has been persecuted by depressed majorities.

What the great mass of newspaper readers and voters want to know is: Does he stand for all the people and not alone for the law, and does he stand for absolute freedom and justice? The answer is only "Organized labor" is a name adopted by the "free riot" men who have gained control. They use this name to mask their anarchy and schemes to keep working men in slavery.

Organized labor itself repeatedly admits one citizen in every ten Americans is set 2 and 1/2 out of 10 million. Great numbers of the 2 million members are uneducated, ignorant, ignorant citizens, and in many cases forced to join unions against their will. Such men absolutely will not support or vote in favor of the "free riot" plans of the "Mob of Violence" tendencies in control.

Then the great peace-loving, patriotic majority, the 80 millions, have at least some regard for the law of the people and their own safety thereunder.
