Keep Your Bowels Open

It is a noticeable fact, and one which any doctor will verify that people who suffer most often from disease are the ones who have the most difficulty in keeping their bowels open. Regular bowel action is half the battle of health.

People who have a tendency to constipation must of necessity use something to help nature along. This should not be a violent aid like laxatives or purgative waters, cathartic pills or powders, but a syrup liquid that will oil the intestines and membranes that it comes in contact with. Children, women, and weak people generally should never be given a strong physic, as it weakens the system. And it fails for the strongest person because the reflex is simple for that day, and then the reaction is simple for the next day.

What is needed is a prompt but gentle laxative tonic like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup of Peppermint. It is a tonic for the system and it is being better liked by more people every year. The reason is that it fits a want. It is known as a tonic, a laxative, and a stimulant, diaphoretic, indigestion, liver trouble, biliousness, flatulence, sour stomach, &c. It is a tonic which is much like the stomachic bitters, which is also a stimulant. A bottle costs but 80 cents or $1 and is worth a hundred times that to any sufferer.

FREE TEST Those wishing to try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Peppermint before buying can have a free sample bottle sent to their home. The offer is to prove that the product will do as it claims, and those who have never taken it. Send for it. If you have a symptom of stomach, liver or bowel disease, Genter's Laxative is the best. It is a guaranteed, guaranteed home cure. The PUBLIC VERDICT: "No Laxative So Good and So Cheap." Genter's Laxative, No. 11, Washington, D. C.

BRYAN MAY GET THE TAGGART AXE

Asserted by Bryanites That National Chairman Does Not Like Nebraskan.

BELIEVE IN CLEVER MOVE.

ASSERTED THAT PEERLESS ONE'S ENEMIES WILL TRY AND LINE UP THE STATE DELEGATION AGAINST HIM.

Washington, Jan. 28—Some of William J. Bryan's warmest friends and most ardent admirers are becoming apprehensive that all is not well for their candidate in Indiana. By watching signs that are cropping out here and there, these men have formed the opinion that there is a movement away down below the surface to deliver the Indiana delegation to the anti-Bryan crowd, which is maneuvering to control one-third of the delegates to the national convention against Bryan and thus prevent his nomination for the presidency.

Chairman Taggart, who in 1904 delivered the Indiana delegation in a neat package to Judge Parker, has been more or less under the eyes of the watchful Bryanites ever since he appointed a sub-committee to take charge of the arrangements for the Denver national convention. The personnel of that subcommittee does not enthuse the Bryan men. At its head is Roger Sullivan of Illinois, who carries a dagger around to insert in Bryan's political vitals every time the opportunity affords. McGraw of West Virginia, Howell of Georgia and Johnston of Texas, other members of the subcommittee, are anti-Bryan men, and are said to be in the game to tie up one-third of the delegates of the convention against Bryan. The Bryan men are beginning to fear that the subcommittee, on arrangements is hostile to Bryan, and will do all it can to lay him on the shelf.

Must Instruct for Bryan.

Leaders of the Bryan faction have sent word to Indiana friends of the Nebraskan that they must see that the coming Democratic state convention ties the state delegation up in hard and fast instructions to vote for Bryan "first, last and all the time." They point out that that is one way in which a Bryan delegation from Indiana can be absolutely cinched. The Democratic state convention of 1906 declared for Bryan, but the declaration of that convention has no binding effect on the delegation yet to be chosen for the national convention. Only this year's state convention can instruct the Hoosier delegation.

This fact is being strongly impressed upon the Bryan men out in Indiana and there will not be found wanting stalwart followers of the Nebraskan who will fight for Bryan instructions to the last ditch, provided any fighting is necessary.

How to Avoid Pneumonia

You can avoid pneumonia and other serious results from a cold by taking Foley's Honey and Tar. It stops the cough, heals the lungs, and expels the cold from the system. Refuse any but the genuine in the yellow package. A. G. Luken & Co.

LISBON SOCIETY

Lisbon society has discovered a new pastime—roller skating. The entire cemented gallery running around the huge garage of the Coccide Portuguese de Automoviles which is one of the finest building of its kind in the world has been set apart for this sport, which has sprung immediately into favor so much so that the proprietors have been obliged to issue invitation tickets in order to limit the number of people who wish to attend.

A Higher Health Level.

"I have reached a higher health level since I began using Dr. King's New Life Pills," writes Jacob Springer, of West Franklin, Maine. "They keep my stomach, liver and bowels working just right." If these pills disappoint you on trial, money will be refunded at A. G. Luken & Co. drug store. 25c.

PIERRE LOIRAT

Pierre Loirat, a retired sea captain, has just died near Bordeaux, at the age of 103. He was only eleven when he went to sea as a cabin boy, and later, while serving in a French bark, he was taken captive by Spanish pirates. He and his fellow prisoners succeeded in overpowering their captors, taking command of the vessel and bringing it safely into the French port where the pirates were handed over to the law.

SIMPLE REMEDY FOR LA GRIPPE

La grippe coughs are dangerous as they frequently develop into pneumonia. Foley's Honey and Tar not only stops the cough but heals and strengthens the lungs so that no serious results need be feared. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar contains no harmful drugs and is in a yellow package. Refuse substitutes. A. G. Luken & Co.

"The Brightest Magazine in America"

THAT was a notable step in magazine making when all precedent was thrown to the winds—when a big, distinctive, new idea was given free play—and when there was produced a magazine worthy the tremendous inspiration of the name of BROADWAY! To-day—eighteen months later—the New BROADWAY MAGAZINE stands forth as the most marked publishing success of recent years. Its circulation has increased 1000 per cent., its advertising patronage 1200 per cent., and all because the BROADWAY is a new kind of a magazine—overflowing with vim, vigor and verve—unyieldingly itself and relentlessly American. The distinctive BROADWAY idea is expressed with unmistakable emphasis in the February issue. Here is a glimpse of its contents:

The Master Builder of Standard Oil

A brilliant pen picture of S. C. T. Dodd, inventor of trusts and the real organizer and protector of the greatest trust in the world, by Herbert N. Casson. One of the most remarkable stories in the series on Corporation Lawyers.

New York's Strain on the Purse Strings

The ruinous tolls which are demanded by the Great, Greedy, Metropolis for the mere privilege of living. How incomes melt away before the scorching breath of the demon of expense. Impressive facts and figures given by Mabel Potter Daggett.

Religion's Little Brothers

Richard Barry fares forth among the outcast gods of the big Metropolis and tells about the frenzy and fanaticism of their worshippers. How the cult of Krishna, god of 'love,' operates. Some queer doings in the name of religion.

The Twelve Gentlemen Martyrs

By Richard Le Gallienne. A remarkably thrilling and absorbing story based on a big sensation. A dozen murders committed in one night "in the name of the American people!" Every victim is marked with the mystic letters, S. S. A. N.

All this—and much more—in the teeming pages of the New BROADWAY for February. You'll find what you want there—11 great timely special articles on as many different phases of life—10 of the cleverest stories you ever read—a profusion of pictures—and every page alive with human interest.
