

BOWLERS IN CITY LEAGUE WROUGHT WITH DISSENSION WHICH MAY KILL SCHEDULE

The absence of several players compelled the Hunts and Rottermans in the City Bowling league to play with four men instead of five last evening. This did not detract from the interest of the game, however, as all the players were of more than the average ability and fairly good scores were rolled.

There is much dissension among the players in the league at this time because of the unevenness of the teams and it is hardly likely that the present schedule will be completed. The last team in the league is weak and the Hunts are much stronger than any other team, having several times defeated picked teams of the best bowlers. The position of the Hunts is secure in first place. They could lose every other game scheduled and retain the position so the only honor now left to play for is second place. The Hunts will not consent to having the team split up and members of it placed on other teams so matters are at a deadlock.

Up to date about fifty players have entered the two man tournament, which will start next week. Entries will be received up to next Sunday when the players of the most ability will draw a partner from the list of amateur bowlers. This will probably be the most interesting bowling event of the year. Summary:

REMARKABLE WORK OF GOAL TENDER

In Game Between Richmond And Marion, Martin Had Seventy-three Stops.

MARION WAS DEFEATED.

THE SWIFT RUSHES OF THE QUIGLEY BROTHERS CARRIED AWAY EVERYTHING BEFORE THEM.

Richmond easily defeated the Marion-Summitville polo outfit last evening by a score of 9 to 3. At the close of the first period the score stood 1 to 1 but in the second period the Quigley brothers hit their stride and from that time on did nothing but pound in goals and throw chalk dust into the eyes of the visitors. Never has any prettier team work been seen on a local floor than the Quigleys displayed last night. Back of them was a perfect defense.

Parry put up an excellent game at center and made his usual goal on a line drive. W. Martin at goal for the visitors played a remarkable game. But for his splendid defense Richmond would have scored under a landslide of goals. Martin had 73 stops to his credit. The offensive work of the visitors was weak and after the first period they were never in the game. Lineups and summary:

HARRY NORTH.

A Richmond Favorite Who Comes to the Gennett Next Week.

David Belasco is the hardest worker of all the American playwrights. It is a not unusual occurrence with him to rehearse a company for ten or twelve hours at a stretch, and then when the actors are tired he dismisses them and goes to work on pruning and fixing up bits of his play, upon which he may still be engaged at midnight.

Vaudeville at the Phillips.

Some of those who have attended the vaudeville at the New Phillips this week are inclined to think that Billy Shaws, whistler and bird and animal imitator, uses some sort of device to aid him, but he makes it plain that his fingers alone are used. One of the best features of his work is the imitation of perhaps a dozen different birds. Master Nelson Sterling continues to be one of the big fun producers of the week. Friday night is set apart for the amateurs and Saturday for a special matinee for the children. The Kines, local performers, have greatly pleased their friends with their black face stunts.

"Under Southern Skies."

When a play lives through six seasons and enters upon a seventh, with crowded houses greeting it everywhere, there can be no doubt that it has effectively caught the fancy of the theatrical-going public. Such a case is Lottie Blair Parker's famous drama, "Under Southern Skies." From its first presentation at the Theatre Republique, show has Belasco theatres in New York City, the play has drawn large and delighted audiences. Time seems once to increase its popularity, and each succeeding night shows its growing powers on the increase, testing the patience of the audience. Few plays of southern life have won such popularity as "Under Southern Skies" which will be the theatrical offering of Manager Swisher at the Gennett Friday night.

North Bros. Coming.

On next Monday night the famous North Brothers, comedians, come to the Gennett for a return engagement.

glad tidings to the theatre patrons to know that they are coming back. Ladies will be admitted free on Monday night under usual conditions.

How to Avoid Pneumonia

You can avoid pneumonia and other serious results from a cold by taking Foley's Honey and Tar. It stops the cough, heals the lungs, and expels the cold from the system. Refuse any but the genuine in the yellow package. A. G. Luken & Co.
