

OHIO TREASURER SEEMS TO DO AS HE SEES FIT

Investigating Committee Called Upon Him But He Refused to Turn Over State Records of Deposits.

ADMITTED THAT HE TOOK INTEREST ON FUNDS.

Asked That the Investigation Be Postponed as It Would Hurt His Deputy's Race for High State Office.

Columbus, O., Feb. 25.—When the senate committee appointed to investigate the condition of the state treasury, called on Treasurer McKinnon, last night, that official asked that the investigation be postponed as Charles Green, chief deputy in his office is a candidate for nomination for treasurer of state. McKinnon did not say investigation would be prejudicial to Green's candidacy, but that was the inference drawn by the committee. The request was refused and those books demanded which show the state fund in deposit, where and the rate of interest received. McKinnon admitted that the only record of deposits of public funds was certificates of deposits, on which payments of interest were indorsed. He said he didn't know how much was on deposit, when he was asked. McKinnon admitted that he had been taking five per cent of the interest, notwithstanding the state salary law provides that no state official shall receive fees. McKinnon justified his action on advice given him by Secretary of State Thompson. He refused to allow the committee to see the books, as investigation was resumed.

WAR STORIES NOW THREATEN TO RUN RIOT OVER WORLD

much of its strength has been due to this common knowledge that the United States was playing no selfish game and that it was not threatening to involve the world in war.

Secretary Hay himself laid down the principle that, while the United States is interested in China commercially and politically on account of that commerce and its possessions in the far East none of its interests were of such paramount national importance as to require it in any conceivable circumstances to take an initiative that might lead to the use of physical force.

This policy was supported by President McKinley and it has since had the support of President Roosevelt. The latter has no intention of changing that policy, and Japan so understands it. When the protest appears and the rumors of war fills the air it will be well to be forewarned as to the actual intentions of the American government to the end that undue agitation may be averted.

Japan Not Behaving. Japan is not behaving in Manchuria as was required of her by the treaty of Portsmouth. Nor is Russia for that matter. Each power is jealous of the other and each is seizing and more the reins of local authority and ousting the humble Chinese. The Japanese are the most aggressive. Their overbearing conduct has greatly incensed the Chinese authorities and on today the cable brings news of a conference of the Chinese governors of the three provinces of Manchuria to be held at Mukden next week. The Chinese government had made representations to Washington concerning the seriousness of the situation, and our government, in pursuance of its settled policy, is preparing to exert its moral influence with Japan and to ask other powers to do the same for China's protection.

While there is not the slightest danger of war between the United States and Japan over either the Manchurian or the immigration question, there does exist here a great deal of curiosity as to how the agitators and "yellow" of Japan will regard the efforts of the United States to bring their government to respect its treaty promises.

MEETING UNUSUAL

Long After Eleven O'clock
Many People Were Converted in Revival.

MUSIC WAS EXCELLENT.

Conversions in a revival after eleven o'clock at night is a new experience in Richmond and last night after one of Dr. Hobson's most powerful sermons, men and women lingered in church, praying and singing, and there was one conversion within a few minutes of twelve o'clock.

The meeting was marvelous and there were three conversions while many were helped.

As usual in all of these meetings the singing was excellent. The choir from Grace and First M. E. churches filled the choir loft and they sang as only Richmond choirs can sing.

Thirty minutes at the opening of the meeting were given to testimony and it was not uncommon to see six or seven persons on the floor at once ready to testify. And such testimonials of the wonderful blessings received during the meetings! More than sixty people testified and more would have, had they had time.

Dr. Hobson preached from the text, "Yea! What Vehement Desire," and from the way he preached no one would have suspected that he had preached four times on Sunday and had spoken for more than five hours. He spoke just as though he had been preparing especially for this service, and in his inimitable way and with such love and gentleness, but with such power as only Hobson can throw into a sermon.

The revival meetings are reaching a class of people who have never been reached before and if indications do not deceive, Richmond people will have an experience in the next ten days that they have never had before. The First church was well filled again last night and it was announced that services would be held every afternoon and evening this week.
