A Few Thousand Ducks Killed And Many Bass Caught.

Manager Clarence Jessup of the local team, returned home yesterday from a week's hunting and fishing trip in Western Illinois. With him on this trip were Will Kelley and Louis Knopf. By actual count these nimrods exterminated 4,310 ducks and somethings over 500 bass, out of the various wet places in that section of the country. These figures are known to be accurate—they were furnished by the nimrods themselves.

ONE FIFTH OF DELEGATES CHOSEN

Washington, March 14.—Nearly one-fifth of the delegates to the Republican convention have now been selected. The additions this week came from Missouri, Nebraska, Iowa, Kentucky, Oklahoma, Virginia and Ohio. The conventions were all held in territory, most of which was conceded to Taft long ago. The returns to date give Taft 112 delegates. Of the delegates selected thus far thirty will be contested in the national convention. Four Hughes district delegates were chosen in Missouri this week. Two of these were instructed and two were uninstructed.

PRACTICAL PICTURES.

Odd Parlor Ornaments and a Very Substantial Dinner.

There is a practical minded millionaire who has invented a substitute for valuable pictures which it is hoped will not command itself to others. He has had a large number of bank notes framed, and these are hung upon the wall where the pictures should be.

In the drawing room is one frame that contains a bank note for $100,000, and he says: "There is the money in case I find a picture which is sufficiently valuable to pay that price for it. Meanwhile the note tells its own tale and saves me from explaining to my visitors that 'this picture cost so much' as most other rich men do."

The chief pleasure of these collectors appears to arise not from the beauty of the work, but from the cost of it; then why not have checks or bank notes for game checks and for sweeps shares in a thriving company, and there was not a guest who did not enjoy this entertainment more than any he or she had ever before been present at.—London Times

The Twilight of Life.

The muscles of the stomach in old age are not as strong or active as in youth and in consequence of indigestion. Many cases of constipation and indigestion can be relieved by the use of Dr. Caldwell's "Gut Tonic," which permanently regulates the bowels so that passages come naturally, and so strengthens the stomach that food is digested without discomfort. Druggists sell it at 50 cents or $1.

Columbus, O., Cincinnati and Evansville. Two other teams will be admitted. The local team will probably be backed by a stock company. It is not known where it is proposed to locate the park.

"GLIGGY BLUKS" CAUSE OF DEATH

Little Girl Died for Lack of Attention.

Bedford, Ind., March 14.—Eunice, the one-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bennett, who reside near Avoca, died last night, apparently a martyr to the "Gliggy Bluks" fallacy.

Coroner Voyles has been at Avoca holding an inquest to determine the cause of the child's death, which, it is alleged, was due to pneumonia and the absence of proper medical attention.

The death of the little Bennett girl has created a feeling of indignation in the vicinity of Avoca, as the father has been at the head of a new religious sect, or faith cure cult, and it is said, depended solely upon an invisible power to heal his daughter.

The Valley of Quillota.

"Whoever," says Charles Darwin in his "Voyage of the Beagle," "called Valparaiso the valley of paradise must have been thinking of Quillota." Quillota is a thriving town twenty-six miles from Valparaiso in a northeasterly direction. Any person, he declares, who sees only the country around Valparaiso, barren of vegetation, would never imagine that there were such picturesque spots in Chile. "As soon as we reached the brow of the sierra the valley of Quillota was immediately under our feet. The prospect was one of remarkable natural luxuriance. The valley is very broad and quite flat and is thus easily irrigated in all parts. The little square gardens are crowded with orange and olive trees and every sort of vegetable."

According to Contract. A man who was very miserly boarded up his stacks of hay year after year in the hope of making double the price he was offered for them. A well known hay and straw buyer in the district one day asked the price of a stack. An enormous price was asked, which the buyer accepted.

"How about the terms of settlement?" asked the old miser.

"Well, you see," said the buyer, "my terms are to settle when I fetch the last load away."

"That's a bargain," said the miser, slipping the other's hand. The old chap watched every load go away except the last, and that the buyer never did fetch away.—London Standard.

No Salute for a Dirty Prince. The crown prince of Germany had as a child a great dislike of being washed. The emperor tried various means to cure him, and he at last hit on the right one. The young prince came running to him one day in a great rage, saying the sentry had not saluted him as he passed.

"To be sure," said the emperor. "I gave orders they were not to salute a dirty prince, but only a clean one." The child's pride was hurt, and he took to the bath.

He Must Have Had Faith.

The church was packed, even the aisles lined with chairs. Just before the benediction the thoughtful clergyman, who loved order as he did the gospel, thus admonished his hearers: "In passing out please remain seated until the ushers have removed the chairs from the aisles."—Lippincott's Magazine.
