CINCINNATI LOSES AGAIN.

Brooklyn, N. Y., April 17.—The Boston Nationals were beaten here by a score of 3 to 1. McIntyre held the visitors without a hit until the sixth inning, when they scored their only tally on a base on balls, an error and a fly to the outfield. PHILADELPHIA 6; NEW YORK 3.

Philadelphia, Pa., April 17.—Hock, a former tri-state pitcher from Wilmington, made his National League debut here yesterday afternoon and succeeded in defeating New York by 6 to 3. CHICAGO 7; CINCINNATI 4.

Cincinnati, O., April 17.—Cold weather seemed to affect the work of both pitchers in the game yesterday afternoon, Lungren's wildness being responsible for three runs scored by Cincinnati in the ninth inning. Welmer's support was largely the cause of his defeat. Score: Cincinnati 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 3—4 6 2 Chicago . . . 3 0 0 0 0 0 3 1 0—7 10 2 Batteries—Welmer, Tozer and McLean; Lungren and Kling.

PITTSBURG 9; ST. LOUIS 6.

St. Louis, Mo., April 17.—The Pittsburgh Nationals defeated St. Louis in the second game of the series 9 to 6. Each team used three pitchers, the batting was heavy and the fielding poor. Score: Pittsburgh . . . 3 1 0 0 5 0 0 0—9 12 1 St. Louis . . . 0 0 0 1 3 2 0 0—6 9 6 Batteries—Frome, Sallee, McGlynn and Hostetter; Maddox, Philippi, Liefield and Gibson.

Candidates Too Well Known.

It was just after the opening of the polls for the election of mayor in a New Jersey town that two Irishmen met and began discussing the chances of two candidates for aldermen.

"It will be a close race between McGlory and Adolph Mink," said the first Irishman, to which the other rejoined: "How is it, Glancy, that in so many votes it should be nip and tuck between McGlory and the Dutchman Mink?"

"Well, I'll tell ye," responded the first Irishman. "It's like this. They're both of 'em very onpopular min, McGlory and Mink. If ye knew wan, ye'd be certain to vote for the other, and both of them are blamed well known!"

LIEBHARDT LOST HIS GAME.

Chicago, April 17.—Detroit rallied late in yesterday's game and by hitting, aided by Sullivan's errors, defeated Chicago 4 to 2 in a ten-inning contest. BOSTON 3; WASHINGTON 1.

She was sulking over a broken resolution anent late hours; but, forgetting this for the nonce, he said: "Do you know, darling, I never tire of looking at this snapshot of you?"

"You might have it framed and hung up in the lodge, then," she answered tartly.

Sure Enough Hogs.

Mose, the darky cook of a party of surveyors in eastern Texas, was greatly annoyed by the razorback hogs that roamed around the camp. One evening while he was at the spring a particularly ravenous band of these "play woods rooters" raided the cook tent and ate up everything that was edible and some things that weren't. For several moments after his return from the spring Mose could find no words to express his feelings. "Was!" he finally exclaimed, "de good Lawd subtainly knowed his business when he named haws 'haws'! Dey sho' is haws!"—Everybody's Magazine.
