

EASTERNERS GET SWEET REVENGE ON FIGHTING FIVE

Defeated Old Richmond Aggregation Last Night Before a Crowd of Fifteen Hundred Fans, in Easy Fashion.

HAUGHTON PLAYED HIS FIRST OF THE SERIES.

The Way Which the "Kid" Cut Up Was Good to See—Higgins Again Showed in Sensational Form.

(By Tort.)

Minus the services of Big Bobby Hart, who jumped to Springfield, O., yesterday to seek the trials and tribulations of an umpire's life in the Ohio State base ball league, the Eastern Champs turned on our Demon Five last evening and spanked them 6 to 4. A big crowd painfully witnessed the corporal punishment administered to the Quakers.

Kid Haughton worked with E. Higgins in place of Hart and the combination proved a winner. Higgins was in the best form he has displayed this week and his floor work and driving was spectacular and effective in the extreme. Haughton worked with him well and succeeded in caging two of the six goals made by the Easterners.

Bone and Cunningham, Sr. played as good polo as they have any other evening this week but the defense of the Easterners was strong for them to penetrate. Sutton at goal shared with Higgins in the honors of the evening. The big goal tend was frequently cheered for his splendid work. Cameron and Gardner rendered him valuable assistance. Cameron had never played center prior to the present series but one would never suspect this from the way he has been holding down that job.

The game started out with the prospects of it being a goal tenders battle. At the close of the first period the score stood 1 to 1. Higgins and Bone each counting on sensational dashes down the floor. In the second Cameron pried open the proceedings after five minutes of play, slashing an angle shot past Jessup. Two minutes later Bone tied the score on a wild swoop down the floor. Haughton then tapped one into the nets on a pass from Higgins. The period closed 3 to 2 in favor of the Easterners.

After a minute of play in the last period, Higgins got the ball back of his own cage, ran, flew, skated and hurdled down the floor with the speed of a rabbit and concluded his charge by slapping the ball past Jessup. Five minutes later the little fellow repeated this performance, cinching the game for his team. Cunningham, Haughton and Bone then counted in order and the game was over. Summary:

PENNANT CHASERS DOWNED BY POLOITES

Richmond Base Ball Team Badly Scorched by Eastern Men.

JESSUP AIDED IN WORK.

TEXAS LEAGUER BROUGHT CAMERON HOME AND JESSUP LATER SCORED—COSTUMES WORN WERE FEATURE OF GAME.

(By Tort.)

The Polo Stars defeated our aspirants for the hunting in the I. O. base ball league yesterday to a score of 5 to 3. The game was featured by good playing and the coming out costumes of the poloites. In the clothes line, Mr. E. Higgins carried off all honors. As a tip to local tailors we will attempt to describe Mr. Higgins' plumage. State-pencil grey shirt, sleeves cut a la balloon job and creased on the seams. Neat brown trousers, indicated at the hips and gradually shrinking in size as they extended to the feet, which were incased in bedroom slippers. Mr. Higgins made two attempts to get under fly balls in left field, but each time the balloon job sleeves became filled with atmosphere and carried him off his feet, much to the indignation of B. Doherty, who managed the team from the press box.

All the stars showed the Jessup colts that polo was not the only pastime they were familiar with and the small crowd of fans who witnessed the game were surprised at the article of ball put up by the easterners. Mason and Jessup formed the battery for the Stars and it was Jessup that caused the downfall of his own hired men. In the seventh, J. Cameron leaned against one of Higgins' offerings and smote it to left center for three bases. Jessup brought him home on a Texas Leaguer and Jessup counted on Gardner's single. Summary:

LUNATIC PRESIDENT OF U. S. SENATE

He So Declared Himself Yesterday.

JUDGE IS IMPATIENT

Wants a Hearing of the Bolin Case Which Is Now Hanging Fire.

NO MORE CONTINUANCES.

"There will be no more continuances of this case. I want you to understand," said Judge Fox, of the Wayne circuit court this morning. He referred to the case of the State vs. Sterling Bolin, and he spoke to the attorneys involved in the case. Bolin is charged with assault and battery with intent to kill. Arch Hindman, the Hagerstown hotel owner and well known attorney

Bolin is a negro and it was his vicious attack on Hindman after the latter had attempted to intercede in behalf of a woman companion of Bolin, whom the latter was assaulting, that precipitated the Hagerstown mob. Instantly a commotion was created, which demanded the life of Bolin. It was believed at the time the injuries to Hindman would prove fatal. Bolin was spirited away from the mob by a ruse and taken to Cambridge City and all violence avoided. The negro has been in jail ever since.

BATTLE FOUGHT WITH MONSTER BLACKSNAKE

Women and Men Finally Kill The Creature.

Economy, Ind., April 24.—In a runaway accident Thursday, William Shaw was severely injured about the head and face by being thrown from the rig. The horse frightened and Mr. Shaw was unable to control its frantic movements. He was hurled to the ground with great force. The horse continued on its flight and demolished the buggy.

Didn't Get the Reward.

A jeweler hung a watch in his window and labeled it, "Look at this watch for 10 shillings." And the unsophisticated gentleman who stared at the article and then went in and wanted the 10 shillings had to get down on the floor with the jeweler and roll over and under him a number of times before he could be made to understand that he couldn't have any 10 shillings.

Himself to Blame.

A youthful versifier in Washington not long ago sought the criticism of a well known publisher who chanced to be at the national capital on business with the copyright division of the library of congress.

"Sir," said the near poet indignantly when the publisher had brusquely advised him to "burn the stuff"—"sir, poets are born, not made."

Whereupon the publisher smiled broadly. "Young man," said he, "it won't help your case in the least to try to shift the blame on your parents."
