

GAME WENT TEN INNINGS TO TIE

Richmond Could Not Defeat Dayton Clippers in Sunday's Contest.

BROWN WAS THE STAR.

LOCAL PITCHER BREEZED JUST SIXTEEN MEN IN COURSE OF HOSTILITIES AND IN OTHER WAYS PLAYED GOOD GAME.

(By Tort)

The local leaguers played the Dayton Clippers to a draw 3 to 3, yesterday afternoon. At the close of the tenth inning, umpire Bobby Hart called the game on account of darkness, although no one in the crowd had to use a lantern in finding his way out of the park at the conclusion of hostilities. Old J. Pluvius rained into the game, with several hoseheads of wet, while the fourth inning was in progress, causing the players and the bleachers to seek shelter. After the downpour had subsided, the game was continued again.

The locals should have won the game hands down, but errors of judgment and execution prevented this. Our famous Spartansburg athlete, Mr. Brown, was on the slab and he pitched a good enough game for any pitcher to win, whiffing sixteen Clippers and allowing them only five hits, two of them scratches. The Quakers touched up southpaw Haylor of Dayton for eight swats, of which "Red" Hurst, the new outfielder, annexed four. Two of his hits were singles, one a two-bagger, and the fourth a triple coming in the tenth with only one hand down. However he was allowed to perish on third. Burns being thrown out at second on a foolish attempt to pilfer second and Baumann popping out to the second baseman. If Mr. Hurst can continue his good work of yesterday, the prayers of the fans for a "fast, hard hitting outfielder" will have been answered.

Dayton took the lead in the first, two runners counting on a single and a past ball. In the locals half of the first two runs were making, tying up the score. Shinn drew transportation and Bambaugh singled, then both counted on Yingling's overthrow of third in trying to catch Shinn off the bag. Burns' error in the fourth was responsible for the Clippers' third run. After he had given Thompson a life on this fizzle, the runner counted on singles by Jones and Welsh. With two down in the fifth, Hurst doubled to right center and counted on Burns' hot single. In the eighth the Quakers threatened to score, but didn't. Burns and Baumann, the first two up, got on bases through errors. Hedjuk sacrificed them and then Shinn lifted a high one to Emminger in left who pulled off a pretty double play with Catcher Yingling, throwing Burns out at the plate by four feet. In the ninth the visitors with two down began to look threatening, two men getting on base by virtue of an error and a base on balls. Brown was equal to the occasion, however, and breezed the next batter for the third out. Let it be known, reader, that in three innings, Brown peddled the side on strikeouts. Going a lick, eh? ## Affairs of the Sporting World

(By Tort)

Red Hurst has the ear marks of a find. His batting yesterday was one of the pleasing features of the game. He has not had a chance in the field yet, but he showed himself to be fast man on the bases and a player who is full of ginger.

Baumann, the new shortstop, pleased the fans with his work. At the bat he got a clean single and he accepted his five chances in the field in a clean, business-like manner. Despite a sore arm he threw nicely to first.

Spartansburg Brown was certainly in rare form yesterday. It is an event that a pitcher is responsible for over half the put outs in a ten inning game. He had plenty of speed and his curves broke nicely. It is probable that he would not have given a base on balls, but for the slippery condition of the ball.

Bobby Hart, demon polo player, presided over the destinies of the game in a splendid manner. Not a lick was registered against his decisions for the simple reason that there was no lick coming. He made the players step lively, which also pleased the fans.

The game yesterday, while slow, showed the fans that the local bunch is coming at a fast clip and will round into a fast aggregation. As soon as the boys get to playing regularly, all the rough edges will be worn off. Only one game a week does not keep them in trim.

Cap Parker, a left handed batter, had trouble yesterday with the shoots of Southpaw Haylor. Three times did Haylor whiff the doughy, hard hitting captain. Parker will soon have his batting lamps properly trimmed.

The going yesterday was fierce after the rain storm in the fourth. It was extremely difficult for the infielders to field their positions and the base runners had a still harder time. Burns and Parker are each credited with an error which would not have occurred had the diamond been dry.

Romminger, in left, robbed Shinn of two nice swats. Emminger also saved his team from defeat by his beautiful throw to the plate in the eighth to catch Burns.

BEALLVIEW WAS DEFEATED

AFTER HAVING TIED THE GRAYS' SCORE THE GAME WAS CALLED IN MIDDLE OF INNING ON ACCOUNT OF THE RAIN.

Cambridge City, Ind., April 27. The second installment of this season's base ball, was played at Capitol Hill park yesterday afternoon when the Grays lined up against the Beallviews of Richmond. Rain and hail made it necessary to call the game to a halt in the last half of the sixth inning, when the score was a tie of 4-4, the visitors having pulled in two runs in their half of the inning. As the game was called in the middle of the inning, before the locals had been retired, the score goes back to where it stood in the fifth inning, which was 4-2, the Grays being in the lead. Boyd was in the box for the locals and was in excellent trim, having perfect control and lots of speed. Shiverdecker took the mound in the fifth and proved to be in the condition, but did not get to demonstrate his ability, the game being called in the next inning. In contrast to the game of last Sunday, the playing of the locals was not as snappy. Kelly, who was the center of attraction in the game of last Sunday, seemed to be bunglesome at short, letting several good ones get away from him, but at that he was able to make up for his misplays, when at the bat, as he landed safely on the ball three times. Owing to the bad condition of Captain Weaver's arm, he did not show to be in prime condition at first yesterday. He was struck on the arm by the pitcher in the last of the second which had a tendency to make matters worse with him. Had the Grays put up the game yesterday that they did last Sunday against the New Madison aggregation the Beallviews would not have had a look in.

Just after the game had been called in the sixth inning and the crowd had started to disperse and seek shelter from the hail and rainstorm that was in progress, a vivid flash of lightning struck the ground in left field about two hundred feet from the grandstand and set fire to the grass and also stunned several people. Luckily no body was severely hurt. Chas Griffin and Oma Dillon were among those who received the greatest shock, the force of which threw them to the ground, otherwise they were uninjured.

KENTUCKY STATE PLAYING EARLHAM

Schools Battling at Earlham This Afternoon.

The Quaker nine is playing a fast game with the bunch from Kentucky State college on Reid field this afternoon. The Kentucky college has a fast nine in the field this year. The light of the game which the Quakers took from the Baptists at Franklin last Saturday a close game is expected. Earlham's battery is showing up in fine shape, White allowing but five hits to the Franklin batters on last Saturday.

With a little assistance from the rest of the team, White will be able to carry the Quaker squad to the secondary college championship.

NATIONALS SCORE OVER BOSTON

South Countians Given a Drubbing.

Boston, Ind., April 27.—The National base ball team defeated Boston Sunday 18 to 7. Rain fell during the whole game but despite this, some good ball was played by the Nationals. Only six hits were secured off Mull, the Nationals pitcher, while Jennings and Stanley were hit for 28 safe ones. Features of the game were Baumbach's shoe string catch and the heavy hitting of the whole team. Score:

$500,000 STOLEN IN GOTHAM IN MARCH

The Disclosures Are But Recent.

London, April 27. The London postal authorities have learned that two bags of mail from this city, containing securities and other valuables worth $500,000, were stolen in New York the latter part of last month. According to the reports one of the bags was destined for St. Louis and was shipped by the Atlantic, which arrived in New York, March 26. The other, destined for Brooklyn, was shipped by the steamer Philadelphia, which arrived at New York March 25. Both bags disappeared in transit between the steamers and the postoffice. It is stated that they were handed over to the mail boats and receipts for them taken. Efforts have been made to keep the theft a secret while the investigation has been going on.

ONE TOUCH OF NATURE.

A Display of Courtesy "In Memory of Old Virginia."

All the seats were taken in the car which I entered one morning in early April. An old colored man sat next the door. It is not often in these days that I see that type of black man. I used to see that kind on the old Virginia plantation, where he was "Ung Laze" or "Ung Sambo" to all the household. His days were devoted to useful toil and his evenings to his banjo and the old plantation melodies that no one can ever sing again as musically as they were sung then.

"Take this seat, mistis," he said, rising promptly. "Mistis" sounded very "homey" and pleasant to me. It had been so long since I was "mistis" to anybody. "Thank you, uncle," said I. "Keep your seat, I would just as lief stand." "Sense me, please, mistis, but 'tain't fitten for you ter stan' you must set," he admonished respectfully. I took the seat, thanking him for his courtesy. Soon a departing passenger left a vacancy. "There is a seat for you," I said to the old man.

"Between the ladies, ma'am?" He hesitated. "Yes," I said. He bowed apologetically to right and left and took the vacant place. Just before leaving the car I slipped a silver piece into his hand, saying, "I n'cle, get you a nice luncheon with this—in memory of old Virginia." "Thank you, my mistis," he said, opening his hand to look at the little gift and then closing it. I left the car with a sunnier feeling in my heart because of the chance meeting, but with no thought that I should ever again hear of my old Virginia.

That afternoon I received a bunch of arbutus which had been left for me by an old colored man—"fer the lady with a long blue coat an' white hair—in memory of old Virginia an' dem old time days!"—Lippincott's Magazine.

THE BOSTONIAN SHOE For Men

Built on reasonable lines. Every curve and swell of the foot finds a corresponding form in a "Bostonian" shoe. That means actual and unequalled foot-comfort, because tired feet, sore joints and those agonizing little things called corns, are caused by shoes which attempt to shape the foot to themselves rather than shape themselves to the foot. "Bostonian" shoes fit like a sock—they touch all over but they do it easy; and when you come to "Bostonian" style and wear, there's nothing to be desired.
