

MARION TEAM WON GAME LAST NIGHT

All Star Polo Aggregation Went Down in Defeat in That City.

LEWIS WAS "THERE."

SCORED TIME AFTER TIME IN LIGHTNING FASHION—BONE WAS ALSO IN THE RUNNING AT ALL TIMES.

Marion, Ind., April 29.—About 1,500 enthusiastic polo fans had their interest renewed in the great winter sport last evening when they witnessed a fast contest between two all-star polo teams, which were brought west through the enterprise of the Richmond lodge of Elks. One team was called the Marion team and the fans successfully rooted this outfit to victory. Teddy Lewis was back in the game and he rushed with the great "Doggie" Bone. The game that these two whirlwinds, especially Lewis, put up, was worth going miles to see. Besides being fast the game was decidedly rough and scrappy, each team losing a goal on fouls. Four of the six goals made by Marion were scored by Lewis, one of them being in three seconds. Clarence Jessup failed to show up and Cameron took his place in goal for the locals and maybe that James boy didn't kick 'em out about right. Summary: Marion. All Stars. Lewis first rush. Higgins Bone second rush. Hart.

Cunty, Jr., center. Mansfield Doherty, half back. Gardner Cameron, goal. Sutton.

Affairs of the Sporting World

(By Tort.)

Manager Jessup has annulled his schedule. Yesterday he decided that it was too late in the season to play polo, so he did not make the trip to Marion. He will give his base ball recruits personal supervision all this week and knock the rough corners off the team in preparation for the opening of the league season.

The following bits of sassy persiflage are culled from the esteemed Huntington Herald:

"The ex-Kokomo team, now at Logansport, shows form all right. They have batting eyes, too. Ask Prong! Logansport lost three straight—two to Van Wert by heart-rending scores and the third to Huntington.

Huntington has yet to meet Richmond. The class of the other teams in the I. O. is now known and nobody hears any distant flapping of the pennant yet. Jessup and his bunch are doing a bit of chest work, but the Indian sign is on all egotism.

There's not a one of the 500 or 600 present at Sunday's game but will say the locals are a bunch of comers that will come fast from this date on."

Second Baseman Stadfield and Third Baseman Collins have been released by Manager Hunt of the Van Wert team.

The Van Wert Bulletin states that the Logansport team has a number of fast individual players but that the team is lamentably weak on team work.

And what has become of Frank Gardner our scrappy player-ump of last season? By the way Gardner was the party who inaugurated the yard cleaning fad in Richmond. He cleaned up Athletic park with the Bluffton team, one never-to-be-forgotten day last summer.

Manager Baird of Logansport has signed Harry Elchier to cover second base. He will add great strength to the Logans.

The local base ball company is contemplating hiring a trained nurse for the tender little blades of grass which are now trying to sprout into manhood out in left field.

Says the Van Wert Bulletin:

The local fans who entertained grave fears on the score of how well Van Wert is fortified behind the bat have had their misgivings dissipated. The series with Logansport provided the opportunity to compare the work of Wolfe of Logansport, who led the Indiana-Ohio league catchers last year and Hardin. The result is that Van Wert is perfectly willing to stand pat.

The first triple play ever perpetrated in Philadelphia was pulled off by Davis, Murphy and Nichols, Athletics' infielders, in a game against Washington.

Pitcher Stovall of the Louisville team shut Minneapolis out yesterday without a hit or a run. It was the first no hit game of the season. Rube Waddell will now proceed to get busy.

Cy Alberts, one of the Ft. Wayne twirlers who was with the Bluffton I. O. league team last season, shut Zanesville out yesterday with five singles.

It is reported that the world's champion trotting stallion, Crescens, has been sold for $25,000 to a Russian syndicate.

MARRIED IN TWO DAYS; DIVORCE IN FOUR WEEKS

Romance of Rush County Couple "Squelched."

Rushville, Ind., April 29. Jacob Wissing, age fifty-three, has been proceeding for divorce from his wife, a bride of about four weeks. Wissing's first wife died two years ago, and being in ill health for the last few months, he advertised recently for a housekeeper. Mrs. Josephine Reinhardt, of Shionton, Ill., in response to the advertisement, came to accept the position and, apparently, it was a case of love at first sight. The couple married two days after they met. The bride was fifty-three years of age.

Three days after the marriage Wissing became ill and was confined to his bed for over a week. His wife nursed him through his illness and when he had regained his health she declared she was sorry she had married him and left for her home in Illinois.

Wissing is one of the largest and owners in Ripley township and owns a farm of over 200 acres. He charges desertion in his complaint.
