

ANOTHER WATSON

Congressman Will Now Have Opportunity to Use the Whip at Home.

ROOSEVELT IS PLEASED.

Rushville, Ind., June 4.—James E. Watson, republican candidate for governor of Indiana and "whip" of the National house of representatives, has a chance to use the whip at home on another heir who entered his home yesterday.

Congressman Watson's desire that the heir be a boy and a republican voter, was gratified partially. The heir is a boy, but can not be a voter for twenty-one years.

The stork, scattering his feathers of forecast about the Watson home, virtually tied up the workings of the republican machinery in Indiana, for Mr. Watson, insisted on staying home and many important speaking engagements were canceled.

A few days ago, when Mr. Watson decided to return from Washington before the adjournment of congress, inasmuch as he had charge of the republican floor work in the capacity of whip of the house, he deemed it advisable to apprise President Roosevelt of his intended departure. The president and Mr. Watson had outlined important work for the closing days of congress and it was with a slight feeling of timidity the congressman approached the president.

"Going home at this time?" thundered the president. "Is somebody dead?"

Mr. Watson informed him all were well and in a diplomatic manner led up to an explanation, introducing the president's hobby on race suicide, and when it was finally stated in a clear and comprehensive manner the president's face was enveloped in a smile.

"My dear Mr. Watson," said President Roosevelt, "go home in all haste and accept my best wishes and heartiest congratulations for Mrs. Watson and yourself."

BATTLE IS FOUGHT

Posse of Citizens and Band of Robbers in Oklahoma Engagement.

POSSE IS NOW IN PURSUIT.

Hartshorne, Okla., June 4.—A pitched battle ensued in the mountains near here when the posse of citizens and officers caught up with four outlaws who had robbed a postoffice and store in this town. Scores of shots were exchanged. The robbers, who bareback on the animals.

The posse lost four horses, but captured the camp outfit and a bag of gold tied to one of the saddles. The posse of fifty men is in pursuit.

NO HUMBUG

No humbug claims have to be made for Foley's Honey and Tar, the well known remedy for coughs, colds and lung troubles. The fact that more bottles of Foley's Honey and Tar are used than of any other cough remedy is the best testimonial of its great merit. Why then risk taking some unknown preparation when Foley's Honey and Tar costs you no more and is safe and sure. A. G. Luken & Co.

KILLED GIRL AT THE DIRECTION OF GOD

"Devil Chaser" Declared to Be Mentally Unsound.

Easton, Penn., June 4.—The commission appointed to examine Robert Bachman, religious fanatic, who murdered his little niece during an orgie at Nazareth on April 29, filed a report that the prisoner's mind is unbalanced, and recommended that he be removed to an asylum.

Bachman laughed at the experts and declared he had no use for lawyers. He admitted that he killed the child, but said he had been directed to do so by God.

BEAUTY DOCTOR

Advises Women to Develop.

Says the New Method Increases the Bust Measurement and Rounds the Arms and Neck.

(By CLARA BELLE M.)

"Speaking from my own personal experience and from observation of many of whom I have successfully treated in the past two years, I should say that Madame Moneaux really owned her great success as a beauty specialist to the use of a simple preparation which is used exclusively to develop the bust, arms and neck. I became acquainted with this formula and have used it ever since, much to the delight of patrons. I now buy the ingredients in wholesale quantities, although any well stocked drugstore can supply them.

"If your bust lacks development or firmness you can rely on both increase and firmness from the persistent use of the following: Obtain of the druggist two ounces of glycerine and one ounce tincture Cadomene, mix and let stand several hours; then add a teaspoonful of borax and three ounces of rosewater. Shake well and apply to the neck, arms and bust, rubbing and massaging until it is completely absorbed; then wash the parts treated with very hot water and soap and dry thoroughly. Apply the treatment morning and night regularly for several weeks or months as the case may require, and the most exquisite firmness and rounding out of hollow places will reward you.

"It is the refreshing fullness and exquisite firmness of the feminine form that attracts, and it is the well developed woman who captivates, charms and retains the affections and endearments of the opposite sex. If you are observing, you know this is true."

LOYALTY IS SHOWN

DePauw Graduates and His Wife Elected Hughes Bishop, He Says.

NOW IN GREENCASTLE.

Greencastle, Ind., June 4.—In speaking at the mass meeting held in honor of his homecoming, President Edwin Holt Hughes yesterday afternoon attributed his success in being elected a bishop of the Methodist Episcopal church at the recent Baltimore conference to his wife and to the influence of the DePauw graduates who were delegates there.

"When Mrs. Hughes came to Baltimore my vote was at a low ebb," said Dr. Hughes. "It went up on the next ballot, however, and I feel sure that she largely was the cause. I am sure my election was largely influenced by the numerous DePauw graduates who were delegates to the Baltimore conference. Sasamori, the famous DePauw graduate, was there representing Japan and his influence was greatly felt."

President Hughes spoke feelingly of his relations with DePauw and said he had expected to remain here much longer than four years. He spoke of the harmony in which the faculty, trustees and students of the university had worked with him. Dr. Hughes said he was glad to see the prospect for DePauw's future so bright and regretted having to sever connection with it. The other speakers at the mass meeting were C. T. Peck, representing the city; Jesse W. Welk of the student body; Jesse W. Welk of the alumni and Dr. H. A. Gobin, representing the faculty.

LAFAYETTE IS CHOSEN

Sunday School Workers of the State to Convene There Next Year.

OFFICERS TO BE CHOSEN.

Vincennes, Ind., June 4.—Standing room was at a premium last night at the First Presbyterian church, where the forty-fourth annual convention of the State Sunday school association has been in session since Tuesday night. George N. Burnie, superintendent of the department of education, made a report on the year's work and state treasurer W. H. Elvin presented diplomas to a number of graduates.

The principal address was made by the Rev. H. M. Hamill, D. D., superintendent of the teacher training work of the M. E. Church South. His subject was "Sunday School Progress Around the World."

The convention will close tonight. Just who will be the new state officers can not be ascertained, although it is said at least a part of the present head officials may be re-elected. Lafayette was chosen as next year's meeting place. Muncie made a fight for the convention.

The City of Mexico has a hotel, the Colon, which is managed for and patronized exclusively by men and women in religious orders.

HIS LIFE ENDANGERED

Skittish Young Horse Dis-mounts Pres. Roosevelt.

THROWN INTO A CREEK.

Washington, June 4.—Charles Warren Fairbanks of Indiana came near succeeding in the presidency of the United States last night. It was by the proverbial "Roosevelt luck" that the President was saved from death in the water of Rock Creek, the beautiful stream that pierces Washington from the north.

The report that President Roosevelt had narrowly escaped a serious accident was so emphatically denied at the White House last night that few newspapermen put into the form of a dispatch what was generally believed to be a mere rumor.

It was learned today from the President's own lips that while riding through Rock Creek Park yesterday, in company with Mrs. Roosevelt and Cornelius McDermott, Mr. Roosevelt was thrown from his mount, and for a moment his life was in great peril. Mr. Roosevelt landed in the water of the creek at a point where it flows rapidly over small boulders which cover the bed of the stream, and at some points project above the water. The President was "trying" a skittish young horse from Ft. Meyer.

NO NATURE FAKE

Motherly Pigeon Near Economy Hatches Two Large Chicken Eggs.

LOSES HER OFFSPRING.

Economy, Ind., June 4.—A pigeon owned by Vaughan, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Chamness, of West River, has succeeded in hatching two chickens, although the combined size of the two chicken eggs was almost as great as the mother bird. The nest was constructed on a broad beam high up in the barn loft and how the eggs happened to be placed there and why the pigeon should assume the obligation of hatching them is one of the numerous mysteries of nature.

When the Chamness boy was climbing about in the barn last week he noticed the two hen eggs on the beam and was preparing to remove them when the pigeon flew in and nestled over the eggs. The boy left the bird and eggs and awaited developments. One day later he went out to the barn again and heard sounds of young chickens. He could not locate any hidden nests beneath the barn nor any place about the stalls and finally climbed to the pigeon roosts on the beam. Here he found the two little down covered chicks. The foster mother seemed very proud of her unnatural offspring.

As there was believed to be no probability that the chicks would develop the flying power of pigeons and that an accident would befall their attempt to descend from their aerial perch, they were removed and placed with other young chickens in the poultry yard.

Man and Art.

In ancient times there stood in the citadel of Athens three statues of Minerva. The first was of olive wood and according to popular tradition, had fallen from heaven. The second was of bronze, commemorating the victory of Marathon, and the third of gold and ivory—a great miracle of art in the days of Pericles. And thus in the citadel of time stands man himself in childhood, shaped of soft and delicate wood, just fallen from heaven; in manhood a statue of bronze, commemorating struggle and victory, and, lastly, in the maturity of age, perfectly shaped in gold and ivory—a miracle of art!

Temper.

Temper itself is not a bad quality. It is not to be destroyed, as we sometimes say. Without temper a bar of steel becomes like lead. A man without temper is weak and worthless. We are to learn self control. A strong person is one who has a strong temper under perfect mastery. There is a deep truth here—that our mistakes and our sins, if we repent of them, will help in the growth and upbuilding of our character.

Fair Proposition.

"Don't you throw off anything because of the big holes in these doughnuts?" asked the new wife of the baker.

"I'll tell you," he replied, scratching his chin. "Eat the doughnuts, and we'll make a liberal allowance when you return the holes."

A Sleep Inducer.

Hicks—Did you hear about Macklin? They called the Rev. Mr. Duller to his bedside last evening. Wicks—Do you mean to say he is in a dying condition? Hicks—Oh, no; only a bad case of insomnia.

GAVE $2,500 FOR HALF OF JONAH.

Columbus, Mo., June 4.—Rev. Gustavus Hoffman, who after donating $5,000 to the Missouri Bible College here, refused to give up the money because, as he alleged, the school, affiliating with Chicago University, tried to discredit the Jonah whale story, and as a consequence was sued by the school, made a compromise today. He agreed, practically, to the discrediting of half the Jonah story by giving $2,500 to the bible school. He declared, because of its affiliation the school was the hotbed of infidelity.

AUTO CHECKS LOVERS WHO WISH TO ELOPE

Angry Papa Pursues and Captures Daughter.

Lima, O., June 4.—The speed and endurance of automobile over horse flesh in a twenty-mile race, checkmated the elopement to this city of Robert McKay and nineteen-year-old Elizabeth Krauss, residing near Ottawa.

The couple escaped from the parents late last night and hid them toward Lima with the intention of taking a train to Kentucky. Learning of his daughter's absence, the father, in his auto, overtook them when their horse dropped exhausted on Main street here early this morning. He lifted his daughter from the buggy and returned to the farm home in Putnam county, while young McKay stood by.

The would-be groom declared he will make a second attempt and himself use an auto. Both are children of wealthy land owners of Putnam county.
