Games Today.
Van Wert at Huntington.
Muncie at Richmond.

(By Tort.)
Richmond won from Muncie yesterday because Pierce laced out a home run in the ninth; Muncie lost to Richmond because Hall doped an easy chance off Jessup's bat in the second, allowing Pierce to score.

By the above outline it can be seen that Mr. J. Pierce was quite the main piece of work of the afternoon's pastime. Other distinguished luminaries of the contest were Aresmith and Carmichael, the demon Dunkirk athletes. These two twirlers were in grand form and the game was anybody's up to the time Pierce got in his devilish work in the ninth.

The game was a home run affair, notwithstanding the fact that the total number of hits made by the two teams only registered ten. Of this number four counted for the entire circuit of the bases. The two collected by the locals were perpetrated by Bauman and Pierce. The two home runs made by the hostiles are charged to Hall and Carmichael. All of them but one made by Bauman were of a lucky nature. These fluke homers, had they not double crossed the outfielders, would have only counted for singles.

In the kickoff, Mr. Bauman performed his usual daily exhibition, to wit: tore the wadding out of a brand new ball, costing as much as $1.25 in real money. After committing this act of vandalism Mr. Bauman never stopped running until he had made the complete circuit of the bases. Remnants of the ruined ball were found by Mr. Hall in deep center, near the fence.

In the second, Pierce led off with a single. J. Baumbaugh and Shinn were easy out, then Jessup lofted one to Hall, who allowed the ball to squirt through his hands. On this miscue Mr. Pierce counted. In the fourth, Hall smote to left. The ball hit the ground then made an ascension over Shinn's head. It was recovered near the gate. Hall counted on the drive. In the eighth, Carmichael drove a 'lucky' one past Hurst which counted for a homer. In the last of the ninth, Pierce, the first man up, hit the first ball pitched him over the second base. It bounded over Hall's head and rolled far enough to allow Pierce to bring home the winning run. Summary:

VAN WERT SLAUGHTERED. Huntington Pounds Pitchers All Over Lot.

Huntington, Ind., June 6.—In a game not dissimilar to one between high school teams today Huntington won over Van Wert by a score of thirteen to one. The locals just pounded Captain Louie Hunt of Van Wert out of the box and he out in his right fielder Grey, but it did no good. Huntington hit the ball and bagged two and three baggers at will. Nearly all the game was played in the infield when Van Wert was at bat. Score: Huntington 0 2 5 2 0 2 0 2 x—13 17 3. Van Wert 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0—1 5 3. Romaine and Fogel; Hunt, Grey and Hardin. Huntington scored four two base hits and three three base hits. Van Wert got one two base hit. Attendance 500.

The high school seniors will be well represented at the various colleges. Nearly two thirds of the class will attend some school or college in preparation for their future work. The class this year consists of nearly sixty members and about forty will go away to school.

Five will go to Purdue to take various branches of work. Others will go to universities of Michigan, Pennsylvania, Wittenberg, Chicago, Cornell and Harvard and Earlham.

The class this year will have only one doctor, one chauntanga speaker, one electrical engineer, but several civil engineers, a lawyer and plenty of teachers.

Among the students who expect to enter school next fall are: Howard Reid will enter Harvard to take up science; Harry Clendenin will enter Purdue; Mary Stoner will go to Earlham; Barbara Beckman will enter Earlham; Fannie Simmons will go to Earlham to take the course offered for teachers; Mable Kuhn will enter Boston School of Expression; Marjory Simpson will go to Earlham to take teachers course; Edna Skinner to Earlham; Edith Guver will take teachers course at Earlham; Alden Marshall goes to the university of Michigan; Eva Phelps will take teachers course at Earlham; Mary Likens will go to the Indianapolis Kindergarten school; Robert Tallant, Purdue university; Harry Karns, university of Pennsylvania; Clarence Cates, Indiana; Newton Lamb, Purdue; Garner Ryley to Purdue Medical colleges; Mary Dickinson to Chicago Art school; Forrel Hunt, Mural Self, Ruth Mott, Arline Barlow, Cora M. Easthaven won its first game of the season yesterday afternoon, defeating the Starr Piano team in a well played pitchers' battle. It was a nip and tuck fight from start to finish which was not decided until the last minute of play. Easthaven won in the seventh by bunting hits. Score: Easthaven 4 3 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 4-7 3. Starr Pianos 1 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 3 5-2.

Batteries—Yegul and Ranke, Easthaven; Kuhlbeck and Sullivan, Starr Pianos.

Kibbys Forfeit Game.

The Kibbys only mustered seven regular players when they reported at Athletic park yesterday afternoon to do battle with the Hoosier Drills. This made it necessary for the Cravat Clerks to forfeit the contest. After doing this the Kibbys picked up a couple of players, and in an exhibition contest, trimmed the factory boys in a one-sided game by a score of 17 to 1. The feature of the contest was the batting of Allison for the Kibbys. In one inning he made two clean home runs.

Conquering an Audience.

There is more than one way of bringing order out of chaos. Jere Clemens, a near relative of Mark Twain, is described in the humorist's "Autobiography" as a noted pistol shot. He was also an orator, and to one of his meetings went antagonists with drums, intending to drum down any attempt at speaking. When he got up to speak Jere pulled out his revolver and laid it on the table.

"I do not wish to hurt anybody," he began in what Mark Twain calls his "soft, silky way." "I shall try not to, but I have got just a bullet apiece for those six drums, and if you should want to play on them don't stand behind them."

The meeting was a model of order.

to choose some younger, more aggressive and radical man—quite possibly Senator Dolliver, of Iowa—for the vice presidency and semi radical like Dolliver would get the warm support of the Rooseveltians of the party. That arrangement would also include Harry S. New for chairman of the committee and Elmer Dover as secretary, both of whom have been trained under Hanna and Cortelyou to get contributions.

FANS TAKE WARNING

MUNCIE PLAYS TODAY.

Richmond and Muncie will play off the final game of the series this afternoon at Athletic park, the game being called promptly at 3 o'clock. Fleming or Mason will pitch for the locals, while Hiatt will probably work for Muncie. Three hundred Muncie rooters will be on hand to witness the contest and they promise to make things extremely lively. The games played here Friday and Saturday were very poorly patronized and the fans should make up for their lack of support these two games by turning out in force Sunday. One thing is a cinch. If the people of Richmond want to continue having baseball the remainder of the season the club must receive better support than has been accorded it. Last Sunday there were only 600 paid admissions. The paid attendance at each Sunday game should be at least fifteen hundred.

Fiery Cockburn.

Poet, essayist, politician and man of the world, the friend of all oppressed causes and of all persecuted men, Lord Houghton had warned both hands before the fire of life. "I am going over to the majority," he said when he was very ill in the year before his death, "and you know I have always preferred the minority." I have given in the Cornhill my father's account of the way in which Sir Alexander Cockburn, the lord chief justice, attempted at a dinner party to browbeat Lord Houghton, who had spoken in defense of the notorious plaintiff at that time prosecuting his claim to the Tichborne estates. "Suddenly," writes my father, "Cockburn cut him short by saying, 'I should have thought this impossible from any one with the very meagrest intellect.' Houghton paused, apparently overwhelmed, and then replied, 'But surely that was very rude,' upon which Cockburn, glaring fixedly at him, merely added, 'I meant it to be so.'" I think that it was Lord Houghton who, in allusion to this incident, said that nobody ought to invite Cockburn to dinner without having a fire engine at hand.—R. C. Lehmann in Chambers' Journal.

Lecturing in London on the birds of the home counties, W. Bickerton, F. Z. S., said that it was not uncommon for two mother birds of the wild duck species to share the same nest and incubate the same clutch of eggs. The same thing had been observed in the case of partridges.

WILL TRY AGAIN

Franklin College to Attempt to Secure Revenge on the Quakers.

FINAL GAME ON MONDAY.

The closing game of the season will be played by the Earlham team Monday afternoon at Reid Field, when the Quakers line up against Franklin. The game will be called promptly at 2 o'clock and will undoubtedly be the best of the season. Earlham defeated Franklin early in the season by a score of 5 to 3. Since then the Franklin team has been greatly strengthened and has been playing winning ball. Earlham has the best base ball team in its history and their claim to the secondary championship of the state is undisputed.

SENSE IN EXERCISE.

The Weakness That Comes With Great Muscular Exertion.

It is a curious fact that perfect health is not consistent with high muscular development. Professional athletes and all men who acquire phenomenal strength seem to lose in length of life and activity what they gain for a few years of record breaking powers. I was privileged to see on several occasions Louis Cyr, the Canadian giant, who broke all weight lifting records. He weighed 320 pounds and was all solid bone and muscle. I saw him hold his wife out at arm's length with one hand. I saw him raise a 300 pound barrel from the floor to his shoulder, using only one hand and arm. I saw him get down on all fours under a platform bearing 4,000 pounds of big men selected from the audience, and he raised the platform with his mighty back. Yet this remarkable man, with muscle bound and crippled at thirty-seven, when he should have been at the height of his wonderful powers.

Kennedy, the oarsman, who won a diamond belt for lifting with his hands from the floor absolutely without apparatus a thousand pound weight, was used up and crippled before he was forty. Dowd, professional strong man and teacher of athletics, wore himself out and died at forty-seven.—"Common Sense in Exercise," by Charles H. Cochrane, in Metropolitan Magazine.

NATURE CURES.

Medicine Helps, of Course, but Faith is a Powerful Factor.

There's a truth at the basis of all this discussion of disease and its cure which, despite the fact that it has been apparent for generations, is still too little understood by people in general. In fact, appearances would lead to the belief that it is not appreciated by all physicians. It is the truth that not the medicine, but nature, cures the ill. The most that medicine can do is to place the patient in a condition most favorable for the work of nature. Here comes in the value of this element of faith. It is the best possible help to nature—the firm belief that you'll get well. It may well take the place of many drugs. It may in instances displace the need of the physician. Even the surgeon can do no more. He simply cuts away debris, puts the body in the best trim he knows how, adjusts merely mechanical breaks or displacements and waits for nature to do the rest. The physician who pours in an inordinate amount of drugs thinks he is assisting nature. As a matter of fact, he is sometimes impeding her. The best physicians, in all except extreme cases, use few medicines, and those as mild as possible.—New Haven Register.

Mohammed and the Mountain.
When Mohammed first announced his religion the Arabs demanded some supernatural proof of his commission. The prophet replied that it would be tempting God to ask for such proof, but upon their insisting he commanded Mount Safa to come to him, and when it stirred not at his bidding exclaimed: "God be merciful! Had it obeyed my words it would have fallen on us and destroyed us. I will therefore go to the mountain and thank God that he has had mercy on a stiff necked generation."—New York American.

Her Complaint.
A gentleman riding in a railroad train was impressed with two passengers, one a pretty and delicate appearing young lady and the other a plain faced maid. While the mistress was at dinner the gentleman remarked to the maid in a tone of great sympathy: "Your young lady seems very ill." "Yes, sir; she suffers sadly." "Consumption, I should fear." "No, sir; I am sorry to say it is of the heart." "Dear me! Aneurism?" "Oh, no, sir! It is only a lieutenant in the navy."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Wayne "30" Live Agents Wanted

Owing to the increased demand for Wayne "30" Automobiles, we have decided to build 300 additional cars of this popular type. These are now coming through—we can positively make deliveries of the first fifty in ten days.

Now, we can sell every one of these cars in four or five large cities—as we have been doing. But we have other ideas, other aims.

We are planning to build 6,000 cars next year—have the facilities to do it—and the work is already under way. That means we'll need a large selling force—an agent in every town over 5,000.

We want these 300 Wayne "30" cars to be the missionaries which will create a demand for the 6,000 we will build next year. See our point?

We want to distribute this season's output—these 300—over as much territory as possible instead of concentrating them in a few metropolitan centers.

Satisfied users are the best advertisements—every Wayne will do its part in carrying the news of Wayne quality wherever it goes. Even to those who knew the earlier Wayne models this 1908 product will be a revelation and a delight.

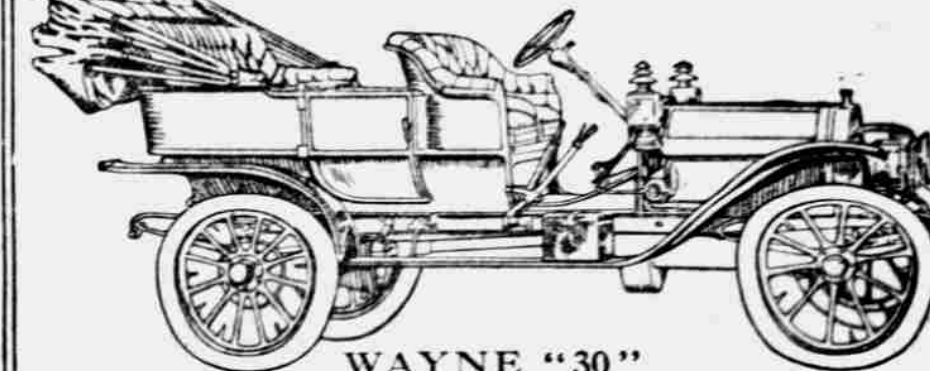

We want a personal representative—a man of good standing—to represent us in your town. Large capital is not necessary—neither is a garage nor repair shop.

Very little capital, but a large amount of energy and selling ability, are the requisites—to the man who possesses these, here is an opportunity of a lifetime to get in business for himself—one that has a wonderful future.

Write today; send references; tell us about yourself; if satisfactory, we will get together quickly. We won't hold you up on deliveries and we'll stand back of the product—remember, we count on these 300 to sell 6,000; there's the buyer's guarantee—and yours.

Now is the selling season—today. Business has been great since the sun came out—if you don't share in the hay-making, it's your own fault.

Write—now!
