BRYAN—AND HIS PLATFORM.

The nation—including some hundreds of thousands of conservative, stand-pat democrats—is awaiting with more than passing interest the platform of Mr. Bryan threatens to demand at the democratic convention in Denver week after next. It seems not to be a question of a nominee but one of platform that will confound the distinguished body, and during the argument, the Peerless leader issues his platform ideas with all the suavity of twelve years ago. Mr. Taggart, of Indiana, leads the fight for the conservatives and declares that rationality shall win.

It is almost certain that Bryan will make one of his strongest bids among the great mass of voters upon the plank calling for publicity of campaign funds. His transparent act in putting the question up to Mr. Taft just before the republican convention did not work well, but now he is to make a gallery play by incorporating the idea in the platform he demands. The tariff revision plank is to be another appeal to the laboring classes. It would strike at wealth, true enough, but fail to reach the "malefactors," as the term has come to be used.

The question of states' rights also receives consideration, it all depending upon the time-worn theory of Thomas Jefferson that the constitution should be read to throw the presumption in favor of the states. Direct vote for U. S. senators is another plank. The others run along to suit conditions, much of the substance being borrowed from President Roosevelt and made over to suit.

Mr. Taggart and the Johnson forces have combined to defeat the Nebraska candidate, believing that a man can be selected from their party whose history and ideas are more nearly in line with the office he seeks.

The democratic convention is going to start a mile up in the air, according to the altitude figures. Where will it be when the Bryan ideas arrive?

After this steel trust episode, if Teddy Jr. would only get up and call somebody a —, people would say he is "just like his dad."

At last reports, Richmond had developed 6,511 original Taft men. Some towns, however, offer their whole population.

This cool weather of the past few days is just retribution for the ice trust, if all the things that have been said were true.

Of course, Americans like to help out the "under dog," but they don't like to see a man get the habit, like Mr. Bryan.

Just Smiles

HIRSUTE TRAGEDY.
The man on guard was slumbering. He gave the switch no care. The train ran right into it, and got tangled in the hair.
—Chicago Journal.

WHO STARTED WHIPPING?
Tommy had been punished. "Mamma," he sobbed, "did your mamma whip you when you were little?"
"Yes, when I was naughty."
"And did her mamma whip her when she was little?"
"Yes, Tommy."
"And was she whipped when she was little?"
"Yes."
"Well," inquired the child, his brain cleared by the position he had just occupied, "who started it, anyway?"
Unknown.

SOME SIGNS.
When the bills they try to pass
Do not budge you from your groove,
When the actions of the House
Of no further interest prove,
And your mind is only bent
On a flat in which to move—
Then it's Spring.
—New York Sun.

BREAKING IT GENTLY.
"Pardon me sir," began the portly person in the railroad train to the man who sat next to him, "but what would you say if I sat on your hat?"
"Suppose you sit on it and then ask me," suggested the other.
"I did," admitted the portly person, calmly.—Harper's Weekly.

PROHIBITORY.
The Houston Post waxes facetious over the fact that a prominent Massachusetts prohibitionist is named Wadd. But even the assurances that Wadd never gets tight doesn't prove that he is easy to separate from his roll.—Washington Post.

THE POETRY CROP.
The poetry editor of one of the duller and more expensive magazines took out his notebook.
"I'm compiling statistics on the way the poetry is trending," he said. "Last year's crop was a good one. It totaled up to 3,916,472 pieces. I'd classify it about like this:

Spring ..... 1,125,762
Love ..... 1,172,241
Despair ..... 800,019
Hope ..... 1,538
Your duty ..... $18,810
My duty ..... 2
—Philadelphia Bulletin.

A WORD FROM JOSH WISE.
"Men sneer at women's shopping," but when women shop they don't have to eat cloves, ter diguise what they've been buyin'!—Chicago Journal.

WAITING.
My grandpa notes the world's worn cogs
And says we're going to the dogs.
His granddad in his house of logs
Swore things were going to the dogs.
His dad, amid the Flemish bogs,
Vowed things were going to the dogs.
The cave man in his queer skin togs
Vowed things were going to the dogs.
But this is what I wish to state:
The dogs have had an awful wait.

GORMON CHIEF OF SECRET SERVICE

Will Serve Uncle Sam in the New Michigan Division.

HE HAS MADE A SUCCESS.

FORMER RICHMOND BOY GAINED GREAT FAME WHILE WORKING ON IDAHO LAND AND COAL GRAFT CASES.

Elmer A. Gorman, a former Richmond young man and now connected with the United States secret service, has just been appointed chief of the Michigan division of the secret service. This appointment comes as a recognition of the distinguished service of Mr. Gorman the five years he has been in the great secret police service, the only rival of which in the world is the famous Russian "third division."

The states of Ohio and Michigan formerly comprised one secret service division but the territory has just been divided. Mr. Gorman was formerly assistant of this division but when it was divided he was given the Michigan department. He has just returned to Detroit after a tour through Michigan during which trip he spent all of his time getting acquainted with the bankers, police officers, federal officers and other public men, with whom he will necessarily come in contact in his future work.

Since entering the secret service Mr. Gorman, who is the son of I. A. Gorman, former chief of police of this city, has done much creditable work. He probably rendered his most efficient services while working on the land and coal graft cases in Idaho.

Just a few days ago Gorman arrested a man who has been flooding Detroit with counterfeit money. For this arrest he was congratulated by Chief Wilke of the secret service.

WIDOWS FORBIDDEN TO SPEND MUCH ON FUNERAL

If They Are Extravagant, They Get No Relief for Six Months.

London, June 27.—Lambeth, London, Board of Guardians, have decided that no outdoor relief shall be given to widows during the first six months of widowhood if they have spent lavishly on funeral and mourning any money received from a club, insurance society, or other source.

STEEL MILLS RACE TO FILL MEXICAN CONTRACT

New Prohibitive Tariff Will Go Into Effect on First of Next Month.

Mexico City, June 27.—American manufacturers are rushing trainloads of structural and other steel products into Mexico in order to avoid the increase of duty effective, July 1. The new tariff is practically prohibitive and gives the Mexican concerns a monopoly over the domestic trade.

NO OPPOSITION TO INJUNCTION

tautness of this use, as it would be impossible to erect fences across the tracks.

The attitude of the Traction company in announcing its intention to refuse to combat any injunction proceedings is commended by the citizens who oppose the use of North Twenty-third street. The franchise agreement permits the use of North 22nd from Main street to D street, and in the middle of the street from D to E street. This is regarded as the most practicable line. The city park is adjacent to this street on the east side for the four squares between Main and D streets and there never will be any residences along this side. This leaves but one square of residences and at the same time removes the tracks from the park.

Property Deal Closed Practically.
The deal for the property located at the southwest corner of Seventh and North D streets, where it is proposed to locate the freight depot of the interurban companies is practically closed. If this deal goes through work on the removal of the present buildings and the construction of a freight depot will not be delayed by any action in regard to the selection of the freight route in the East End.

Dayton & Western to Apply.
It is expected that the Dayton & Western Traction company will apply to the board of public works for a franchise this week. It is understood this line will ask only for the same consideration shown the Terre Haute, Indianapolis & Eastern.

JUDGES SELECTED TO CHOOSE THE WINNERS

Prominent Citizens of the City Will Make Known the Winners in the Palladium's Niagara Falls Contest Next Thursday Night at Westcott Hotel.

After due deliberation, the Palladium has made a selection of five judges who will count the ballots cast by the various young women in the Palladium's Niagara Falls contest, on the night of July 2. These men are: J. A. SPEKENHIER, J. C. BAYER, M. W. KELLEY, W. B. WATSON, L. P. MEREDITH.

Greater interest than ever is being taken in the contest at the present time, as by next Thursday night, the young women who are battling for the position in the party of eight, who are to see the great world's wonder, and their friends, will then know who the successful ones are.

Ballots clipped from the paper and those secured from subscriptions will be received at the Palladium office up until five o'clock Thursday evening. The Palladium office will then close so far as the receiving of votes is concerned and the voting place will be shifted to the Westcott hotel where ballots from subscriptions alone will be received. Subscriptions to the paper bearing with them, of course, votes for the contestants, will be received at the Westcott hotel from the hours of 6:30 until 9:00. From that time the judges will be employed counting. It is expected that this job will be no little one, as over a million votes are expected to be cast before the contest will have been ended.

The regular ballots will appear in each issue, entitling the lady voted for to one vote. Remember you can enter the contest any time you wish to, so "get busy and keep busy." The conditions of the contest are as follows:

CONDITIONS.

WRIGHT SUCCEEDS TAFT ON WEDNESDAY

Begins Duties of Secretary of War at That Time.

Washington, June 27.—General Luke E. Wright becomes secretary of war on Wednesday when he will succeed William Howard Taft in that office. It was announced today that there will be no change in the heads of bureau, General Oliver remaining as assistant secretary. Fred W. Carpenter, who has been Mr. Taft's private secretary since his return from the Philippines, will doubtless remain with his old master.

In Sweden and Norway only some 15 or 20 per cent of the people live in towns; the rest being scattered all over the country, living on farms that are owned by themselves. In Denmark the land is widely diffused, though not quite so widely as in the last mentioned countries.

THEODORIA.
Gold Medal Flour makes lightest bread.

CHILD IN SLEEP WALKS TO DEATH

Little New York Girl Meets Untimely End.

New York, June 27.—Mildred, the seven year old daughter of Lloyd Makepeace, a lawyer living on the fifth floor of the apartment house at No. 15 Manhattan avenue, was found dead at the bottom of the airshaft beneath a window today. The child and her mother slept near the window. Mrs. Makepeace awoke and missing her daughter, first searched the apartment and then went to the window. At the bottom of the airshaft she saw the body.

Dr. Krunweide, of No. 10 Manhattan avenue, said the child had been dead for some time, as its body was cold. It is supposed she fell out of the window while walking in her sleep, as the sills are very low.

"How quiet the office boy is!"
"Yes; I just raised his salary. He thinks it's a dream and is afraid he will wake up."—Life.

THAW MAY GO BACK

Court Decides to Put Thaw Behind Matteawan Walls.

A FIGHT WILL BE MADE.

New York, June 27.—Learning that Supreme Court Justice Morehauser had decided to order the immediate transfer of Harry K. Thaw from the Dutchess county jail at Poughkeepsie, back to the Matteawan asylum for the criminal insane, counsel for the young millionaire secured a new writ of habeas corpus to prevent his removal.

The new writ was secured by Lawyer Russell A. Peabody, of New York, who went to Troy to get it. He found Supreme Court Justice Mills in his home there and had that justice sign the writ. It is returnable for argument at White Plains, N. Y., on Monday and acts as a stay to keep Thaw in Poughkeepsie until that time.

Thaw's counsel, it was learned, are now prepared to ask for a trial by jury to pass on his sanity and the argument on the new writ will be along this line.

The Thaw family have retained Charles Morehauser, a brother of Supreme Court Justice Morehauser, and also of Poughkeepsie, to head the array of Thaw lawyers who will appear at White Plains on Monday. It is said that Attorney Morehauser will present the argument for the trial by jury for Thaw.

The order of Judge Morehauser was to be issued independently of the decision of Supreme Court Justice Dowling, of New York, upon the recent argument before him concerning the advisability of revoking his former order sending Thaw to Matteawan and permitting him to be sent now to the State Homeopathic Institution for the Insane at Middletown.

VOTING MACHINES MAY BE GIVEN A TRIAL IN WAYNE

machine has given a good account of itself under all conditions.

Trenton, N. J., Times.—"They are accurate, honest and reliable."

Paterson, N. J., Call.—"It is the best device ever invented for honest elections."

Indianapolis, Ind., News.—"The local use of voting machines yesterday seem to have been remarkably few, considering the number employed and the novelty of the experiment. They are as practicable and inevitable as adding machines, cash registers, linotypes or any of the recent delicate and complicated inventions that have won a permanent place against doubting skeptics and organized opposition."

RIDER CONVICTED.

Dr. Chamsion Must Serve Year in Prison.

Louisville, Ky., June 27.—Dr. Chamsion, an alleged leader of the night riders of Western Kentucky was today sentenced to one year in the penitentiary. This is the first conviction in a night rider case.

Count the Cream

You would all eat Mapl-Flake if it cost 10 cents per package. You would all want our maple flavor—our perfect cooking—were it not for that five-cent difference.

But what if Mapl-Flake is 15 cents?

Figure the whole cost—the food and the cream together. Cream costs as much on poor food as on good food. See how little you save.

You want Mapl-Flake because it tastes best. But that is of least importance. The vital fact is that Mapl-Flake is cooked best.

Our process requires 96 hours.

That is four times as long as it need take—four times as long as it does take some others. There is where our extra cost comes in.

But all of the wheat is thus made digestible. By a shorter process it is not.

Starch, to be digestible, must be made soluble. The particles must be separated for the digestive juices. That requires proper cooking.

So our wheat is steam-cooked for six hours, then cured, then flaked, then toasted 30 minutes at 400 degrees.

That process is expensive, but it is necessary, else we would not employ it. For without it we could give you Mapl-Flake at 10 cents.

Isn't it better to have a food that's all food, because every whit digests? Isn't it even more economical?

We boil our wheat in pure maple syrup—the source of our delicious flavor. That is less important to you, perhaps, than it is to a child. It induces a child to like the food that is best for it.

Wheat is the perfect food—Mapl-Flake its perfect form. But the deciding point with a child, you'll find, is the maple sugar flavor.

The only food served in individual packages in hotels, clubs, cafes, and on dining cars.
