

WAYNE NO CATTLE PRODUCING COUNTY

Other Counties of the State
Lead This One in Stock Raising.

STATISTICS ARE COMPILED.

INDIANA BUREAU OF STATIS-TICS SHOWS THAT INDIANA IS GAINING GROUND BUT SLOWLY
ALONG THIS LINE.

Figures compiled by the Indiana Bureau of Statistics from reports filed by township assessors show that Indiana is gaining ground but slowly as a cattle-producing state. The reports show that there are now 501,495 head of beef cattle in the state, as against 445,019 head in 1907.

The figures show, on the other hand that there has been a decrease in the number of beef cattle sold, 386,770 having been sold this year, as against 432,664 last year. There has been a decrease, also, in the number of dairy cattle in the state, the number falling off from 570,543 head in 1907 to 545,048 head at the present time. Fulton is the banner cattle-producing county.

The ten highest beef selling counties this year are as follows: Montgomery, 14,222 head; Clinton, 11,344 head; Hendricks, 9,271; Boone, 7,846; Putnam, 7,468; Fulton, 7,301; Wabash, 7,054; Parke, 6,958; Delaware, 6,829; and Fountain, 6,686. Fulton County held the lead in 1907 with the sale of 15,118 head. The other nine highest counties sold cattle as follows: Clinton, 10,681 head; Boone, 9,935; Montgomery, 9,931; Putnam, 9,735; Randolph, 9,465; Madison, 9,393; Hendricks, 9,308; Sullivan, 8,565; and Greene County, 7,965.

The figures on the beef cattle now being fed by the farmers of the state show that Fulton County has the greatest number. The ten highest counties range as follows: Fulton County, 16,267 head; Jasper, 10,899; Montgomery, 10,812; Wabash, 10,022; Hendricks, 9,466; Putnam, 9,399; Greene, 9,086; Clinton, 8,917; Boone, 8,654; Delaware, 8,192. The ten highest counties in point of beef cattle on hand at this time last year were: Fulton, 20,256 head; Putnam, 9,243; Clinton, 9,040; Delaware, 8,996; Miami, 8,256; Boone, 8,213; Hendricks, 8,010; Montgomery, 7,942; Kosciusko, 7,711; and Marshall, 7,660.

Fulton county not only holds the record as the banner beef cattle-producing county, but leads also in dairy cattle. The figures on dairy cattle in the state at the present time show that Fulton County has 17,937 head. The nine counties next in line are as follows: Lake, 10,503; St. Joseph, 10,107; Elkhart, 9,879; Porter, 9,855; Laporte, 9,503; Marion, 9,405; Ripley, 8,695; Montgomery, 8,484; and Delaware, 8,130.

The ten counties having the most dairy cattle at this time last year were as follows: Fulton, 20,160 head; Allen, 14,746; Porter, 12,383; Laporte, 10,055; Delaware, 10,081; St. Joseph, 10,065; Elkhart, 9,866; Marion, 9,758; Lake, 9,405; and Marshall, 9,365.

Employed as Stenographer.

Lillian Watkins the last year has been living at the home of Samuel C. Phinney. Mr. and Mrs. Phinney never suspected that the girl was a negress.

Miss Watkins was employed a stenographer in the First Trust and Savings banks and all of her fellow workers thought that she was a Caucasian.

She studied at the University of Chicago. At one time she lived at the Virginia hotel and for a few months was a guest at the Warner hotel.

Mrs. Ida Watkins, the girl's mother, lives at 3571 Forrest avenue. Last night with the tears streaming down her face, she told the story of her daughter's struggle to obtain recognition as a white.

"My child's misfortune was that she was born with a white skin and golden hair. Oh, how proud I was of my little baby as she lay at my breast, and I saw her delicate skin and golden tresses. I little thought of the shame and misery it would cause her later in life. Her father was a light skinned mulatto and Lillian was even lighter than he."

"Until my little girl was sixteen years old she always passed as a colored girl. Then a school mate put it into her head that she could pass as a white girl, and she came home and told me that, while she still loved me, she wanted to be known as a white girl and asked me not to recognize her as my daughter. I thought my heart would break and we both cried for hours, but finally I saw that Lillian's happiness depended on the sacrifice and made it."

POSES AS A WHITE; SHE THEN SUICIDES

Colored Girl of Great Beauty Follows White Lover to The Grave.

HER SKIN CAUSE OF SORROW

PASSED AS WHITE GIRL AND NEVER RECOGNIZED HER COLORED MOTHER WHEN THEY MET IN CHICAGO.

Chicago, July 17.—Masquerading as a white girl, Lillian Beatrice Watkins, a colored girl of great beauty, killed herself by firing a bullet into her right temple, because her "curse of blood" had left a trail of disaster and death in its wake. One man had fallen in love with her and when he learned her secret, gave her $15,000, married a girl he had known several years and then a month later, blew out his brains in Washington park. He fired a bullet into his right temple, and when the girl planned her own death she killed herself in the same way.

Back of the girl's death is a strange tragic story of a conflict of race which brought aching hearts to a score of persons. As the young girl lay in a North Side undertaking parlor today, a colored woman bent and withered leaned over the body and wept bitterly. It was the girl's mother who in order to allow the girl to associate with whites had given up her only daughter and passed her on the street almost daily without a sign of recognition. And yet the golden haired octo-noon girl loved her dark skinned mother and on secret visits to the mother's home would lavish a wealth of affection upon her.

Thomas F. Kennedy, whose suicide in Washington park on January 7 of this year, has been a mystery up to the present, was the man who unwittingly fell in love with the ill fated girl. She returned his love and told her mother they were engaged and that she intended to keep her race a secret. However, she worried so over possible discovery that one night she sobbed out the truth. Kennedy left her and a month afterward married Gwendolyn Reese. Four weeks after his marriage, Kennedy was found in Washington park, only a few blocks from his home where he had furnished elegant apartments for his young wife.

"Suicide because despondent and out of work," was the report made on Kennedy's death, but he left his bride $9,000 and if any one guessed the secret of his death it was not revealed.

Neuralgia Pains

Are the result of an abnormal condition of the more prominent nerve branches, caused by congestion, irritation, or disease. If you want to relieve the pain try Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. They often relieve when everything else fails. They leave no disagreeable after-effects. Just a pleasurable sense of relief. Try them.

"I have neuralgia headache right over my eyes, and I am really afraid that my eyes will burst. I also have neuralgia pain around my heart. I have been taking Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills recently and find they relieve these troubles quickly. I seldom find it necessary to take more than two tablets for complete relief."

MRS. KATHERINE HARTON
1117 Valley St. Carthage, Mo.

"I have awful spells of neuralgia and have doctor'd a great deal without getting much benefit. For the last two years I have been taking Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills and they always relieve me. I have been so bad with neuralgia that I sometimes thought I would go crazy. Sometimes it is necessary to take two of them, but never more and they are sure to relieve me."

CORN SCHOOL IS NOW ASSURED

Committee Will Begin to Sell
Tickets Soon.

The Wayne county corn school is a practically assured success. The officers are very much encouraged by the interest that is being taken by the farmers near Richmond. The officers will appoint a committee which will have charge of the tickets and it is expected that there will be over 500 tickets sold or more than half of the required number.

The farmers have begun to realize that the corn school is an opportunity that is not to be missed, and that they can well afford to pay the price of a ticket for the vast amount of knowledge to be gained. It is very probable that the corn school will become a permanent institution here.

How Could She Do It?

The homely forms of speech used by the country people with whom little Edith and her mother boarded last summer were frequently very puzzling to the child.

One evening the farmer's wife, in talking for a few minutes with Edith's mother, remarked that, as she was very tired that night, she would "go to roost with the chickens."

When Edith's bedtime arrived a little later the youngster was nowhere to be found. After considerable search she was discovered sitting on a large stone near the chicken house, quietly watching the fowl as they came in one by one.

"Edith," called her mother, "what are you doing there? I've been looking for you everywhere; it's time to go to bed."

"I know, mother," was the reply, "but they're nearly all in now, so she'll be here soon, I guess."

"Who are in and who will be there? What on earth are you talking about, child?" asked the mystified mother.

"Why," explained Edith, rather impatiently, "you know Mrs. — said she was going to roost with the chickens tonight, and I'm waiting to see how she does it."

The great stone face immortalized by Hawthorne is the famous Profile rock to be seen in the White mountains, near the Franconia notch. At a certain point it looks like a human visage carved in the eternal hills, but on nearer approach all semblance of a face vanishes.

It is curious how some native plants seem to have a partiality for churchyards. Just as owls and swifts and jackdaws love to haunt church towers, so do certain British wild flowers delight in the shady seclusion of the spot where the rude forefathers of the hamlet sleep.—London Saturday Review.

WAVES WHISKY BOTTLE IN SENATE

Georgian Invites Fellow Lawmakers to Imbibe.

Atlanta, Ga., July 17.—Although Georgia is a prohibition state, the "blind tiger" is roaming in the capital and assaulting members of the legislature, which is in session. During the session of the senate yesterday a senator created a sensation by lurching about the chamber and brandishing a quart bottle of a well-known brand of rye.

He had reached the generous stage and vehemently urged his fellow senators to "take one" with him. Several senators eyed the bottle longingly, but no one was seen to drink. The senator was taken in charge, and boasted that he bought the whisky from a "blind tiger" in the capital and paid $3 for it. Prohibition senators are indignant and will demand investigation. They also talk of impeaching the hilarious senator.

"I know, mother," was the reply, "but they're nearly all in now, so she'll be here soon, I guess."

"Who are in and who will be there? What on earth are you talking about, child?" asked the mystified mother.

"Why," explained Edith, rather impatiently, "you know Mrs. — said she was going to roost with the chickens tonight, and I'm waiting to see how she does it."

DIVORCE COMPLAINTS STILL NUMEROUS

Difficulty in Securing Decrees
Don't Stop Applicants.

Wayne county is keeping in line with the number of divorce petitions. During the month of June and up to the present time a large percentage of the cases filed in circuit court have been divorce petitions. There have been fourteen divorce complaints out of the thirty-eight cases filed.

At present there are more people wanting their freedom than there has ever been before. It is especially difficult to get the divorce decree now but it does not decrease the number of applicants.

When the Long "S" Was Abolished.

In the latter part of February, 1800, a London publisher instituted a trifling though welcome improvement in printing. His name was Bell, later the founder of the well known Weekly Messenger, and at the date mentioned he caused to be submitted the short for the long "s" in the setting of certain works he produced. His example was generally followed a year or two later.

USE

SYRUP PEPSIN

People should be very careful at this time of the year not to become constipated, and if they do become constipated to attend to it promptly. Many people have a special tendency to constipation in hot weather, owing to the sudden change in food and to the fact that the natural moisture of the body that in winter remains within and helps to digest the food, leaves the system in the summer in the form of perspiration. And as the heat taints the food and the water, a constipated person is especially liable to a fever disease. It is, therefore, very important, in both young and old, that the constipation should be immediately relieved. The best way to do this is not, as some suppose, by eating themselves sick with fruit and making the matter worse, nor by taking salts and laxative waters, which, as all who have tried them know, give but temporary relief, but, on the contrary, you should use a tried-and-true remedy like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which acts quickly but mildly and which relieves permanently so that a steady and lasting small sum will save you and your family a world of trouble. It is the best remedy you can take for any summer digestive trouble. You are guaranteed that it will do what is claimed. It will cure the constipation, clear the head, restore your appetite and sleep and make you feel like your old self again. Those who have not yet tried Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and would like to make a test of it, can do so free of charge by sending their address for a sample bottle to
