TRYS TO KIDNAP LITTLE BABY BOY

Screams of the Youngster
Frightens Jack Donlin and He Releases Lad.

TRIED TO STEAL A RIG.

IN THIS ATTEMPT THE MAN WAS NO MORE SUCCESSFUL—HE FINALLY FALLS INTO THE LAW'S CLUTCHES.

Yesterday while Jack Donlin, a well known police character, was laboring under a heavy load of intoxicants he attempted to take possession of a horse and rig which did not belong to him. Falling in this he made an attempt to kidnap a baby, but this effort also met with failure. However Donlin finally succeeded in getting arrested and this morning Judge Converse sent Jack to his old home, the county jail, to serve out a $10 fine.

While Donlin was tacking down North Eleventh street, he saw Frank Wilson leave a rig belonging to George Eggemeier and enter a house. Jack at once boarded the rig and was starting to drive off when Wilson's attention was attracted and he compelled Donlin to disembark. In the rig was a baby boy, the child of one of Wilson's friends.

After Wilson had driven away he went to the north end of the city, hitched the horse again and entered a house. In a few minutes Donlin came along. The rig attracted him like a magnet and he took the wondering baby in his arms and was preparing to make off with the tot when the astonished and indignant infant let out a howl that could be heard for some distance. This penetrating yelp had a bad effect on Donlin's nerves so he dropped the child under the rig and proceeded to make his getaway. A short time later he fell into the hands of the police.

SHIVELY WON'T MAKE THE RACE

Will Stay Out of Thirteenth
District Politics.

South Bend, Ind., July 17.—Benjamin F. Shively today announced that he will not be a candidate for representative from the thirteenth congressional district on the democratic ticket to be named at Plymouth, Ind., July 27. He hasn't time to devote to a campaign, he says.

GET CAMPAIGN BUTTONS.

Local Stores Stock Up for Approaching Political Battle.

Toy stores and book stores of Richmond have received several thousand Taft buttons for the campaign. Some of the buttons have inscribed on them "Taft for President." Others bear pictures of both Taft and Sherman. One of the new novelties that has just been received is a watch fob with the picture of William H. Taft on a gun-metal holder.

Deaths and Funerals.

PRICE—Ray Scarell Price, the two year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Price, died this morning at the home of his parents at the corner of National and Charles Ave. The funeral will be from the home at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Friends may call from 9 to 11 Saturday morning.

Vegetable Milk. "Vegetable milk" is used in Japan. It is made from the soy bean. The liquid is exactly like cow's milk in appearance and in taste can hardly be distinguished from it. To make it the beans are first soaked and then boiled in water. Some sugar and phosphate of potassium are added, and it is boiled down till it has the consistency of condensed milk.

SWISS SCHOOLS.

The Course of Study and the System of Teaching.

The education given in the schools of Switzerland is in many respects more comprehensive and practical than that offered in our curriculums. The girls, for instance, are taught not only to read and write and spell, but to cook, to wash, to sew, says the Housekeeper. In addition to being trained for the duties of homemaking and housekeeping, each girl is taught some useful trade. Many of the pupils are daughters of rich parents, and there is little likelihood of their ever having to earn their own living, but the paternal government takes the view that every member of society should possess the ability to be self supporting even though the necessity to exercise that ability should never arise. No expense has been spared in equipping the schools of Switzerland for the teaching of domestic science.

The boys, too, have not been neglected in the Swiss system of education. Physical culture and manual training have prominent places in the curriculum, and every boy on leaving the public school is equipped to earn his own living. Fads and frills are absent from the Swiss schools. The hard headed taxpayers want to see some return for their money. They demand that the education for which they pay shall be practical and useful in after life. Are they not right?

WHO IS INSANE?

No One or Every One, According as We Ask the Question.

Who is insane? No one or every one, according as we ask the question. No one in an asylum will admit that he or she is insane. Each in turn would resent such an insinuation. Certainly no one out of an asylum will assent to the charge of being insane. And yet both parties readily recognize the insanity of others. An intelligent old lady, once the head of a ladies' seminary, wished me to discharge her from an asylum, alleging that all the patients in the hall believed her sane. Seven women were privately asked their opinions as to her sanity, and all declared that she was very insane, while asserting their own sanity. When informed of the result of the test the old lady accurately described the special peculiarities of each of her accusers. So in every community the private gossip is much concerned about those who are called "strange," "peculiar," "deranged," "unbalanced," "light headed," "a little off," "out of gear," "wrong in the upper story," "cranks." Few if any escape for a lifetime one or the other of these epithets. Without as within the asylum no one recognizes his or her own mental deviations, but readily detects the mental aberrations of others.—Stephen Smith, M. D., LL. D., in Leslie's Magazine.

A WONDER OF RANGUN.

The Great Shony Dagon Pagoda Covered With Pure Gold.

Rangun, the principal city of Burma, grew up around the sacred spot on which is built the great Shony Dagon pagoda, one of its principal wonders. "Rising to a height of 390 feet, its size is greatly enhanced by the fact that it stands on an eminence that is itself 166 feet above the level of the city," says a writer. "It is covered with pure gold from base to summit, and once in every generation this gold is completely renewed by public subscription. Yet throughout the interval the process of regilding goes on perpetually. Pious people who seek in this way to express their veneration and to add to their store of spiritual merit climb up daily with little fluttering packets of gold leaf, which they fasten on some fraction of its great surface. There is no more picturesque sight offered by it than that of a group of these alken worshippers outlined high against its gold in the act of contributing their small quota to its splendor. The pagoda itself has no interior. It is a solid stupa of brick raised over a relic chamber."

Worshippers of Wak.

The Borans are a strange people inhabiting the frontier between British East Africa and Abyssinia. The tribe are polygamists when they can afford it, and by religion they worship the spirit Wak, which requires constant propitiation. This is done by sacrificing their children and cattle. A Boran of any standing when he marries becomes a "raba," and for a certain period after marriage, varying from four to eight years, he is obliged to "throw away" any children that are born to him to appease Wak. After this period he becomes a "gudda" and keeps his children.—London Express.

Tin is one of the oldest known metals. The Chinese have used it in the fabrication of their brasses and bronzes from time immemorial.

CHILD ANALYZED IN CRAFT'S LECTURE

fit and that they are not a menace to their welfare.

Time is now at hand when the mothers and fathers should find some other plan in which to punish the children besides the use of the rod. There are worse ways for punishment than with the rod. The child should be taught that sin brings sorrow, and disobedience trouble.

I still believe there are times when the wood shed is the best place to punish the child for some things, but I believe in other cases it is not the best punishment. If the parent is going to whip the child, he should never do it when he is in a raging temper but postpone the whipping for a day and the boys will understand more clearly the wrong that he has committed.

Marriage is often spoken of as a "joke" or a crime and, it is one of the most sacred things to speak about. With the teaching of sacredness must go earlier the fundamental lesson of personal purity in word and deed.

It is just as important that one love the city in which he lives. He should devote his time in making it more cleaner and purer. The people are sweeping local option all over the country and it will arrive in the beautiful city of Richmond some day in the near future. (great applause.)

The great work that is being done now in America is the war on liquor and we hope that the time is not far hence when this infamous traffic will be stopped. Another great work is the war on opium in China and on Jan. 1, it is hoped the committees of the different nations will see fit to bring this trade to a speedy close.

The Nurture of Life.

Infants and children are constantly needing a laxative. It is important to know what to give them. Their stomachs and bowels are not strong enough for salts, purgative waters or cathartic pills, powders or tablets. Give them a mild, pleasant, gentle, laxative tonic like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which sells at the small sum of 25 cents or $1 at drug stores. It is the great remedy for you to have in the house for your children when they are sick.

"If you have only one temptation you are lucky. Most people are compelled to combat something like a dozen."—Atchison Globe.

Compton.

MASONS WERE IN CHARGE.

In the presence of a very large number of friends, funeral services for Alpheus G. Compton were held this morning at the home, 348 Randolph street, West Richmond. The officiating minister was the Rev. W. M. Nelson, pastor of Grace M. E. church and the services proper were in charge of and conducted by Richmond Lodge of Masons of which Mr. Compton was a member and for a great many years was secretary. The beautiful and impressive ritual of the Masonic fraternity was given by Raimond Paige, Past Master of Richmond lodge. More than 100 members of the lodge were in attendance and participated in the services. A quartet of male voices sang. The burial was
