IT IS SERIOUS

Some Richmond People Fail to Realize the Seriousness.

The constant aching of a bad back. The weariness, the tired feeling. The pains and aches of kidney ills are serious—if neglected.

Dangerous urinary troubles follow. A Richmond citizen shows you how to avoid them.

L. F. Cooper, of 714 North Thirteenth St., Richmond, Ind., says: "For two years there existed sharp pains in my loins and sides and a continual feeling of soreness. It was hard for me to stoop, lie or bend over and when I caught cold it always settled in the kidneys. The secretions were irregular and much too frequent. The medicines I used brought me no benefit until I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills. I used two boxes of this remedy last winter and since then have been free from all trouble with the kidneys. I am, therefore, glad to recommend the use of Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

HAS TWO THOUSAND LETTERS TO WRITE

John W. Kern Will Answer All
Of the Congratulatory Messages.

HE WILL GO TO KOKOMO.

FORMER TOWNSMEN HAVE PLANNED A GREAT DEMONSTRATION IN HONOR OF CANDIDATE FOR VICE-PRESIDENT.

Indianapolis, July 17.—John W. Kern, democratic nominee for vice-president, finds himself confronted with a colossal job, that of answering about 2,500 letters from people who have written them are glad he is a candidate.

"If they all vote for me," said Mr. Kern yesterday, "I ought to be assured of a substantial vote from admiring friends."

Mr. Kern went to his office in the State Life building and he found his desk piled high with correspondence. He did not attempt to go through all of his correspondence. By the inscription on the envelopes he recognized letters from old friends. These he will attempt to answer first.

"I expect to answer every letter I have received regarding my candidacy," said Mr. Kern. "In a day or two I will get down to active work."

Mr. Kern entered his office about 3 p. m. He threw off his coat and went to work at once. A number of acquaintances called during the afternoon to see him. He turned no one away.

Many John W. Kerns Write Him.

"I never knew before," said Mr. Kern, "how many Kerns there are in the country. Nearly every county in the union seems to produce a Kern. My correspondence shows me that there are John W. Kerns everywhere."

Mr. Kern is prepared to have babies named for him. In fact, he is inclined to encourage this practice. He has a fine lot of photographs of himself which he will send to the fond parents of newly born "John W. Kerns."

Will Visit Kokomo Saturday.

Saturday evening Mr. Kern will go to Kokomo, his former home, where a large reception will be given by his old acquaintances. On July 23 he is to deliver an address at Gary, Ind., the occasion of an industrial celebration, arranged by the citizens of that place.

On July 26 he will meet with a subcommittee of the national committee of his party in Chicago.

The vice presidential nominee will be notified of his nomination in Indianapolis the latter part of the summer.

"The date has not been fixed," said Mr. Kern, "but it will probably be about the first of September. Mr. Bryan expects to be here at that time and will make a speech."

Within the next two weeks Mr. Kern will settle down to hard work in his law practice.

"I have several cases on hand that have to be briefed," said Mr. Kern, "and I have a lot of good substantial work ahead of me."

MOTHER BARES

GIRL'S LIFE OF SHAME

Done to Save the Life of Her Son.

Huntsville, Mo., July 17.—Mrs. T. J. Carter, in an effort to save the life of her son, sacrificed the reputation of her sixteen-year-old daughter, Beulah, at Irvin Carter's preliminary hearing here for killing Thomas J. Bagby, the girl's admirer.

Mrs. Carter was shaking with sobs as she told on the stand how she discovered the relations of young Bagby and her daughter; how her daughter confessed; how George Harris, Mrs. Carter's brother, counseled the death of the young man, and how a night watch was set until the death was accomplished.

Mrs. Carter said Bagby, the son of a neighboring farmer, had called on Beulah regularly once or twice a week for several months, but that there was no objection to this until after she (Mrs. Carter) found letters from the young man to the girl. From these letters the mother learned, she said, of improper conduct between the two. A night watch was set on the young man and he was shot.

DISOBEDYS FATHER;

MEETS INSTANT DEATH

Lad Hurled Into Threshing Machine Fly Wheel.

Akron, O., July 17.—The penalty of Howard Smith, age 11 years, for disobeying his father Thursday evening was death. The boy was the son of Wm. Smith, a prosperous farmer living two miles west of the city.

Mr. Smith was threshing Thursday and the little fellow was watching operations. He took a seat near the feeder and on account of his dangerous position was warned away by his father. The boy refused to move and a moment later the belt broke, wrapped around the boy's body and hurled him into the fly wheel.

The boy's neck was broken and he died instantly.
