Mystery Surrounding Roberts
Murder Case May Be Lifted Today.

INVOLVES HIGH SOCIETY.

TRIO OF NEW WITNESSES TELLS
POLICE NEWS THAT MAY BRING ABOUT IMPORTANT DEVELOP-MENTS IN CASE.

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 1.—An arrest which will clear the mystery of the shooting of Charles D. Roberts, when he was riding on the board walk last Wednesday with Mrs. W. S. G. Williams, is expected within twenty-four hours.

The police tonight questioned two men and a woman, and it is declared that the trio are to become important witnesses in the net which is fast weaving about a suspect in the case.

The arrest of a society leader, well known in New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore exclusive societies, is said to hinge upon the facts obtained from these new witnesses.

The first witness discovered by the police was a former maid in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Williams. The police refuse to give her name, but declare they obtained from her facts as to the cause of strained relations between the rich society man and his beautiful wife.

The other witnesses are two men. Their story is said to relate to that of Rabbi Henry Fisher, of Pacific avenue who looked from his window to the scene of the shooting and saw three men running toward a waiting automobile immediately after the shooting.

It is said today that the men, who were questioned by the police, were friends of the man who fired upon the pair in the wheel chair, and that they aided his escape.

Infants and children are constantly needing a laxative. It is important to know what to give them. Their stomachs and bowels are not strong enough for salts, purgative waters or cathartics. Give them a mild, pleasant, gentle, laxative tonic like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which sells at the small sum of 50 cents or $1 at drug stores. It is the greatest remedy for you to have in the house. * * * Children when these would fit.

There is no medicine so safe and at the same time so pleasant to take as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, the positive cure for all diseases arising from stomach trouble. The price is very reasonable—50c and $1.

Ruskin's Whimsicality.

A story illustrating Ruskin's whimsicality was given on the authority of a friend of the great writer. "One morning," he notes, "as we were coming out of chapel he said to us, 'I ought not to have come to chapel this morning.' We asked him in some astonishment why. He said, 'I am going to write a critique on —' a picture in the academy and want to be in a perfectly diabolical temper.'"

A Reasonable Proposition.

Bumper—You owe me $80,000, which you say you can't pay. Why don't you marry Miss Oldgirl? She's worth twice that amount. Jumper—No; I can't do that. But you might marry her yourself and pay me the difference. —Fleegende Blatter.

Proof.

Blinks—Young folks seldom have insomnia, do they? Splinks—Nonsense! My baby is only five weeks old, and he's got the worst case I ever saw. —Exchange.

The Limit.

"Is it true that the Bliptons are living beyond their income?"
"Worse than that. They're living beyond their credit." —Brooklyn Life.

Books are divisible into two classes —the books of the hour and the books of all time. —Ruskin.

Quite Enough.

"I should think you'd go slow," said the cautious friend. "You know, as Lincoln said, 'you can fool all the people some of the time and some of the people'."

"That's all right," interrupted the sharper, "but I find it's always possible to fool enough of the people enough of the time." —Philadelphia Press.

The Worst of It.

Suffragette Lecturer—Yes, my sisters, man has tyrannized over us, oppressed us, abused us, maltreated us, scorned us, ridiculed us, and—Ancient Maiden (in audience)—Yes, and, what is worse, he never married us.—Kansas City Independent.

The Prize Medal Holder.

First Athlete—Do you see that gentleman yonder? He holds the largest number of prizes and medals ever possessed by any one man. Second Ditto—What, that fellow? He doesn't look a bit like a champion. First Ditto—It is just as I tell you, though. He is a pawnbroker, you see.

One Woman's Way.

Husband—Why are you buying such an expensive present for Mrs. Shoddy? I thought you told me you hated her. Wife—So I do, but I know she can't afford to give me a return one as handsome, and it will make her perfectly furious. —Baltimore American.

...Richmond is the Best City... In the West

But its merits need to be advertised. Let people find out WHAT WE ARE -- WHAT WE HAVE -- and HOW WE DO THINGS, and they will do the rest.

THIS WILL BE DONE AT THE FALL FESTIVAL

MR. CITIZEN:—Here is the proposition which you must face before many days. Are you willing to contribute your $25.00, $50.00, $100.00, $200.00, $500.00, to be used in bringing from 15,000 to 25,000 people here for three days and give them a good wholesome entertainment of which you and every other citizen can say "this is what RICHMOND can do when she tries."

THINK IT OVER and see if we are not right when we say that you will more than get your money back.

A VISIT TO RICHMOND DURING THE FESTIVAL WILL MEAN OTHER VISITS

EVERY MEMBER OF THE FINANCE COMMITTEE is a BUSINESS MAN and he is devoting his TIME, ENERGY and MONEY for the success of the Festival. WHY? Because he wants to see the city grow. Because he knows Richmond Can Do Things when the opportunity arises. Because he has some of that stuff in his blood they call PATRIOTISM.
