

IS NOW FEELING LIKE ITS NAME

Indianapolis Thirty Cent Club
Wants to Know Where Receipt Is.

SENT MONEY TO BRYAN.

REQUESTED ACKNOWLEDGMENT
BUT NOTHING HAS BEEN HEARD
AND NOW MUTINY IS STARING
NEBRASKA IN FACE.

Special Correspondence.
Indianapolis, Sept. 1.—When Bryan was in Indianapolis a week ago he received a letter from a Thirty-Cent club, which contributed $11.70 to the democratic fund and inclosed the money with the request that its receipt be acknowledged. The club has not yet received a reply and is growing impatient. Inasmuch as this club was the first of its kind to organize in Indianapolis, it was felt that the Nebraska would reply before leaving the city. He did not do so, however, although the money was sent direct to him, and now there is complaint. The letter also stated that several members of the club had opposed him in past campaign bits, a bit of news that should have pleased Bryan very much, the club members thought. A revolt is threatened unless there is prompt acknowledgment of the money, with a thank you added.

Soap Co. have guaranteed Easy Task soap which is white, to do the family washing with half the labor and without boiling. It will wash laces, linens, hannels—anything. 5c a cake. Natural Cross of Pearls.
Some curious things have been found in the briny deep, but one of the oddest is an ecclesiastical emblem made of pearls which was washed ashore on the coast of West Australia. There are nine good sized gems in this natural curiosity. These have been joined together to form a perfect Latin cross. Seven pearls of equal size comprise the upright and two more form the transverse piece. The joining has been the work of nature. The odd prize, discovered in a pearl oyster, is said to be worth at least $50,000. It is called the Great Southern Cross pearl.

Both.
Bess—And of which variety is your wife, the clinging vine or the self assertive? Cass—A little of both. When she wants a new dress or a new hat she generally begins in the clinging vine role. If that doesn't bring the money, then she changes to the self assertive, and—well, she invariably gets the dress or the hat.

Opposites.
"Why does he wish to marry her?" "He says people should marry their opposites."

"Why, they are both dark." "Yes, but he hasn't a cent, and she has a million dollars."—Pittsburg Post.

If you get angry with a man or woman, make up your mind what you are going to say and then don't say it.

Clara (on the wrong side of thirty)—I am sure I don't know what he sees in her.

Cholly—Well, love is blind.

Clara—Blind! Nonsense! I never saw a man in love yet who did not see ten times as much in his sweetheart as I could.

CHILD MORTALITY IN SUMMER
Every summer the newspapers are full of horrifying stories of the death list among infants and children and extremely old people. In nursing infants and children still being fed largely on milk this is usually due to the quality of the milk itself, and in aged people to a general weakening of the system because of extreme heat. Still, a great many of the deaths are due to digestive trouble, and these can usually be avoided by the timely use of a reliable laxative-remedy. There is no remedy for this purpose that lends itself better to the uses of children and aged people than Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which for a generation has been the reliance of thousands of mothers and which is gaining in favor every year. This remedy, unlike a purgative, salt, laxative water or "infant medicine," contains nothing that is dangerous to the health of the weakest or youngest person, and its repeated use does not form a habit, as is the case with narcotic remedies for children. Also, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is especially gentle in its action and is so pleasant to the taste as to be welcomed by the child. Go to your druggist
