

It's a Real Treat to Visit Our Linen
Department

KNOLLENBERG'S New Department. Second Floor Annex.

Our Underwear
Dept. is now fully prepared to meet your wants these cool evenings

Lace Curtains, Madras Curtains, Tapestry Portiers, Couch Covers, Blankets, Comforts, Bed Spreads

It's to the interior of your home where this department wishes to direct your attention. There is nothing that so enhances the appearance of a home as pretty curtains. A few minutes in our new department will be time well spent for the appearance of your home is what you are a mind to make it and by a liberal amount of ingenuity, a very little money and a visit to our curtain department will transform your surroundings into an ideal home.

It Pays to Look and Figure Ahead

The first cool evenings forecast the hard, dull bitterness of the coming winter when you will need Blankets, Comforts, Bed-spreads, etc. There is hardly an excuse for any discomfort in bed furnishings after a visit to this new department. Here you will find from a good cotton blanket as cheap as 68c per pair, to an elegant all wool blanket with beautiful colored border nicely bound, at $12.50 per pair.

We are going to make this one of the most prominent departments of our store. The management of this department has been placed in the hands of Mr. Henry Kluter who will not only be pleased to show you through his new stock, but will quote you prices that will leave no question in your mind as to where you will buy your next curtains, portiers, couch covers, blankets, comforts, etc.

MURDER MYSTERY MAY BE ALTERED

Letter Found, Which Exonerates Three Men, Who Were Under Suspicion.

SOCIETY YOUTH SUSPECTED

MAN NOW BEING WATCHED BE-LIEVED TO HAVE BEEN INFAT-UATED WITH MRS. WILLIAMS AND CHOSE HIS TIME.

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 2.—Documentary evidence of such character as to give an entirely new turn in the investigation into the mysterious shooting of Charles B. Roberts, the Baltimore banker and club man, when he was with Mrs. W. S. G. Williams of that city, on the board walk last Wednesday night, has been discovered. The new evidence is a letter received by Roberts shortly before the attempt was made to kill him.

In consequence of this new evidence the police admit that W. S. G. Williams, the husband, has been eliminated from the case, and that Tom De-ford, Mrs. Williams's brother, and "Willie" West also have been eliminated. But, notwithstanding the elimination of these three men, the police are still sticking to the theory that the shooting was the act of a jealous and revengeful man.

In the document sufficient grounds have been found to direct suspicion to a Baltimore society youth, whose name so far has not been mentioned in connection with the case. It is said that the man, who is now being watched, with the chance of an early arrest, was insanely jealous of the attentions of Roberts to Mrs. Williams.

It is claimed that this man, who moved in the same walk of life with Roberts and Mrs. Williams, was infatuated by the great beauty of the Baltimore society woman, with whom he had but a slight acquaintance, and that he timed his effort to kill Roberts with the return to this country of Williams, so as to direct suspicion away from himself.

NEW SENSATION AT SPRINGFIELD

Mrs. Hallam Declares Guilt-less Negro Accused of Attack Upon Her.

ANOTHER IS ARRESTED.

SON OF MAN LYNCHED, CHARGED WITH CRIME AGAINST WOMAN THAT PRECIPITATED RACE RIOT AND CAUSED SERIOUS TROUBLE

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 2.—George Richardson, the negro charged with assault upon Mrs. Mabel Hallam—the crime which caused the outbreak of the race riot in this city—was declared guiltless in a statement made today by the woman to State's Attorney Hatch.

The news created a sensation in Springfield, which was aroused anew when W. E. Hallam, husband of the young woman who claims to have been attacked, secured a warrant for the arrest of Ralph Burton, said to be a son of Scott Burton, the first negro lynched by the mob on August 15.

Young Burton is charged with the crime for which Richardson has already been indicted by the special grand jury, and the complaining witness is as positive in her declarations against the new defendant as she was against George Richardson.

When Mrs. Hallam was attacked at her home on North Fifth street on the night of August 13, she was positive that the man who dragged her from her bed into the garden was a negro.
She was emphatic in declaring that she could positively identify the black if she could see him again.

human endeavor and activity, well-nigh impenetrable forests and practically impassable swamps.

"Instead of cattle on a thousand hills and domestic animals that render us service and are agreeable companions, we must fill the woods with savage beasts and savage men, with only a few white settlements scattered here and there in small, newly made clearings, the very outposts of civilization, with only foot and wagon trails in completely connecting them. Behind this frontier was an encroaching population that in slowly widening and advancing growth had been gradually fighting its way from the river and to the interior, but which had scarcely made its appearance nearer this point than Columbus.

"They were hardy, brave and self reliant, but sparse, poor and unable to spare to the army from their scanty stocks of provisions and supplies.

"It was to such a spot, so situated and surrounded, and to the defense of such a people, that General Harrison came in 1813. Today it is an agreeable ride of but a few hours from this point to the most far distant house of those who accompanied him, but then those homes could be reached only by weeks of wearisome travel. His soldier boys were further from their loved ones than are our soldier boys of today on duty in the Philippines.

"Others have described the bitter cold that was encountered, and the numerous hardships and deprivations that they endured, and in thrilling sentences their brave and heroic defense of this place has been told over and over again. All this is familiar history and need not be repeated here today. Suffice it to say that the gallant sons of Virginia, Pennsylvania, Kentucky and Ohio, who composed this little army, were worthy of the great trust committed to them. Together they stood and fought, for almost a century they have slept side by side in the rude trenches to which their comrades tenderly consigned them.

"Almost a hundred years have passed and we come now to honor them. Our respective states have sent us to join in the unveiling and dedication of this beautiful monument."

DEATH RELIEVES REV. F. P. TROTTER

Was Well Known as Minister At Hagerstown.

Cambridge City, Ind., Sept. 2.—A telegram received by Prof. Reese announces the death of his brother-in-law, the Rev. F. P. Trotter, of Maple Rapids, Mich. The remains will be brought to Darlington, Ind., for burial. Rev. Trotter is a well known minister of the Christian church, having held pastorates in late years at Middletown and Muncie. He was well known through his ministerial work, at Hagerstown and other points in the county.

MISTAKE IN DATE.

The Benevolent Convention of the M. E. church will meet September 8, at Centerville instead of September 2, as was announced.

LAWYER WAS STUNG

Copies.

ROOSEVELT'S AUTOGRAPH.

New York, Sept. 2.—Judge Bischof has reserved decision on the question of the liability of Jesse Watson, a lawyer of No. 60 Wall street, to pay $6,- 000 for 22 volumes of President Roosevelt's writings. Mr. Watson, through his counsel, set up that Judge Goff had granted him 20 days to answer a judgment for $5,000 in favor of the Keller-Farmer company, of No. 225 Fifth avenue, who sold the books to him. Mr. Watson stopped payment after he had paid $1,050 on installments.

In his complaint, Mr. Watson asserted that it was represented to him that he would get for the sum of $6,000 what was warranted to be an "individual star copy of writings of Theodore Roosevelt, with letter, 22 volumes full morocco, double extra illustrated."

Mr. Watson says that the copies were bound in "blue" instead of "violet," that he received no "star copy," and further he alleges that an inclosed autograph is not that of President Roosevelt. The books, he received Mr. Watson asserts, were worth about $2.50 a volume.
