CURIOUS OATHS.

Odd Ways of Swearing to the Truth of One's Statements.

When a Chinaman awakes to tell the truth he kneels down, and a china saucer is given to him. The following oath is then administered: "You shall tell the truth and the whole truth. The saucer is cracked, and if you do not tell the truth your soul will be cracked like the saucer," when he breaks the saucer. Other symbolic variations of the Chinese oath are the extinguishing of a candle or cutting off of a cock's head, the light of the candle representing the witness' soul and the fate of the cock symbolizing the fate of a perjurer.

In certain parts of India tigers and leopards' skins take the place of the Bible of Christian countries, and the penalty of breaking the oath is that in one case the witness will become the prey of a tiger and in the other that his body will be covered with scales like a lizard.

In Norwegian courts of law the prelude to the oath proper is a long homily on the sanctity of the oath and the terrible consequences of not keeping it. When the witness is duly crushed by the sense of his fearful responsibility the oath is administered while he holds aloft his thumb and fore and middle fingers as an emblem of the trinity.

In an Italian court the witness, with his right hand resting on an open Bible, declares, "I will swear to tell the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth." The Mohammedan takes the oath with his forehead reverently resting on the open Koran. He takes his "Bible" in his hand and, stooping low, as if in the presence of a higher power, slowly bows his head until it touches the book which to him is inspired.

In certain parts of Spain the witness when taking an oath crosses the thumb of one hand over the forefinger of the other and, kissing this symbolic, if primitive, cross, says, "By this cross I swear to tell the truth."

WILLS OF LUNATICS.

The Queer Bequests That Are Made by Insane Persons.

One of the manias which are evidenced by the insane is a desire to make a will. Of course these documents are waste paper as far as their legality is concerned, but the attendants and doctors treat these documents with the greatest respect in order to humor the demented creatures.

Some of these wills would be amusing if it were not for the sad condition of mind of which they are the outcome. One man confined in an asylum left all his money to the mikado of Japan on condition that this dignitary should visit the grave of the testator once each year and plant chrysanthemums upon it. The remainder of the estate was to be handed over to an imaginary charity called the Brotherly Love and Bounty society.

Another lunatic in a Parisian asylum left a will devising the whole of his estate to the possessors of Roman noses residing in and near Paris. The reason for this was that he had rather a handsome nose of this shape and was constantly admiring it. A similar bequest was that of a patient who left his property to an attendant because he possessed one of the ugliest nasal organs the testator had ever seen.

One man, who was afflicted with the mania that he was sane, but confined in the asylum unjustly, devised a will leaving his money to the commissioners of lunacy to enable them to engage a large staff of men for the purpose of visiting asylums and ascertaining if any were confined in them without reason.—New York Times.

M'KINSTRY SAID WAS NOT GUILTY

And the Court Believed His Plea of Hard Luck.

George McKinstry in the city court this morning was found not guilty of the charge of beating a board bill. It was alleged that he had defrauded a Mrs. Stakebake out of $13. McKinstry stated that he had been out of work and could not pay the debt. Judge Converse told him he would be expected to make a full payment to Mrs. Stakebake. A short time ago McKinstry served time for living with a married woman. Prosecutor Jessup told him this morning that if he saved the money he was spending on this woman he would soon have enough to pay his debts.

MISSING MAN IS BEING SOUGHT FOR

Noblesville Authorities Have Asked Local Aid.

Chief Bailey today received a communication from Noblesville, asking him to assist in searching for J. W. O'Byrne of that city, who is a traveling tobacco salesman.

The communication stated that O'Byrne had last been seen at the union station at Vincennes, Ind., on August 18. Harry Gates of the Gates cigar store, informed the police that on August 12, three days after O'Byrne was reported to be missing, he received a long distance telephone communication from him. He said that O'Byrne was at that time in Indianapolis, and that he called him up to solicit an order. This information will be given the Noblesville authorities.

O'Byrne is described as a sober, hard working man about 48 years of age, weighs 150 pounds and wears glasses. He is a member of the Elks lodge.

FIREMEN CALLED TO FIGHT STINGERS

Departed in Haste, Angry at Boys and Bees.

Two fire alarms were sent in yesterday afternoon, the second one closely following the first. The department was first called to subdue a blaze on a C. & L. trestle near the piano works. The second one was to fight a grass fire on the commons near the crematory. The latter blaze originated as a result of small boys burning out a nest of bumble bees. When the firemen arrived the angry honey manufacturers were on the war path, giving hot chase to their human home destroyers.

EXAMINATIONS FOR SPECIAL STUDENTS

Annual Tests to Be Held Next Week.

Next Wednesday and Thursday mornings are the two days set aside by Supt. T. A. Mott for examinations for pupils who wish to make up back work or to secure advance standing in their classes. During the past summer there have been a number of the pupils in the grade schools receiving private instruction in the hope of making up their back work or making up a grade. It is believed that the number taking examinations this year will be the smallest for a number of years.

MARINE DISASTER TAKES 52 LIVES

Ship Struck Cliff and Sank Beneath Sea.

Lisbon, Sept. 4.—Fifty-two persons and the entire crew of the steamer Luiza are reported drowned, when the steamer's machinery became disabled and she ran straight into a cliff 300 feet high, south of Fuzegara and disappeared from view.

Tit For Tat.

The Japanese do not like to be called Japs. A noted diplomat was traveling from Tokyo to Yokohama when an American in the car leaned across and said, "Say, what 'ese' are you, Chinese or Japanese?"

Quick as a flash came in excellent English, "May I inquire what 'key' are you, Yankee or monkey?"—Philadelphia Ledger.
