VISITED FORT WAYNE.

Supt. Mott Seeking for Information on Buildings.

Supt. T. A. Mott of the local schools, was a visitor at the Ft. Wayne schools yesterday. Mr. Mott was the guest of Prof. J. N. Study, superintendent of the schools, former superintendent of the Richmond schools. Mr. Mott paid special attention to the high school building in the hope of securing various suggestions that can be used in the new Richmond building.

Good Books.

As a pleasure in the gloaming, when the lights are burning low, to forget the hours of labor, with their weariness and woe and to choose some ample volume—say a work by Albert Ross—and peruse its hopeful pages, which absorb us and engross. And a book by Laura Libbey lifts the shadows from one's brow, such a stirring tale, for choice, as "Lovers Once, but Strangers Now." Let the thoughtless go to cakewalks, dances and the like, forsooth! We shall rest and read Nick Carter and his running mate, "Old Sleuth."—Pioneer Gazette.

FRANKLIN COUNTY WORSE.

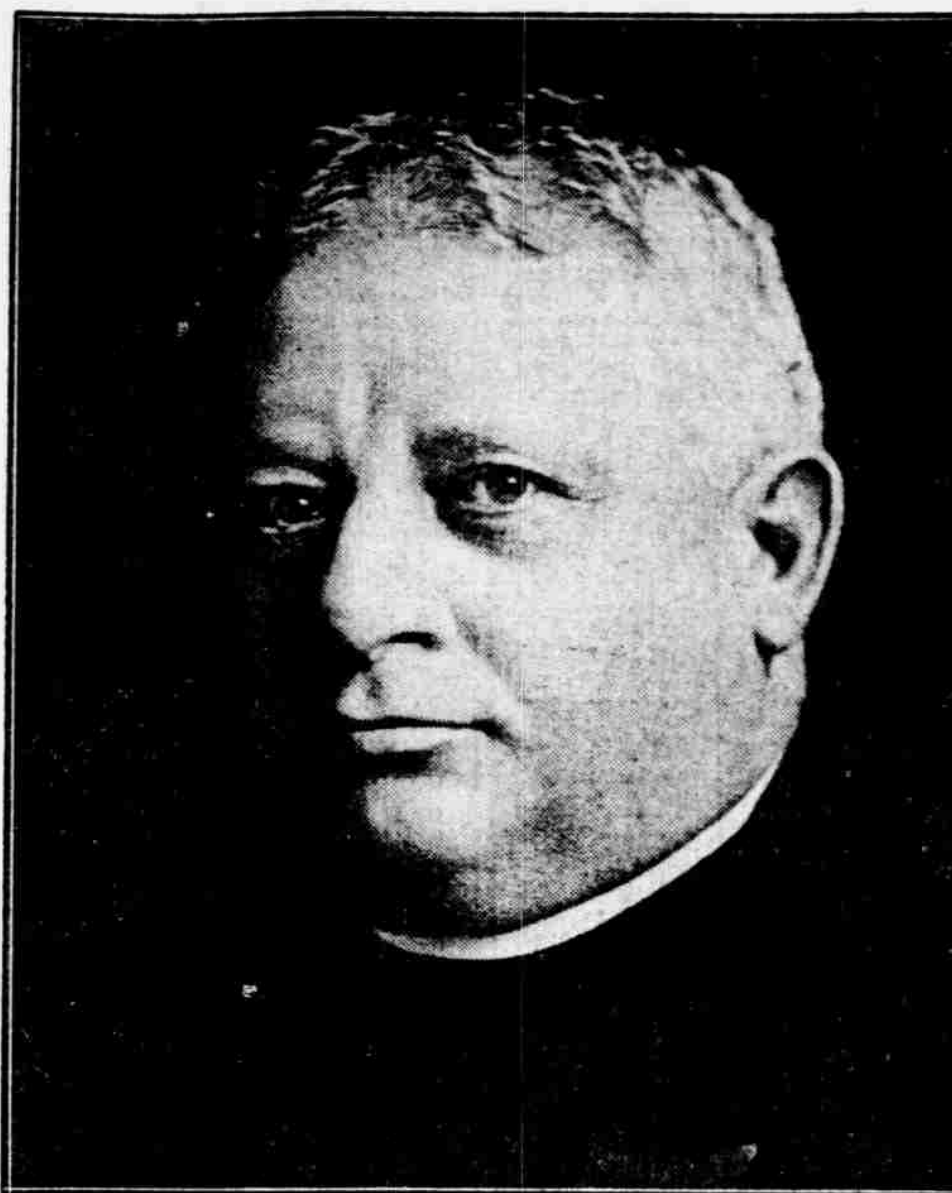

Chas. Robbins Says Crop Conditions There Are Bad.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robbins of near Centerville were the guests of their son, Rev. M. O. Robbins of Mt. Carmel, Indiana, Saturday and Sunday. Mr. Robbins reports that the people of Franklin county are suffering more from the drought than the people of Wayne county. Mr. Robbins said that the corn of Wayne county looks better than the corn either in Union or Franklin counties.

The Sort of Thing He Liked. In an early day in Stone county, Mo. a farmer's boy rushed into the office of Dr. T. J. McCord of Galena and urged the doctor to come quickly to see his father, who seemed to be dying. Said the doctor, "What ails him, and what has he eaten?" The boy said, "Oh, nothing much but fourteen roasting ears for supper." "Well," said the doctor, "just go back and throw him in a couple of bundles of oats and tell him I will be up there in about thirty minutes."—Judge's Library.

NOTED TRAVELING LECTURER SIGHTS VICTORY FOR TAFT

REV. J. E. CATHELL.

The Rev. J. E. Cathell of this city is one of the most prominent public speakers in the country, has just returned from a lecture trip through Indiana, Kentucky, Tennessee, Illinois, Wisconsin, Iowa and Missouri. Speaking on the political situation in these states Mr. Cathell says "the predominating sentiment is for Taft although in Iowa and Indiana his chances are somewhat affected by republican factional fights."

Mr. Cathell states that there is a strong Taft sentiment in Kentucky, but Bryan will probably carry that state by a small majority. He makes the remarkable prediction that Taft will carry the state of Tennessee. He says that in Tennessee the democrats are strongly opposed to Bryan, while Taft is favored because he is in sympathy with Rooseveltian policies. Iowa, Mr. Cathell says, is greatly torn up over Gov. Cummins' fight for the United States senatorship. A strong faction of the republican party is opposed to Cummins in this fight and the strife is so bitter it may affect the chances of the republican national ticket. Factional fighting in Indiana may also affect the republican national ticket, he says. Illinois, Mr. Cathell states, is for Taft, as is Wisconsin. In Missouri, he says, Taft has a good chance of carrying the state. Roosevelt is very popular with Missourians, so they will probably endorse Taft.

"I am glad that Richmond people have decided to boost the town. The efforts in this direction if continued will have the desired effect. By similar methods the city of Des Moines, Ia., in twelve years increased its population from 50,000 to 100,000," Mr. Cathell remarked.

MUSICAL PLAYS FOR THIS SEASON

New Management of Gennett Will Give Line of Fine Attractions.

STRONG ON DRAMAS.

SUCH SHOWS AS "THE WOLF" AND "THE THIEF" WILL APPEAR— "HONEYMOON TRAIL" AND "MERRY WIDOW" SOON.

Plenty of good wholesome musical plays are promised theater patrons this season by the new lessee of the Gennett theater. "We understand this is a great city for music and we will give you a line of the best attractions you have had," said E. J. Welsh, traveling representative of the Sommers management. And then he announced the "Honey Moon Trail" for next week. Mr. Welsh stated the Sommers interests acquired control of the local house too late in the season to book as many first class attractions as desired, but there will be enough to provide a satisfactory year. Three days of English grand opera are promised for next year.

"There is one thing I would like to assure the people," Mr. Welsh added. "We will give them 30 cent shows for 30 cents. We will make our prices at what the show is worth and not run in any 50 cent shows and charge $1.50 to see them." Besides the Gennett, this line includes the Auditorium and Oliver, the two leading play houses at South Bend, the Powers at Grand Rapids, Bucklen at Elkhart, Jefferson at Goshen, Grand and Indiana at Marion, Beckwith at Dowagiac, Mich, Bell at Benton Harbor and Hall's at Laporte. Improvements are to be made at the Gennett, including an addition to the lobby and a change in the location of the box office. The custom of having an uptown agency will be dispensed with and all tickets will be sold and reservations made at the box office. Miss Affie McVicker will be treasurer and in charge of the box office. The name McVicker is easily recognizable as one prominent in theatrical circles and Miss McVicker is of "the blood." Her grandfather, J. H. McVicker was the founder of the celebrated theater at Chicago which bears his name. Her father is a manager of note and this year directs the tour of Frank Daniels. Last year he managed Ethel Barrymore.

Among the productions promised for early in the season by Mr. Welsh are "The Honeymoon Trail," "The Merry Widow," "Paid in Full," "The Wolf," and "The Thief." Appearing in the last attraction will be Charles Dalton, Herbert Kelcey and Effie Shannon. Dalton is the man who created the role of the vicar in the celebrated play "The Servant in the House," which has met with such phenomenal reception. "Brewster's Millions" is another attraction now booked.

Paternal Latin.

"Can't you keep still, David?" asked Mr. Mead from behind his evening paper. "What are you doing?"

"Studyin' Latin," came the muffled answer, "an' I'm stuck."

"Show it to me," ordered his father resignedly. Mr. Mead's Latin was exceedingly rusty, and he, knowing this fact, was wont to act with due caution.

David brought his work over and explained where the trouble lay. It seemed that a certain word could not be found in the vocabulary, nor could he guess whence the form was derived. His father studied the page for a moment and then said: "Now, David, I don't think I ought to help you. It is a great deal better for you to puzzle things out for yourself. In this case it is merely a question of your knowing your declensions and conjugations."

The lad worked till bedtime without success. The next afternoon he came home from school with a look of triumph.

"I've found out about that word," he announced.

"Perseverance"—began his father. "The teachers told us. It was a misprint!"—Harper's.

TRY SAFETY DEVICE

Doors of Garfield School Are Equipped With a New Latch for Test.

RELEASED BY PRESSURE.

A sample pair of the Van Duprin safety device, self releasing fire exit latches are being placed on the front door of the Garfield school building. The new latch is being tried by the school board and if it proves satisfactory may be placed on the doors of all the school buildings. The new latches are operated by a lever across the door and any one wishing to go out has to push down on the lever and this opens the door. Any one falling against the door or even bumping into the doors will open them.

Birds That Play.

Some birds, like all children, like to play, and Australia and New Guinea produce the "bower bird," which builds regular playhouses. These houses are not a part of their nests, but are constructed usually in the shape of covered archways of little boughs two or three feet long, eighteen inches high and about as wide. They use these houses simply for their games, as if they were clubhouses. Generally these playhouses are decorated with bright colored shells and feathers, just as children decorate their playhouses.

Lucky Future Generations.

There is a saying of Carlyle that the greatest hope of our world lies in the certainty of heroes being born into it. That is indeed a glorious certainty, but the reference might be enlarged. Birth itself, we venture to say, not of heroes only, but of the generations in their succession, is the infinitely hopeful thing. It is the guarantee that the world will never grow old; that it will never stand still; that no halt is to be called in its eternal progress.—Christian World.

Former Pupils of Culbertson School Gathered Again.

The annual Culbertson school reunion was held last Saturday at the school grounds and was attended by a large number of former teachers, scholars and friends. At 12 o'clock dinner was served to about 100 people. At 2 o'clock the meeting was called by the president, W. C. Reynolds. The minutes of the last reunion were read by the secretary and interesting talks were given by the Rev. Whitlock, C. W. King, W. B. Elwood and others.

W. C. Reynolds was re-elected president and Mrs. L. O. Morris was elected secretary and treasurer. A vote of thanks was given to Edward King who made a liberal donation of coffee.

September seventh with Mrs. Q. Bryant, south of Lewisville, who since last Labor Day, has changed her occupation from the making of overalls to being an industrious farmer's wife. The dinner was excellent, and the badges presented by Miss Lulu Ward, of Milton, were highly appreciated. While they failed and for the first time, to bring the much desired rain, they did bring fine bass and cat-fish to Supt. T. E. Frazier.
