

PROTECTOR OF HOME
PLACED IN JAIL

Despoiler of Austin Bernard's Home Allowed to Go Free.

AN ASSAULT WAS MADE.

WHEN BERNARD FOUND FRANK MORRIS AND WIFE TOGETHER, HE THROWS CHISEL AT MAN AND WOUNDS HIM.

Drawn tighter, are the bandages about the eyes of justice, it is declared.

For trying to protect the sanctity of his own home and assaulting the de-spoiler, Austin Bernard was locked up in the city jail this morning, and Frank Morris, drayman, the man accused by Bernard of being a home wrecker, was permitted the liberty of the streets and not required to offer bond. Morris owns property.

It was about 8 o'clock this morning that Bernard returned unexpectedly to his home 912 1/2 Main street. He had come back, so he says, for the purpose of helping his wife remove their household goods to a property on North Eighth street. He picked up a large chisel to use in pulling tacks as he passed through one room and entered another.

His surprise, dismay and consternation were almost beyond imagination, when he saw, upon entering the room, his wife and Frank Morris together.

Morris heard the husband enter, and Bernard says, arose and started to leave the room and Bernard let fly the chisel. With all his might he hurled the tool, and it caught Morris squarely across the forehead and left eye.

With blood spurting from his head as from the neck of a stuck beef, Morris hastened from the room and down the stairway. There was no parley-ing and no hesitation. Bernard did not follow Morris to the street, nor make any attempt to follow up his victim and continue the affair to the bitter end.

In an uneasy condition Morris wended his way to the office of Dr.
Huffman, where the wound was dressed. He was found there soon afterward and placed under arrest by Officer Cully. Bernard was taken into custody.

Bernard told his story to the police superintendent. Beads of perspiration stood out upon his face, but he appeared cool and collected while relating his version of the affair. Calmly he told the superintendent he had done what any man would do. He unhesitatingly said: "Had I a gun, I would have shot him."

"It will be eighteen years tomorrow that I have been living with my wife and I never have suspected any wrong of her," Bernard continued. "When I saw this man arise, I threw the chisel and it happened to hit him. It was the only thing I had and it chanced my aim was good. That's all there is to the story."

Morris did not talk much of the episode. He said he went to the Bernard home to move furniture.

Morris told Superintendent Bailey he was unsteady and was permitted to go home. Bernard was placed behind the bars.

MISS DONEY MAY
NOW RECOVER

Her Convulsive Sobs Have Ceased.

Cambridge City, Ind., Sept. 24.— Hopes are now being entertained for the recovery of Miss Mildred Doney, whose foot was amputated following an accident. It was feared at first Miss Doney would give herself to death, but within the last two days her convulsive sobs have ceased and it is believed she has become reconciled to be a cripple for life. She has been able to sit up in bed and now takes delightment, although having refused several days.

The function of life.
Infants and children are constantly needing a laxative. It is important to know what to give them. Their stomachs and bowels are not strong enough for salts, purgative waters or cathar-tics, powders or tablets. Give them a mild laxative, gentle, laxative tonic like Dr. Cal-well's Syrup Pepsin, which sells at the amount of 50 cents or $1 at drug stores. It is a great remedy for you to have in the house where children are.

The ladies of First Universalist church will serve another of their excellent 15c suppers at Rhoda Temple Saturday, Sept. 26, 5 to 8 o'clock.

SETH LOW IS NEXT
BIG PARTY SPEAKER

Famous New Yorker Scheduled to Address Republicans Here Oct. 12.

CRUMPACKER TONIGHT.

RALLY EXPECTED TO BE ONE OF
THE MOST ENTHUSIASTIC EV-ER HELD IN RICHMOND—PA-RADE A FEATURE.

It was announced today that the republican state speakers' bureau had assigned Seth Low, one of the most prominent men of affairs in the country, to speak in this city at the Coliseum on the evening of October 12. Mr.
Low was formerly president of Columbia university, which position he resigned when elected mayor of New York City a few years ago.

Mr. Low is one of President Roosevelt's most intimate friends and valued advisers and what he has to say when he speaks here, can be taken as being inspired by President Roosevelt. Mr. Low will only make three or four addresses in Indiana and Richmond is particularly fortunate in being one of the places where he has been assigned to speak.

It was announced today that Congressman Samuel W. McCall of Massachusetts will not speak here on the evening of October 5. This meeting was canceled yesterday by the state speakers' bureau. It is understood, at the request of District Chairman E.
M. Haas. Why this request was made is not known.

Tonight Congressman Crumpacker will deliver an address at the Coliseum and republicans from all over the county will be in attendance. It is expected the rally will be one of the most enthusiastic of the campaign.
Preceding the meeting, there will be a parade in which the Taft Marching Club and the various drum and bugle corps will participate. The doors of the Coliseum will open at 7 o'clock and at 8 o'clock the meeting will be called to order by John L. Rupe, the presiding officer.

WOMAN NEEDS VOTE

W. C. T. U. Worker Says the United States Has Aristocracy of Sex.

OFFICERS ARE ELECTED.

Economy, Ind., Sept. 24.—The closing session of the annual convention of the Wayne County Women's Christian Temperance Union was held here yesterday and the following officers for the ensuing year were elected: Mrs. S. W. Traum—President.
Mrs. Virginia Stanley, Economy—Treasurer.
Bertha Marshall, Economy—Recording secretary.

There were twenty delegates in attendance besides a large number of members of the organization. An excellent address was delivered by Miss Sarah Woodard. There are now seven unions in the county. The colored branch of the organization in this city was represented by Mrs. McCurry.
The delegates voted to hold the next annual session in Richmond. The work of the organization in this county shows splendid improvement and the convention held here was the best in the history of the Wayne County W. C. T. U.

At the session held Tuesday evening Miss Mary E. Woodward of Fountain City gave a stirring talk on the suffrage question. She stated that instead of the United States having a republican form of government, it had an aristocracy of sex and that the government instead of being "by the people and for the people" was a government "by the men and for the men, women and children." She said that women needed the ballot for home protection.

Mrs. Sophie Huff of Fountain City gave a very interesting address on "Women in Educational Work."

No use waiting longer for the copious showers to quicken the activity of trade.
The month of October is near at hand, and with the poet we will soon be saying "The frost is on the pumpkin and the fodder is in the shock."

It's a NEW DRESS the ladies will then be wanting, and will be disappointed perhaps when they find the dressmaker, the modist, the home sewer, all too busy to make their dresses. Therefore, now is the time to buy and get the work started in order to have the new frock when needed.

Well, in closing this advertisement we simply wish to say that the collection of Dress Materials we have to offer is one of which we are proud, and that we are positively sure will please our patrons. The trimmings are likewise superb. Come and see the great collection of wool fabrics and silks which fill our shelves and counters; it will do you good and make you glad.

Affairs of the Sporting World

The long expected has happened—a riot followed the close of the Cubs-Giants game yesterday at New York, but it was checked before anything serious happened. Manager Chance of the Cubs, has protested the game, but President Pulliam has not yet ruled on it.

How the mighty have fallen. Boston just made it three straight from Detroit and the lowly New York took them for three out of four. Wow!

Right at the present time Eddie Summers is the only consistent box-man the Tigers have. The entire infield and outfield seems to be groggy with too much work and Detroit will be lucky to finish in third place unless a decided brace is taken.

Wonder if Savage, the Reds new finger nail curve pitcher, is a manuric-in the winter time?

Tomorrow night they pull off the big wrestling bout at the Coliseum. Ten stout men and true have been secured for the Terrible Turk to work on. He guarantees to dispose of the entire squad within an hour.

HASKELL MAY

National Committeemen Favorable to Ousting Democratic Treasurer.

FOLLOWS HEARST CHARGES

SAID HE NOT ONLY DECLINED TO PERMIT STANDARD PROSECU-TION, BUT WAS CONNECTED WITH RAILROAD PROMOTIONS.

New York, Sept. 24.—It has become known at the democratic national headquarters that several committeemen are preparing to use every influence to bring about the removal of Governor Charles N. Haskell from the office of treasurer of the National committee.

This is a result of the publication of charges that Mr. Haskell, as governor of Oklahoma, declined to permit the state to prosecute the Prairie Oil company, a subsidiary company of the Standard Oil company.

Charges that Governor Haskell had been identified with several railroad promotions in this city, which are said to have been unfortunate in the matter of consummation, are said to have also tended to increase the feelings of the national committeemen that the time has come for Governor Haskell's resignation from the committee or his removal.

National Chairman Mack is taking no action in the matter, nor will he state what the outcome might be with reference to the Haskell matter.

His attitude is known to be such as to oppose the continuance on the committee of any man whose affiliations are proved to be with corporations which are opposed by Mr. Bryan.

CROOK IS AT LARGE

Isaac Lucas Escapes From Jail at St. Matthews, Kentucky.

THOUGHT TO BE HERE.

Word has been received here that Isaac Lucas, a local barbor, who was arrested a few weeks ago at St.
Matthews, Ky., for passing a forged note calling for about $450, has escaped from jail and is now supposed to be somewhere in this locality. Local police are keeping a sharp watch for Lucas and it is expected he will soon be taken into custody. It is stated that Lucas was in Liberty Monday, the day following his escape from the St. Matthews jail and that he hired a horse and rig. It is not known whether the man returned them.

Lucas is one of the most daring crooks the local police have ever had to deal with. He has served two terms in the Jeffersonville reformatory once for petit larceny and once for horse stealing.

Millinery openings postponed until Tuesday the 29th on account of the condition of Main street.

LITTLE SYMPATHY
FOR MRS. KEEN

Court Officials Say She Knew Husband of Negro Blood.

WANTS MARRIAGE ANNULED

SHE MARRIED MAN AGAINST ALL ADVICE OFFERED AND AFTER SHE HAD BEEN REFUSED LI-CENSE HERE.

Little sympathy is expressed by circuit court officials for the predicament in which Ethel F. Keen now finds herself. In fact there is none at all as the sixteen-year-old young woman who finds herself married to man of colored extraction, refused to hearken to all advice that was offered. Even after being denied a marriage license in this county, she persisted in her determination. Her father appeared as ignorant of suspicion as the daughter and she married Asa L. Keen. Her maiden name was Ethel Creager. Now she has entered suit in the Wayne circuit court to have the marriage annulled.

She charges her husband is on occupation, and that she married him believing in his statement he was of French-Canadian-Indian blood.

When Keen applied to County Clerk Penny for a license, he was refused.
The clerk had been warned in advance that a man of negro blood would apply for a license to marry a white girl. This angered Keen and also his prospective bride. Keen told his troubles to Jonathan Creager, the girl's father. The two remonstrated with the clerk and even went to his home to talk the matter over. The clerk said he had reason to doubt their statements and would not alter his decision unless an order was obtained from the court. But such an order was not obtained.

Finding their intentions foiled Keen took the girl and went to Newport, Ky. But the authorities there had been warned and a license was refused.
Thereupon the couple went to Covington, Ky., secured the license and were married. The young wife believed in her husband's story to his race until he was arrested for assault and battery upon a negro a few weeks ago.
Mr. and Mrs. Keen were on South Sixth street, when they were followed by the child and Mrs. Keen says the former called her "nigger." Keen slapped the child and his arrest followed. It was Mrs. Keen who was called "nigger" by members of the court house gang of boys, as she was crossing the court house yard with her husband one evening.
