MUST WAIT FOR

MONEY FOR WORK

Schneider Seeks as Testator, Money for Improvement.Henry U. Johnson, attorney for George Schneider is endeavoring in the Wayne circuit court to secure money due Schneider as testator of the estate of his father, who was contractor for South First street and now is deceased. The State, Platte county company and Charles Farnham have appealed from the assessment of benefits against their places of business and the case will be carried higher upon the question of the constitutionality of the law. In the meantime Schneider must await the decision of the court to obtain the money due him for the street improvement unless other arrangements are made.The Richmond Brick company and Charles and Walter Brown have appealed their cases against the city also. They object to paying the assessment levied against their property as the result of the construction of the West Side sewer.

Queerest of Many Queer "Horseless Vehicles" Is Used Near MiltonThe Milton, Ind., Oct. 2—The construction of the levy south of town, which is a real-for-sure "horseless vehicle." The motive power is furnished by a stubborn Missouri mule who positively refuses to haul the rig in the ordinary way, but has no objections to getting behind and pushing it.
To satisfy the whim—or rather, firm conviction—of the animal, shafts have been placed at the rear of the vehicle.
The mule is placed between the shaftsand the driver gets aboard, and with one hand holds a lead strap while with the other he guides the rig with a steering apparatus similar to the kind used on automobiles. Mr. Mule thinks he is being "led" so offers no objection to carrying the motive power.The construction gang are sure that some day their four-wheeled "mule" will "get wise" and that he has been the victim of a "mule" and that he will then set in.
