PARTIES PREPARE FOR GREAT FINISH

Republicans and Democrats
To Send Speakers All
Over Indiana.

ROOSEVELT IS WANTED.

G. O. P. MEN DECLARE TWO SPEECHES FROM HIM WOULD CINCH THINGS FOR TAFT IN THE HOOSIER STATE.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 2.—Preparations for a whirlwind finish of the campaign are being made at the headquarters of the two state committees. Chairman Hayes and Hendren, of the rival speakers' bureaus, are now planning meetings for every county, to be addressed by some of the most noted men in the country.

At the Republican headquarters hope is held out that President Roosevelt will take the stump and make a tour that will include Indiana. "Give us three speeches from President Roosevelt, and there will be nothing to it but the shouting," is the way the Republican leaders are talking at the committee rooms.

Chairman Hayes says that the meeting this year are larger than they have been since the last Cleveland-Harrison campaign in 1892. "Representative Watson is having larger meetings than ever before," said Chairman Hayes. "That is saying a good deal, for he has been one of the most popular campaigners we have had in recent years. 'Every speaker the national committee has sent us is being received by large and enthusiastic crowds. The people are interested. The kind of meetings we are having makes us feel sure that the Republicans are going to win.'"

While Chairman Hayes's associates agree with him as to the size of the meetings, they also declare that a couple of speeches by President Roosevelt would help cinch the state for Taft. A half way promise has been made that Taft shall tour Indiana in a special train the latter part of October. The Republican leaders say that it is necessary for him to come so that the masses can get acquainted with him.

Chairman Hayes says that Senator Beveridge will begin his Indiana tour October 22. He will make at least a dozen speeches. Governor Hanly will make his first political speech tonight at Brownstown. There is much speculation as to what he will say. Thomas R. Marshall, Democratic nominee for governor, has been attacking Hanly, and it is believed that the governor will make a sizzling reply.

Gamekeeper—Then—then you might throw your gun at him!—London Telegraph.

An Anglo-Indian, says an English newspaper, gave the following "character" to his native cook, who exhibited it with much complacency: "This servant has been with me for six months. It seems much longer. He leaves me now on account of ill health—my ill health."

KIDNAPPED GIRL TELLS AWFUL STORY

Rescued From Hovel in New York City.

New York, Oct. 2.—A horrible story of mistreatment after she had been spirited away from her home in Jamaica, L. I., was told by 16 year old Lena Thorn when she was rescued by policemen from the filthy hovel in East New York, where she declares she had been held a prisoner for six weeks. Rayfield Susso and Annie Carlo, who are charged by the girl with having aided in keeping her a prisoner, have been arrested.

Susso is charged with abduction, criminal assault, keeping a disorderly house and resisting an officer. Annie Carlo is charged with aiding in kidnapping the girl.

"After the girl disappeared from her home six weeks ago the police searched in vain until people in the vicinity of the Susso house reported that they had heard a woman's screams coming from the place at all hours. Policemen surrounded the house and burst through the front door.

A Crab and a Cigarette.
"Give a crab a cigarette and he'll smoke himself to death."

The speaker to make good his words took a huge crab from the basket in the bottom of the boat. He stuck a cigarette tight in the crab's narrow slit of a mouth. Then he lit the end. "Watch," he said, with a cruel smile. The crab, to rid himself of the hateful mouthful, exhaled strongly. Then, according to the laws of nature, he inhaled. He exhaled again. Again he inhaled. Thick clouds of smoke rolled forth, but thicker ones remained in the hapless creature's lungs. The cigarette burnt free and fast. "So he'll keep on," said the cruel experimenter, "smoking like a steam engine till he dies."

But at this point one of the fishermen had pity on the crab and snatched the cigarette from its mouth.—New Orleans Times-Democrat.
