

POSTMASTERS COME

Sixth District Meeting To Be Held in Richmond on Tuesday.

PROGRAM IS COMPLETED.

On the first day of the fall festival Tuesday it is expected that fully sixty of the ninety-three postmasters of the sixth Indiana congressional district, will be in the city to attend the third semi-annual meeting of the district organization. A school of instruction will be held in the Commercial club rooms, Masonic building. The session will begin at 10 o'clock in the morning and will probably last throughout the day, although no doubt, time will be taken by the postal men to witness the agricultural parade.

Johnny said to his father the other day, "Father, have you ever noticed how often mother says, 'And so on, and so on?'"

"Oh, yes, Johnny," was father's reply, looking sadly at the breast of his shirt, "but it never applies to buttons, my boy."

"You seem to like his attentions. Why don't you marry him?"

"Because I like his attentions,"—He Me Notes.

POLICE DREAD PRESENT WEEK

Long Hours of Duty Necessary To Protect People.

Long hours of extra duty are anticipated by the boys of the police department during the week. The force will not be increased unless Supt. Bailey decides that there will be no other way to provide suitable protection. It is believed likely that the big crowds which will be in the city will include persons of bad reputations and the police will be on the look out. There will be a number of parades and it is upon such occasions that sneak thieves are the most active. For this reason the police will take extra precaution.

An Illustration List. What man in the history of the world whose name began with A—and after that every other letter of the alphabet in order—exercised the greatest influence upon the thought and conduct of mankind? Of course there are some letters which are not very prolific in the names of great men, but we think most of our readers will be surprised to see how many of the most illustrious names in history are included in this list, compiled by a correspondent.

Aristotle, Bacon, Confucius, Darwin, Ezra, Franklin, Goethe, Homer, Isaiah, Justinian, Kant, Luther, Mohammed, Newton, Ossian, Plato, Quintilian, Rousseau, Shakespeare, Tasso, Uland, Virgil, Washington, Xavier, Young, Zoroaster.—London Globe.

"Are you fond of entertaining callers?" "Yes," answered the lady addressed, "but few of mine are that variety."—Louisville Courier-Journal.
