

"HOSPITAL DAY" AGAIN THIS YEAR

Citizens of City Will Be Asked
To Contribute to Reid
Memorial.

PLAN WAS SUCCESSFUL.

EXPECTED DONATIONS THIS YEAR WILL BE GREATER THAN
LAST—WORK UNDER DIREC-TION OF WOMEN'S SOCIETY.

Such generous response was made by the public to the call for funds on "hospital day" of last year, that it has been decided to undertake another such day. As before, the donations will be given to the Reid Memorial hospital. Last year a neat sum was realized. There was no soliciting but the subscribers were given tags and requested to wear them, as indicative of the fact they had helped the cause along.

The plan was new last year and for that reason it is believed it will be more successful this year. The Reid Memorial hospital is the finest institution of the kind in this section of the country. Its patients come from all parts of Indiana and Ohio, and the scope of the institution has broadened rapidly within the past year. It is a magnificent hospital and a large income is necessary to keep it in operation. The city council has been accustomed to appropriate $8,000 each year for the maintenance of the institution. The large number of patients, who have received the benefits of the place as "private patients" have paid what was demanded of them, but these sources of revenue have been insufficient and the directors have been forced to obtain funds in various other ways.

The Ladies' Aid society has been one of the most valuable adjuncts and last year it was this organization that promoted the "hospital day" plan. It is expected the women will be in charge again this year. At all the leading business houses and public buildings in the city, members of the society or their friends will be posted. The size of the contribution never becomes known to the public, but everyone is asked to give what he chooses. A tag bearing an appropriate inscription is presented in return for the donation.

CURRENT BUNS.

A Delicious Bread For Luncheon or Supper.

To make currant buns mix a cake of compressed yeast with one-fourth cupful of lukewarm water and add to it a cupful of scalded milk cooled to a lukewarm temperature. Add also about a cup and a half of white flour and beat until the batter is very smooth, then cover and let stand in a warm place to become very light.

CURRENT BUNS GLAZED WITH SUGAR.

Then add half a cupful of currants, half a cupful of sugar, one beaten egg, one teaspoonful of salt and one-fourth cupful of melted shortening. Mix thoroughly, then beat in enough flour to make a soft dough. About two cupfuls will be needed. Let this stand to become light, then roll into a sheet and into rounds. Bake when about doubled in bulk from thirty to forty minutes. Stir a teaspoonful of cornstarch with cold water to a smooth liquid consistency, then pour on boiling water. Let it cook five minutes and use it to glaze the tops of the rolls. Dredge them thickly with granulated sugar and return them to the oven to glaze.

CARE OF THE EYES.

It is Bad to Read on a Railroad Train
When in Motion.

Never rub the eyes, for this practice causes inflammation of the lids, and, however beautiful the expression, if the eyes are red or without lashes they lose their charm.

When a foreign substance gets into the eye do not irritate it by trying to force it out. Keep the eye closed for a few moments or until the object is removed by the tears which will flow. If, however, it is impossible to remove the substance yourself, have some one who will perform the operation carefully remove it for you.

If the wind has reddened the eyelids, wash them in slightly salted warm water, using common salt.

However strong the eyes may be, give them a little rest after a few hours' continuous use. Never force them to gaze at minute objects when they are weak. Neither write, read nor sew when the light is dim. During all continuous work close the eyes from time to time at intervals.

Great care should be taken that the light should fall from the side, not full in the face. When working it should be allowed to fall upon the left side.

It is bad to read on a railway train, in a carriage, while walking, while lying down or while physically tired.

Beds should not be so placed that the eyes receive the full rays of sunlight on awakening. The light should fall from the side.

A very good wash that will strengthen the sight and restore its powers is made of one pint of soft water, a pinch of common salt and a spoonful of brandy.

FAMOUS ACTRESS BITTERLY ARRAYS THE AMERICAN SOCIETY WOMAN.

ETHEL BARRYMORE.

Ethel Barrymore, the actress, in an interview at St. Louis, declared that elite society in this country, especially in New York, was composed of the most useless, brainless, selfish and purposeless order of beings in the world.

Last evening Mr. Carr was entertained to dinner by Dr. J. M. Wampler at his home, 100 North Seventh street.

The girl who has time for a little fancy work at home, either making things for herself or preparing for Christmas, should start work on the butterfly handkerchiefs.

They have been sold in the shops for some time, imported from Paris and costing quite a bit of money.

A girl can make them at home if she is clever with her needle. If she has been doing any of the butterfly applique in underwear, which has been the fashion this season, she will be expert enough to start on this other work.

The foundation is a sheer fine handkerchief with a tiny hemstitched edge. Either one or several butterflies are cut from sheer colored silk mull and applied to the linen.

They can be all of one color or in different colors and embroidered at the edges and up the center to give the coloring of a real butterfly.

Some girls may prefer just the one butterfly with widespread wings in a faint color, such as lavender, pink, yellow or blue.

If she makes a set for a bridal or a Christmas gift it will be pretty to put a different colored one on each handkerchief.

One of the most elaborate church weddings of the season took place at St. Mary's church at 8:30 o'clock Thursday morning, when the Rev. Father Mulcahy united in marriage Miss Flora McDonald of this city and Thomas Lavelle of Indianapolis. The young couple will live on North Capitol avenue, Indianapolis. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ed. McDonald and Thomas McDonald of Cincinnati, Dr. and Mrs. Brennan, Misses Helen and Florence Brennan and Harry Drew of Indianapolis, and Miss Hannah Quinn of Richmond, Ind.—Indianapolis Star.

Miss May Barr and Mr. Leslie Meyer of Indianapolis will come Thursday to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Bartel, 36 South Eighteenth street. They will attend the military ball given in honor of the Tenth Regiment encampment, Thursday evening at the coliseum.

The following clipping with a picture of Miss Electa Henley a Richmond girl appeared in yesterday's Indianapolis Star:

Miss Electa Henley, one of the best known young women of Richmond, will outstrip her sullen sister every time.

was recently chosen instructor in domestic science at Franklin college and reports from there indicate she is making a success of her work. Miss Henley is a graduate of Lenox Hall school, St. Louis, which makes a specialty of instruction in domestic science. She is also a graduate of the Richmond high school, where her work was of a very high order, and was for a short time a student in Earlham college.

The Domestic Science society will not meet in Morrison-Reeves library as previously announced, but will hold a session Wednesday afternoon in the lecture room of the Reid-Memorial church. All members are urged to attend.

For Blondes and Brunettes.

It is the easiest thing in the world to fall into the mistake of thinking that any fad is becoming to any woman. Nothing should be selected with greater care than the fur. For instance, a shallow-skinned, dark eyed, dark haired woman will look the very worst in seal skin. She should wear the lighter shades of mink, red fox, yellow fox and silver grey fox.

Red haired blondes can wear seal skin, but the genuine brunette with dark hair and eyes may wear gourea and light brown shades, such as mink, martin, brown or yellow fox and chinchilla.

Soft suede kid belts will probably never go out of style and those for early fall can be found in a large variety of shades. Among them are browns, from chamols color to golden, plenty of blues, red to crimson, greens in all tones and many in heliotrope.

The Correct Gloves.

Opera length silk gloves will again be largely worn this winter with short sleeved frocks for every occasion save the most formal. Many of the afternoon costumes are shown with the long light fitting sleeves. Silk gloves are very popular also for wear when a muff is carried. They do not sweat the hand as a kid glove does.

Marie Weldon, fashion editor of the New York Times has this to say about the glove: "For evening wear there is no doubt that the elbow and short sleeves will prevail, as usual, and therefore long gloves of 12, 16 or 20 button length will be worn. In purchasing silk gloves for evening wear, the long lengths should always be selected, as when properly worn, they go with the elbow short sleeve."

Buckles for hat trimming are only a little smaller than the gigantic roses which are now so popular. Some measure fully nine inches on each side. The roses are in dark tones shading through deep rich greens, reds etc.

The Laundry Question.

New York women, and in fact, women all over the country, are buying silk underwear in self-defense against the laundries which ruin dainty muslin lingerie. The advantage of the Italian silk is, that it may be washed at home, and in those houses where no laundress is employed, the usual maid of all work can easily wash the silk underwear with success.

The laundries in many big cities have such a press of work, that they cannot give the fine pieces any care in handling. The women are retaliating by equipping themselves with the silk. This seems at first an expensive method of self-defense, but it is not when the extraordinary strength and wearing qualities of the Italian silk are considered.

One of the most recent novelties in jewelry is the heavy sterling silver hat pin of Japanese hand-work. Japanese designs are seen universally in much of the popular jewelry.

A Deadener of Pain.

Iodine is an excellent deadener of pain. In cases of toothache, painting the gum, taking care not to swallow any of it, because it is poison, will frequently relieve pain. It will ease the ache of rheumatism if applied to the sore joint and is recommended for use on a painful corn.

Menthol cologne is one of the best simple applications for a headache. The combination of burning sensation and coolness that it gives the skin is very refreshing. An eye wash of boric acid and camphor that is put up by all druggists should be in every traveling outfit, for the eyes suffer great strain from light and heat and need special attention. A few drops of this compound dropped on the eyeballs after a journey or at night will have a most soothing effect and may even prevent a headache.

Soap Economy.

Bits of soap should never be flung away, but placed in a glass or china jar until a number have been accumulated. They should then be dissolved in boiling water into soap jelly, which may be used for various purposes. That made from the jar reserved for toilet soaps may be used for the bath, and that from kitchen and laundry soaps may be used for laundry purposes. Care should be taken to see that every bit of soap added to the jar is clean. It is by no means an uncommon thing to see soap looking anything but attractively clean.

Women Out of Business World.

Hamilton Mable is reported as having said that he did not think the present industrial age, in which women take part in the work of the world, will last a century. Nor did he think it would be a good thing. He did not tell what he thought would replace this industrial age nor what is to recompense the women for the pleasures they will miss when they shall have some one else to work for them.

The Smile Wins.

Don't expect life to smile at you unless you smile first. Don't expect to have a friendly hand extended to you unless you look as if the hand would be appreciated. The girl with a smile will outstrip her sullen sister every time.

MURDERER PATRICK APPEALS CASE.

Albert T. Patrick, of New York, in Sing Sing Prison for life, on a commuted death sentence for the murder of William M. Rice, has appealed his case to the U. S. Supreme Court.

CASTRO OBSTINATE

Refuses to Consider Holland's
Second Note and Clouds
Thicken.

DUTCH MUCH CONCERNED.

Willemstad, Oct. 5.—Advices received here by steamer state that at a meeting Oct. 1, the Venezuelan Senate and President Castro refused to consider Holland's second note with regard to the controversy between the two countries.

According to the same advices, President Castro, who had been seriously ill but was improving, suffered a relapse and was again reported to be very ill.

Some of the Venezuelan ports are making preparations, fearing a blockade by Holland.

The Hague, Oct. 5.—Some concern exists here over the report that President Castro has rejected the second note of the Dutch Government. The majority of the people, however, and the government still trust the Venezuelan president will understand his own interests sufficiently to revoke his decree of May 14, which virtually put an end to Curacao's commerce.

Many are opposed to belligerent action on the part of Holland, in the wish that the Hague, as the seat of the peace conference, be not connected in any way with the idea of war, but the government will be prepared for any eventualities.

The cruiser Utrecht has been placed under orders to proceed to the East Indies, but via the West Indies. When it arrives in West Indian waters there will be four warships under the Dutch flag at that station.

Her Superb Disdain.

But there was one young woman in the box party at the theater who took no part in the noisy clatter and giggle.

With her gaze fixed upon the stage she watched the progress of the play indifferent to the gayety around her except that her delicate, aristocratic finely chiseled features bore a look of weariness and a scornful smile curving her lips.

At last, however, she turned her head slowly and looked at the other members of the party.

Then she spoke to the elderly matron sitting by her side.

"That girl in the blue kimono," she said, "thinks she's the whole custard!"

—Chicago Tribune.

Few words have so remarkable a history as the word "bankrupt." The money lenders of Genoa, Venice and Florence had benches or stalls in the bourse, or exchange, in former times. At these benches they conducted the business. When any of them became insolvent his bench or bank was broken, because he had no further to offer, and the name banco rotto, or broken bench, was given to him. When the word first came into use in England it was nearer the Italian than now is, being "bankerout" instead of bankrupt.—Epworth Herald.

Little Johnny—Mamma, let's play I am your mother and you are my little boy.

Mamma—Very well, dear. How shall we play it?

Little Johnny—I'll tell you. You start to do something, and I'll tell you not to.

Miss Telleum (about to sing)—What is your favorite air, professor?

Professor—Fresh air and plenty of it! Good morning!

BRYAN GETS WORD OF ROOSEVELT MOVE

Further Declared That President Intends to Take To Stump.

BRYAN MAKES NO COMMENT

RUMORS IN WASHINGTON STATE
NEXT TWO WEEKS WILL DETERMINE WHETHER CHIEF EXECUTIVE MAKES TRIP.

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 5.—That President Roosevelt fully intends to take the stump in favor of the candidacy of Mr. Taft was the information received at Fairview, Sunday, from the East.

It was said that the advices came from persons upon whom reliance could be placed, and were to the effect that Mr. Roosevelt is planning to make at least six speeches in the course of a trip from the Atlantic to the Pacific, the concluding speech to be delivered at San Francisco, with numerous short speeches enroute.

Mr. Bryan, however, absolutely refused to make any comment upon the subject.

In order to devote still further attention to the state of Iowa, the Democratic candidate last night announced a change in his plans in connection with his trip to Chicago, where, on the night of the 7th instant, he is to meet Mr. Taft at a banquet.

Instead of leaving here Tuesday afternoon and going direct to Chicago, as had been arranged, Mr. Bryan will start tonight for Des Moines, from which place he will on Tuesday, proceed to Perry, Tamma and Cedar Rapids and deliver set speeches, while from the rear platform of the train en route he probably will make several short talks. The journey to Chicago will be made Tuesday night.

WASHINGTON THINKS SO.

President Will Get In To-Prevent Loss
Of States.

Washington, Oct. 5.—An official announcement in the near future that President Roosevelt had decided to take the stump in the interest of Judge Taft should occasion no surprise. The President undoubtedly will get into the thick of the campaign if he concludes that such a course will prevent the loss of states needed to insure Mr. Taft's election.

If trustworthy reports within the next 10 days or two weeks foreshadow possible losses to the Republican national or state tickets, or both, Mr. Roosevelt will consider it his duty to the party to leave Washington for a fortnight to speak in favor of the election of Taft and a Republican House of Representatives.
