

LONGWORTH DENIES HE MADE STATEMENT

Claims He Never Suggested
That Roosevelt Serve
After Taft.

CALLS IT A CAMPAIGN LIE.

NEWSPAPER MEN WHO REPORTED
ED ROCK ISLAND, ILL., SPEECH
SAY THAT PRESIDENT'S SON-IN-LAW DID MAKE REMARK.

Cincinnati, Oct. 6.—Congressman Nicholas Longworth has termed the story that in a speech at Rock Island, Ill., he proposed his father-in-law, President Roosevelt, should again be a candidate after W. H. Taft had served two terms, as a campaign lie. Mr. Longworth, who is en route East, where he will continue his speaking tour, said:

"The facts of the case were these: At a meeting at Rock Island I was introduced by the chairman of the meeting as a son of Ohio, and since Ohio seemed to be determined to break the record as a mother of presidents, he said in a jocular vein, that I probably would be a candidate some time myself. 'Relying in a similar vein, I said I was not there as a candidate for any office. I was there to speak of the present and to advocate the election of Judge Taft as president, not in the future, but now. I said that I believed confidently that Judge Taft would be elected president and that his administration would be so wise and beneficial to the people that they would demand that he serve them another term. 'After that,' I said, 'Ohio would not be selfish and would yield to some other state—perhaps New York—to nominate the next president.'

FILE AFFIDAVITS.

Newspaper Men Say Longworth Did Make Statement.

Rock Island, Ill., Oct. 6.—Congressman Nicholas Longworth's denial at Cincinnati of his presidential succession speech made in Rock Island last Friday created considerable comment among republicans as well as democrats. He was heard by 5,000 persons and there was no misunderstanding as to just what he said:

Two local newspaper men, one of whom reported the speech for a democratic paper and one for a republican paper, made affidavits which quote Mr. Longworth, after being introduced by Congressman McKinley, chairman of the meeting, as another Ohioan who was headed toward the white house, as saying:

"I must thank the chairman for launching my candidacy for an office for which I had not 'expired.' My chances for that office have 'aspired.' I had thought a good ticket for the republicans for the next eight years would be W. H. Taft of Ohio and for the next eight years after that Theodore Roosevelt of New York. Then for eight years after that my friend here, James S. Sherman, also of New York. After that—but modesty prevents me making any further suggestion."

That Settles It."

Many a housewife has made that remark after using her first cake of Easy Task laundry soap. Easy Task is white. It is pure. It dissolves dirt and grease almost instantly. These qualities will convert almost any woman. It will convert you if you will give it a chance. A five cent cake will prove it.

Salesman: "Mr. Osborn, did it ever occur to you how seldom your clerks introduce goods of merit and profit to customers?" "Yes, I am aware of it, Mr. Salesman, your remark is too true, I am constantly instructing them on that particular point. Only this morning a lady came in to make her weekly purchases of groceries and among the articles she wanted was a cheap soap. I knew Easy Task was the highest grade goods of its kind on my shelf and sold her a quarter's worth. She will buy it again, everyone does who uses it once."
