

INDIANA TOWNS DESIRE TAFT

Chairman of Speakers' Bureau Has Busy Time Answering Inquiries.

WATSON ALSO POPULAR.

FROM ALL OVER THE STATE COMES REQUESTS FOR SPEECHES BY REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 9.—So great is the demand for Taft and Watson throughout the state, especially since the announcement that the Republican presidential nominee will visit Indiana Oct. 22, 23 and 24, that Will H. Hays, chairman of the Republican state speakers' bureau is forced to have his meals brought to his desk in order that he may gain time to take care of the requests for these candidates that come in by telephone, telegraph and by mail. Scores of letters, telephone calls and telegrams are being received daily by the bureau. Watson has been in great demand all through the campaign, but with the announcement that Taft is to spend three days in Indiana, Hays's troubles have doubled.

"I never saw the like," said Hays yesterday, as he sat at his desk before a tray of steaming dishes. "I—"

"Ting-a-ling! Ting-a-ling!" rang a bell at his elbow.

"There it goes again," said Hays, dropping a fork and reaching for one of the four telephones at his side of the desk.

"Hello! This is Will Hays. Who?—Taft? I can't say, but I will put you down. I haven't his itinerary worked out yet—"

The chairman of the bureau reached again for his fork with one hand and picked up a letter with the other. He dictated to a stenographer a few words in reply to a request for Watson. Then he talked as he ate.

"As I was saying a while ago," he resumed, "I never saw the like of this in my life. I knew with the announcement that Taft is to visit Indiana my troubles would begin, but this is far beyond my expectations. At this rate I will be gray haired or crazy by Nov. 3. Requests for Watson are—"

"Ting-a-ling! I!"

"Hello! Yes this is the Republican speakers' bureau—Wait until I look at the books—Hello! I don't see how I can send Watson there that day. He is booked for four speeches in another part of the state. Sorry that I can't send him on the date you mention, but possibly I can let you have him later."

Many Demands for Watson.

"As I was saying," resumed Hays, turning again to his desk, "requests for Watson are coming in from every nook and corner of the commonwealth. We received twenty-seven letters this morning from individuals who are not identified with any of the committees, but who want Watson. The calls for Taft have kept me with my ears glued to telephones all day. It is the people who want Watson as well as Taft, and I think we may be able to take care of most of the requests. Watson is wanted in every town, in every county and wanted again at every place he has been. The people are driving us crazy. We had fifty letters yesterday from people who want Watson to speak in their localities. It shows that the people are interested. It is all one man can do to answer the telephones, let alone look after the letters and telegrams."

"Today we have had over 150 telegrams from people who want Taft or Watson. Requests have come from Russellville, Milltown, Young America, Burlington, Vevay, Rising Sun, Patriot, Orland, Metz, Pleasant Lake, Lowell, Orchard Grove, Wheatfield, Tell City, New Harmony, Lake and dozens of other places—many of them places that are not situated on railroad lines. "The demand comes from the people—merchants, preachers, lawyers, farmers, mechanics and miners as well as politicians."

"Taft is wanted in every town along the railroad lines. We have literally been swamped with requests for Taft."

Will Tull, one of the members of the "Old Shady" Quartet, which is touring the state with Watson and which toured the state with Governor Hanft four years ago, while in the city yesterday, said that the size of the crowds which greet Watson is double those of four years ago.

"The crowds at the republican meetings," said Tull, "are bigger than any that the republicans have had since Benjamin Harrison's campaign."

FARMERS SHOULD RUN FOR OFFICE

Urged to Do So at Society of Equity Convention.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 9.—J. W. Long, of Chippewa Falls, addressed the American Society of Equity convention, urging the farmers to run for congress. He gave some statistics of the personnel of the administrative and deliberative bodies in Washington, and informed his co-workers that they were mostly made up of lawyers and bankers. To offset this state of affairs he asked the farmers to become candidates for the office.

The society went on record as favoring an amendment to the Sherman anti-trust act excluding the American Society of Equity from its provisions. An outspoken support of the "night riders" of Kentucky by Delegate J. H. Burney, of Greenville, Ky., and the adoption of the report of the committee on minimum prices were other features of the day.

NATURE TELLS YOU.

As Many a Richmond Reader Knows Too Well.

When the kidneys are sick, Nature tells you all about it. The urine is nature's calendar. Infrequent or too frequent action; Any urinary trouble tells of kidney ills.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure all kidney ills.

Richmond people testify to this. William W. Fry, of 830 North Twelfth Street, Richmond, Ind., says: "For a long time I was miserable on account of kidney trouble. The kidney secretions were irregular in action and contained a sediment resembling brick dust. Many nights I had to get out of bed five times to pass the kidney secretions. My back ached intensely and there was a pain across the kidney region. While looking about last winter for a cure for my trouble I was advised to use Doan's Kidney Pills. I got a box and began using them as directed. Being promptly relieved I continued with the remedy until kidney disease left me. I give Doan's Kidney Pills, which can be procured at A. G. Practically the entire interest of the day centered about the water display on the Delaware, where, during the afternoon, there was a parade of nearly 200 vessels of every class of craft. The ships were headed by Rear Admiral Adolph Marx of the navy on board the dispatch boat Dolphin.

Are Men Keener Than Women?

Women are more alert than men in all instances, but one—adopting labor-saving devices. From force of habit women persist in using cheap, unsanitary, laundry soap because they have always used it. Men instantly adopt any new idea to save hard work. For twenty-five years the Hewitt Bros. Soap Co. have guaranteed Easy Task soap which is white, to do the family washing with half the labor and without boiling. It will wash laces, linens, flannels—anything. 5c a cake. Now, madam, will you try it?

VISIT OF FLEET MAY HEAL BREACH

Both Japanese and American People Look Forward To Visit.

AT CRITICAL STAGE OF RELATIONS BOTH COUNTRIES DO HOMAGE TO ONE ANOTHER AVOIDING CHANCES OF WAR.

Washington, Oct. 9.—When Admiral Evans started to the Pacific with his fleet of battleships half the American people and a majority of the rest of the world were convinced that the voyage was meant to menace Japan. Today we get word that the officers and men of the fleet are looking forward to having the "time of their lives" when they visit the Japanese ports. From Tokyo comes report that the Japanese government and people are planning to give them the most elaborate and enthusiastic welcome yet accorded the American fighting men. No fear is expressed at Tokyo that an untoward incident will mar the pleasure of the fleet's stay.

Some of the governments of Europe which were only too eager to stir up strife between Japan and the United States now have a peck of trouble of their own and they may find themselves participants in, instead of interested onlookers at war.

There is no reasonable doubt that when this government ordered the battleships to the Pacific there was fear their services might be needed against Japan. The Washington government didn't want war, but proposed to be prepared for it. It had been led to believe that Japan only awaited a favorable opportunity to begin hostilities. It now would appear that Japan was in much the same predicament. It didn't want war was the only alternative. To be more explicit, some outsider had been secretly meddling in the relations between Japan and the United States. It is a triumphant demonstration of the good sense of the American State Department and the Tokyo government that the critical state of their relations has been tied over.

Prominent officials of the government do not conceal the fact that they have great hopes of results from the visit of the battleships to Japan. They believe it will not only tend to promote better feeling between the peoples, but that it also will give Japan an increased respect for America's fighting strength.

RESTORATIVE TREATMENT FOR NERVOUS MEN

Coming from a source of unquestioned authority on the ailments of men it is presumed to be infallible, while the profession generally endorse the ingredients and prescribe them in many different forms of various diseases. The following formula is highly efficient in quickly restoring in nervous exhaustion, melancholia, anxiety, timidity in venturing, dizziness, heart palpitation, trembling limbs, insomnia, thinness, cold extremities, tired-all-in feeling and general inability to do those natural and rational acts upon which depends a man's success and happiness in social and every-day life.

The instructions for mixing at home secretly so that no embarrassment may be felt, are as follows: First get three ounces of syrup sarsaparilla compound and one ounce compound fluid balmwort; mix and let stand two hours. Then add one ounce compound essence cardiol and one ounce tincture cadomene, and mix all together. The directions are to take one teaspoonful after each meal and one when retiring, until bound health and full strength are restored. Even a few weeks will witness most wonderful results.

Astonishing nervous force and equilibrium follow the treatment, no matter how serious the case. This contains no opiates whatever and may also be used by women who suffer with their nerves with absolute certainty of prompt and lasting benefits.

Mr. Taft will speak in Youngstown, O. the night before election, and Mr. Hitchcock is endeavoring to arrange to have the candidate appear in Chicago on Oct. 24 before his swing east.

STABLE WINDOWS.

They Should Be High Enough to Prevent Drafts From Entering.

The absurd little window in front of each horse in the old fashioned farm stable is a positive abomination. True, it allows the festive hen to enter and deposit her fruit of industry and at the same time foul the manger and contribute lice to the other miseries of the ill treated horse, but the worst fault of the window is that when the wind happens to blow cold and raw, as it is apt to do during the sudden changes of temperature in summer and fall, the horse is exposed to a most injurious draft striking directly upon the chest, where it will be apt to do the most harm. The eyes, too, may suffer from such a draft, and taken any way one likes there is neither use nor sense in such a contrivance.

The stable should have the main windows back of the horse, and by preference toward the south, says a writer in Rural New Yorker. The windows at the front of the stable should be above the heads of the horses and should be protected by wooden slats or wire grating so that when they happen to be covered with hoarfrost in winter the glasses will not be broken by the horses licking them. It is best to have the windows hinged at the bottom so that they may be opened inward in such a way that the wind striking against them from outside will be directed upward against the ceiling instead of downward upon the horses.

To prevent the side draft boards should be so arranged from the wall that when the window is opened they will fit to the frame of the window and prevent the air from entering except in the upward direction mentioned. Such a window is made or hinged in the opposite way from that usually adopted for the old fashioned transom windows above doors. These opened so as to allow the air to be directed downward. The plan we suggest causes the air to be directed upward and so that the horse is protected against drafts.

There is no way of preventing an injurious draft at times if the window is in front of the horse, on a level with its chest, according to the old fashioned way we have here decreed.

Cost of Cow Testing.

Some attempt to reach the cost of systematic cow testing has been made at the Wisconsin experiment station, which institution is doing the testing for a number of herds at cost. As a result of its experience the station charges $6 for a one day test, $8 for a two day test, $25 for a seven day test and $80 for a thirty day test. These figures cover all cost to the owner and result in a complete official report suitable for a record of capacity, including all particulars.

In making a sharp turn the rear end of a street car struck an express wagon laden with jugs of whisky. Nearly all the jugs were precipitated to the pavement, with the natural disastrous result. The driver of the wagon alighted and, pointing at the pile of demolished earthenware, said to a bystander, "That's hades, ain't it?"

The spectator, who happened to be a minister, replied, "Well, my friend, I don't know that I would say that, but it's at least the abode of departed spirits."—Lippincott's Magazine.

An Indigestion Remedy Free

Many people who are otherwise healthy suffer from indigestion, or dyspepsia. When you consider that the stomach and allied digestive organs are the most important organs of the body, it would seem that a disorder there is to be taken very seriously.

Dyspepsia cannot eat the things they like, food sours in the stomach; then chronic constipation begins, or, as is often the case, you have been constipated all along, and the stools are forced and irregular.

But there is no use letting indigestion go until it becomes chronic and undermines your health. It is good advice to suggest to you that you go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, the wonderful cure for stomach, liver and bowels. That is what C. Fowler, of Carson City, Mich. did and is well today. Others who did the same and are cured are J. A. Fortune, of Grand Junction, Tenn.; B. F. Thompson, of Sheboygan, Wis., who ac-tually considers that it saved his life. You can obtain a 50-cent or $1 bottle of the druggist, and taken according to directions, it will probably be all you need. It is a liquid, acts gently, never grips, and besides the laxative effect, contains exceptional tonic properties which tone the stomach, and that is what is especially needed.

All sufferers from indigestion who have never used Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin are the very remedy they needed by writing the doctor. It will be sent direct to your home without any medical advice, write to the doctor, and he will answer you fully. There is no charge for this service.
