

TERRIBLE TURK BEATS AUSTRIAN

Turk Wins Two Falls in Succession in an Easy Manner.

GETS TWO CHALLENGES.

BUSCH AND LASALLE, THE LATTER A FRENCH CANADIAN, AT RINGSIDE—LASALLE TAKEN FOR NEXT WEEK.

Having disposed of a German wrestler, Monogoff, the Terrible Turk, last evening at the New Phillips defeated an Austrian wrestler champion. If there are any other national champions from Iceland to Fiji, hanging around this section of the globe pining away for battle Mr. Monogoff stands ready to accommodate them. Next Thursday night at the coliseum the Turk will meet Joe LaSalle, a French Canadian heavyweight.

Delawuck, who was exterminated last evening by the Turk, is called the "mad wrestler of Austria." It is probable that he was quite peeved over the easy manner in which big Bob disposed of him. Delawuck went to the mat the first time after nineteen and a half minutes of bear hugging. The Turk picked him up and spun him about in the air a la John Flanagan throwing the sixteen-pound hammer. When the Turk dropped him to the mat there was no question but that he had been thrown.

It took sixteen minutes for the Turk to put the Austrian in the clear a second time. This was accomplished by first tying Delawuck in a bow knot then turning a cart wheel with him. The name of this hold is not to be found in Webster's dictionary, so the reader will have to do without it.

After the Austrian had unraveled himself and retired from the limelight, Busch and La Salle climbed into the ring and told the fans they were not afraid of Monogoff and would like to quarrel with him next week. Busch wanted to meet him Greco-Roman. La Salle states it makes no difference to him how the match is arranged.

BASKET BALL TEAM.

Greensfork Organizes and Meets Webster Tonight.

Greensfork, Ind., Oct. 10.—A High School basketball team has been organized here. The line up is as follows: Walter Cloud, center; Herman Foster and Dallas Lunday, forward; Clemens Stinchcomb and Lester Nicholson, guards; Clinton Crull, extra. The team will play the Webster team here tonight in Reinheimer's hall. The proceeds will go toward the purchase of a piano for the school building.

HIGH SCHOOL IS PLAYING HAMILTON

Richmond Boys Appear in New Uniforms.

This afternoon the Richmond and Hamilton high school teams are giving battle to each other on the public school play grounds. Both teams are quite evenly matched. Coach Horton has the local team in fine fettle while it is stated the Hamilton bunch is one of the fastest teams in this section of the country.

The local bunch made its first appearance in their new uniforms and looked quite nobby. The trousers are of khaki. Grey jerseys, the sleeves striped with crimson, and stockings of like pattern, complete the make up. This is the first time in the history of high school athletics that one of its athletic teams has taken the field looking otherwise than a collection of tramps.

Foley's Honey and Tar cures coughs quickly, strengthens the lungs and expels colds. Get the genuine in a yellow package. A. G. Luken & Co.

A Double Handed Bull. On the occasion of a public reception at Napier, Australia, the school children of the town, after being duly complimented by his excellency from County Tyrone on the hearty manner in which they had rendered the national anthem, were solemnly assured that if they put their shoulders to the wheel they would be sure to reach the top of the tree, upon which a complacent turned to me and said, "Sure, it was an axletree, be meant, bedad!"—London Spectator.

Equally Cutting. "Your voice," said the commanding officer, "is decidedly rasping." "Yes, sir," said the subordinate, touching his hat. "I have been out roughing it with a lot of soldiers all morning."—Chicago Tribune.

Why He Loved Spain. Gioacchino Rossini, who was a great fester, was once seen embracing a Spaniard with great effusion. Asked the reason, he replied, "Because without Spain we would be the last nation."

The Motive. Lawyer—What took you to the scene of the murder? Witness—The car, sir. Lawyer—No, no! What motive was it? Witness—The locomotive. Lawyer—You may go.—Pathfinder.

CONDELLA: Gold Medal Flour is cheapest—It's best, too—more value to the sack. BUREAU.

THREE OF AMERICA'S MOST DARING AUTO DRIVERS.

Three of the most daring auto drivers of high power cars in races today. The large picture is that of Lewis Strang, while E. H. Parker is shown in the lower left hand corner, and George Robertson on the right.

PURDUE EXPECTED TO RUN BIG SCORE

Quaker Lads Clash With Lafayette Team This Afternoon.

VAIL'S MEN LACK GINGER.

PLAY IS SLUGGISH AND COACH VAIL WILL ATTEMPT TO WHIP TEAM AROUND IN THE NEXT TWO WEEKS.

Old Earlham is decidedly pessimistic over the outcome of the Earlham-Purdue game this afternoon at Lafayette.

Coach Vail appears to have the material this year, but the men have no ginger about their play and their work, as shown in the Antioch game last Saturday, is decidedly sluggish. Probably before the next two weeks Vail will have the team whipped into line but as it now is it is impossible.

No doubt Purdue will run up a big score on the Quakers this afternoon. If Earlham holds the Boilermakers to thirty points or less, all local football fans will be greatly surprised.

In the Earlham squad that left this morning for Lafayette were Francis, Waltham, Swain, Stanley, Lindley, Johnson, Gaston, Beebe, Hill, J. Jones, Bruner, Harrell, Beachler, White, Hines and Denham.

COFFIN HEAD OF TENNIS ASSOCIATION

Earlham Organization Perfected Yesterday.

At a meeting of the Earlham tennis association yesterday afternoon Dr. Herschel Coffin was elected president. Miss Ethel Ralston, secretary and Wendell Pitts, treasurer. There were some 65 or 70 students of the college in attendance. The prospects are exceedingly bright for a creditable showing next season.

"Mr. Huggard caught me in the dark hall last evening and kissed me," said Miss Passay, with affected indignation. "Oh!" remarked Miss Pepprey, "I wouldn't blame him if I were you." "I wouldn't blame him?" "I say if I were you."—Catholic Standard.

JOANNA: Gold Medal Flour is real economy. FREDERICK.

"FIGHTING HARP" IS MAKING GOOD.

WILLIE FITZGERALD. Fitzgerald is the Brooklyn boxer, who is known as "The Fighting Harp" who has been fighting brisk battles in the East and making good.

World Series Schedule.

TODAY—CHICAGO AT DETROIT
CHICAGO AT DETROIT
SUNDAY, OCTOBER 11—
DETROIT AT CHICAGO
MONDAY, OCTOBER 12—
DETROIT AT CHICAGO
TUESDAY, OCTOBER 13—
CHICAGO AT DETROIT
WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 14—
CHICAGO AT DETROIT
THURSDAY, OCTOBER 15—
DETROIT AT CHICAGO

If seventh game is necessary, place to be announced by commission on October 15. Umpires for the series: O'Day and Klem, of the National League; Sheridan and Connolly, of the American League. Games called at 2 p. m.

FOOTBALL GAMES SCHEDULED TODAY.

Butler and Winona Techs at Irvington.

Rose Poly and Vanderbilt at Nashville.

Earlham and Purdue at Lafayette. Chicago and Indiana at Chicago.

Franklin and Notre Dame at Notre Dame.

Michigan and Michigan "Aggies" at Lansing.

Knox and James Millikin at Galesburg.

Iowa and Coe at Iowa City. Michigan State Normal and Flint Mutes at Ypsilanti.

Cornell College and St. Joseph at Mt. Vernon, Ia.

Illinois and Marquette at Urbana. Hillsdale and Olivet at Hillsdale.

St. Louis University and Cape Girardeau at St. Louis.

Northwestern and Alumni at Evanston.

Wisconsin and Lawrence University at Madison.

Lake Forest and Beloit at Beloit.

Minnesota and Ames at Minneapolis.

Nebraska and Grinnell at Lincoln.

LIGHTNING AND SHIPS.

Vessels Are Struck More Frequently Than Is Supposed.

In spite of the popular impression to the contrary, ships remote from the land are seldom damaged by lightning, although some of the most awe-inspiring displays of atmospheric electricity are frequently witnessed by those on board of them.

Standing rigging and even parts of the running gear are now made of steel wire, and this substitute for the old fashioned hemp serves the purpose of lightning conductor when the ship is not fitted with such an aid to safety. The electric current is conveyed down the wire rigging and reaches the sea through the vessel's metal hull. Damage occurs only if the current be interrupted on its way down. In a comparatively large proportion of instances the fore royal truck is struck by lightning, that of the main less frequently and the mizen least of the three.

Very serious casualties under this head occurred to warships and merchant vessels in the days of wooden hulls and hempen rigging. In July, 1802, as thirteen sailing vessels of the East India company were trying to round the cape in the vicinity of Algoa bay, homeward bound, two of them, the Britannia and the Bombay Castle, were struck by lightning. The foremast of each was soon enveloped in flames, and the masts had to be cut away in order to save the ships and their combustible cargoes. A heavy gale was blowing the night was dark, and the other ships of the fleet, which were hove to at the time, were witnesses of this thrilling incident.

Many vessels are now fitted with lightning conductors of approved types, lest the wire rigging should fail to carry off the electric current. In May, 1896, shortly after a severe thunderstorm, accompanied by lightning and rain, in 3 degrees south, 87 degrees east, the P. and O. steamship Victoria had a sudden increase of deviation amounting to 6 degrees in both the standard and the wheelhouse compasses, and later it was discovered that the lightning conductor on the fore had fused. The ship must have been struck by lightning during the storm.—Knowledge Magazine.

THE THEATER

"Ragged Robin" a Success.

"Ragged Robin" is a one-man show, but when that one man is Chauncey Olcott, one is all that is needed. Of course there has to be at least one woman to make the plot go through, but the other characters practically are supernumeraries as far as the limelight is concerned. The delightful play was presented at the Gennett theater last evening to an audience that appreciated the work of the star and applauded both his dramatic efforts and vocal work alike.

Olcott sang a number of new songs and was generous with his encores. He was anxious to please and the audience was anxious to please him in return. But there is this about an Olcott production. The music interspersed throughout the piece lessens the interest in the play and makes the dramatic situation less intense. After a somewhat melodramatic utterance in which the audience's passion is aroused by the actor, he breaks away suddenly and with a bow sings a rollicking love melody.

Olcott is supported by just as able a cast this season as a one-man production dare carry to prevent dimming the brilliancy of the star. Miss Florence Lester as Margaret portrays the character splendidly. Jerome Edwards makes a strong Martin and Andrew Gratton is typified in a competent manner by Mark Price. The life of the play is provided by Charles McCarthy as Lanty Lanigan. The scenic effects are excellent. They are especially fine in the representation of the Grattan garden and the great pest bog scene.

While the fairy element is strong in the story of "Ragged Robin," it is purely incidental. The story in itself is of powerful human interest and rests on the loves of Robert Harcourt and Margaret Gratton. Robert, known to the country-side as Ragged Robin, has been driven from home and disinherited by his father, through the machinations of a foster brother, Martin Darcy. He becomes a minstrel, well come everywhere for his gift of song. In his wanderings he comes to Inishannon and meets pretty Margaret, with whom the fairies are determined to unite him. Under the spell of the well fairy they are drawn closer together to the jealous rage of Darcy, who is about to marry her through her father's coercion. Robin is driven from the house into the world again, and the fairies show their anger by sending a Gregor in 1870. So rosy were his chances that odds of 9 to 4 were laid on him to an enormous amount, and the money was considered as good as won. To the consternation, however, of his backers, he seemed unable to move freely in the race and finished a bad fourth behind horses who were not in the same century with him.

There was no doubt whatever that Macgregor had been drugged, but who the rascal was who did the dastardly trick is as much a mystery today as it was at the time.

It is of this race that the following remarkable story is told: During the night before the race a jockey called, Swift saw the finish of the Derby in a dream. He saw Kingcraft, which he recognized, pass the post a winner by a length and a half, followed by a dark brown horse which he could not identify and with Macgregor, the favorite, a bad fourth. In spite of the jeering of his friends, to whom he told the story, he backed Kingcraft for every sovereign he could raise, and, to his delight as to the disgust of the scoffers, he saw his dream exactly reproduced—the favorite badly beaten and the despised Kingcraft winning a small fortune for him.

Even more remarkable is a story of that great Derby race of 1862, won by the despised outsider Caractacus, ridden by Parsons, the stable lad. Although Caractacus was so badly thought of that Jim Gower, point plunk refused to ride him and odds of 40 to 1 were freely offered against him, a tipster gave him as a certain winner on the strength of a dream in which his blind daughter had seen the horse win "with a little boy on his back as pale as death." How vividly accurate was this dream forecast was admitted by all who saw the finish of that sensational race.—London Tit-Bits.

A Magnifying Pinhole. Obtain a piece of blackened card and make a hole in it with a needle; then place a very small object—say, for instance, a tiny insect—on the end of a pin or gum to a strip of glass and view this object through the needle hole in the card at about an inch from it. The insect will appear quite distinct and about ten times larger than its natural size. If, however, you suddenly withdraw the card without disturbing the object the latter will be invisible. The reason is that the naked eye cannot see at so short a distance as an inch, but the card with the hole enables the eye to approach within an inch and to see not only well, but as it were, ten times better than with the naked vision.

The voice of a woman is audible in a balloon at the height of about two miles, while that of a man has never reached higher than a mile.

TAFT TO CONFER WITH PRESIDENT

Council of War to Be Held at White House Sunday, October 18.

NOT CHASING RAINBOWS.

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE WILL MAKE HIS PROMISED TOUR THROUGH SEVERAL SOUTHERN STATES HE SAYS.

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 10.—W. H. Taft and President Roosevelt will have a consultation in Washington, where the candidate will spend Sunday, Oct. 18. In arranging his future work in the campaign it was found more convenient than otherwise that Sunday in question should be put in at the national capital, and probably much of that day will be spent at the White House.

After the three days in Ohio, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, Mr. Taft will turn his attention to the South for the remaining three days of the week. The nominee has let it be known that he was in no sense "chasing rainbows" in his intended tour of the South, but had heretofore made promises that should he go on the stump he would speak in certain Southern cities. He will keep these promises. They include speeches at Louisville, Ky., Chattanooga, Tenn., Greensboro, N. C., and Richmond, Va.

SAVED HIS BOY'S LIFE.

"My three year old boy was badly constipated, had a high fever and was in an awful condition. I gave him two doses of Foley's Orino Laxative and the next morning the fever was gone and he was entirely well. Foley's Orino Laxative saved his life." A. Wolkush, Casimer, Wis. A. G. Luken & Co.

"I tell you what," said the old maid. "They make love much faster than they used to do in my day." "Yes," replied the sweet young thing. "In your day it was a rented horse and buggy; now it's a mortgaged forty horsepower mile a minute touring car."—Detroit Free Press.

Famous Wrestlers Clash

COLISEUM

Thursday, Oct. 15

The Unconquerable Turk

vs. Joe La Salle

Champion of Canada

Two Best in Three Falls

Two good preliminaries, one COLORED

Seats on sale at Simmons' Cigar Store

PHILLIPS THEATRE

Vaudeville

Week of October 5th.

The Marlo Trio

Celebrated Novelty Gymnasts.

Pete Baker

Of "Chris and Lena" Fame.

4 Other Big Acts

Admission 10 cents. Reserved seats 5 cents extra.

Kodol For Indigestion. Relieves your stomach, palpitation of the heart. Digests what you eat.

GENNETT THEATRE

Harry G. Sommers, Lessee and Manager

One Week, Starting Monday, October 12th

The Depew-Burdette Stock Co.

Do you remember Tom Depew, that funny comedian, funnier than ever this year.

Special—Great Salome Dance

Prices—10 and 20c.

Opening Play—"The American Girl."

Seat Sale starts Friday, 10 a. m. Ladies free Monday night.

ARCADE

THE PALACE
5 CENTS

"THE LOVER'S GUIDE"

6 Girls, 1 Boy, a Picnic

Funniest combination ever put in a moving picture

US FOR FUN

"A Tin Wedding, or Two Troublesome Kids"
Song, "You'd Do the Same Thing For the Old Red, White and Blue"

Watch for our Diamond Ring Contest. A $50.00 ring given away to the most popular young lady. Watch for our ad.