

general receiver for everything hit in this inning. McIntyre lined low and straight into his hands, and a moment later he threw both O'Leary and Crawford out at first, making pretty stops and throws in both cases. No runs.

Chicago—McIntyre, after a short apart, captured Sheppard's fly. Evers lined out to Crawford and Schulte struck out. No runs.

SECOND INNING.

Detroit—Cobb attempted to bunt the first ball pitched, but lifted a fly, which Kling captured. Rossman went out, Evers to Chance and Schaefer's foul toward third base was pulled down by Kling. No runs.

Chicago—Downs threw Chance out at first. Crawford took Steinfield's fly to left center after a stiff run, and Hofman struck at three high, fast ones. No runs.

THIRD INNING.

Detroit—Schmidt sent an infantile grounder to Overall, who threw him out at first. Downs was passed without a single strike called. Steinfield grasped Donovan's sacrifice bunt with one hand and threw the runner out at first. Downs reaching second. McIntyre struck out. No runs.

Chicago—Downs made a fine stop of Tinker's sizzling grounder and threw him out to Rossman. Kling struck out. Rossman took Overall's bouncer, but Donovan, who covered first, dropped the throw and Overall was safe. Sheppard flew out to center. No runs.

FOURTH INNING.

Detroit—O'Leary struck out. Schulte captured Crawford's "Texas Leaguer" after a hard run. Cobb grounded out, Overall to Chance. No runs.

Chicago—with the Chicago supporters rooting for a hit, Evers popped a fly to Rossman. Cobb made a splendid catch of Schulte's line drive. Chance flew out to McIntyre. No runs.

FIFTH INNING.

Detroit—Rossman flew to Sheppard. Schaefer got the first hit of the game, a sharp drive over second, much to the noisy gratification of Detroit's supporters. Schmidt drove safely to right, but Schaefer's quick throw held Schaefer at second. Downs struck out, and Steinfield took Donovan's high infield fly. No runs.

Chicago—Steinfeld struck out. Schaefer threw Hofman out at first and Tinker's long fly was taken by Cobb. No runs.

SIXTH INNING.

Detroit—McIntyre struck out. O'Leary grounded out, Evers to Chance. The little second baseman took Crawford's slow grounder in one hand, running forward at full speed and threw the runner out at first. No runs.

Chicago—Kling struck out a second time. Overall singled cleanly over Downs' head. Chicago's first hit. Sheppard hit to Downs, who threw to O'Leary, and Overall and Sheppard were retired on a sharp double play. No runs.

SEVENTH INNING.

Detroit—Cobb's fly was easy for Sheppard, as was a similar drive by Rossman. Overall and Kling politely allowed Schaefer's bunt to roll between them and it went for a hit. Schaefer was caught off first by Overall, but Tinker failed to hold Chance's throw and the runner was safe at second. Evers threw Schmidt out at first. No runs.

Chicago—Evers grounded out. Downs to Rossman. Rossman retired Schulte on a grounder, unassisted. Chance struck out. No runs.

EIGHTH INNING.

Detroit—Downs struck out. Donovan, in attempting a bunt, sent a "pop-up" just in front of the plate and Kling captured it. McIntyre went out. Evers to Chance. No runs.

Chicago—Steinfeld struck out. Schaefer made a fine one-handed pickup of Hofman's weak grounder, but threw low and Hofman was safe, although Rossman made a phenomenal stop of the throw. Tinker hit over right field bleachers for a clean home run, sending Hofman in ahead of him. Kling doubled into the overflow ground in short left. Overall went out, Donovan to Rossman. Kling taking third. Kling scored a moment later on Sheppard's single over second. Sheppard stole second. Evers beat out a cleanly handled bunt and Sheppard went to third. Evers stole second. Schulte tripped to left center, scoring Sheppard and Evers, and came home himself on a wild pitch. Chance walked and stole second. Steinfeld flew out to left. Six runs.

NINTH INNING.

Detroit—D. Jones, who batted for O'Leary, took first base on balls. He went to second on Crawford's out. Evers to Chance. Cobb singled to center and Jones scored. Rossman hit to Tinker, who retired Cobb at second and doubled Rossman at first. One run.

CITY BOWLING

LEAGUE OPENS

First Games of Season to Be Played Tonight.

The City Bowling League opens the first section of its championship season this evening at the City Bowling alleys with games between the Colonials and Crescents. There are six clubs in the league and they are all evenly divided as to strength. The six teams are the Colonials, Crescents, Pirates, Entre Nous, Carmans and Richmond. Tomorrow night the Pirates and the Entre Nous play, Friday night the Carmans and Richmond play. These are the only games scheduled for this week.

WHITEWATER WINS.

Hollensburg, O., High School Lads Beaten.

Whitewater, Ind., Oct. 12.—The Whitewater high school baseball team defeated the Hollensburg high school team in an exciting ten inning game on the Hollensburg grounds, Friday afternoon. The game was pitchers' battle until the seventh inning when the locals found the measure of their opponent and secured a lead which was tied in the ninth. In the beginning of the tenth with two men out and two strikes, the Hollensburg pitcher walked a man and the locals bunched a few safeties, netting four runs and winning the game.

The final score stood 5 to 9 in favor of Whitewater. It was the greatest game of the season at the Hollensburg grounds. The local boys have secured a return game and the result will bewatch with much interest.

TURK TO MUNCIE.

Wrestler Meets Pierson There Tonight.

Monogoff, the Terrible Turk, went to Muncie today where he will meet Pierson, the Tacoma, Wash., whirlwind wrestler tonight.

THE THEATER

Gennett Theater Tonight.

The Depew-Burdette Stock company opens its engagement of one week at the Gennett tonight, in a play of stirring worth, "An American Girl," a story of the Zanzibar by H. Grattan Donnelly. This company carries twenty people and five big vaudeville acts. Mr. Thos. E. Depew, known as the king of repertoire announces a great treat for the patrons this week. One-half ton of coal will be given away nightly as a special inducement.

Vaudeville at the Phillips.

Hindu mystery, dancing and music and comedy juggling feature prominently in the New Phillips program for this week. Mr. Charles Tod McCollough will produce his famous mystery act and promises one of the most sensational acts ever seen here.

A complete one act musical comedy, "The Wrong Man" will be given by those excellent singers, the Davenport brothers and Miss Emily Francis LaMount and Milren have a musical act that is a splendid thing, and will make a hit. Lenord Kane puts on a novelty dancing feature that has a great hit, wherever seen, and Nickelson and Klash have their famous comedy juggling number. Moving pictures and the illustrated song complete the program.

The Arcade.

The five cent theater have made it possible for everyone to see the most noted dramas, formerly played at exorbitant prices. The Arcade will show in moving pictures on Monday and Tuesday. Shakespeare's famous tragedy, "Richard III." This film is remarkable, as real out of door scenes are shown, not possible on the stage of a theater. As a special treat, the Arcade management has secured the services of Mr. Minor, a well known lecturer, formerly of Toledo, O., to make the movement of the drama perfectly clear to the audience.

HARRIMAN PLEDGES

$14,000,000 TO ROAD

Regarded as Good Views by Wall Street.

New York, Oct. 12.—E. H. Harriman has pledged $14,000,000 to the Erie railroad to enable that company to electrify its New Jersey suburban service, which has provoked bitter complaint among commuters for the last two years. A great electrification program now practically is under way. Mr. Harriman's pledge to raise $14,000,000 for the Erie at this time is regarded in Wall street as the best news received in months.

TO OPERATE FACTORY

RICHMOND MANUFACTURING CO.

Will Continue Operations Until Nov. 14th.

COURT ISSUES AN ORDER.

The Richmond, Ind., Manufacturing Company's plant will be operated two weeks longer than was anticipated. The court has set the date for the sale of the plant as Nov. 14. It has been found that the supply of raw material on hand will be exhausted before that time and unless additional material is provided the plant must lie idle. It is believed this would work an injury to the plant.

Upon the petition of John F. Robbins, attorney for the Dickinson Trust Company, this morning, Judge Fox ordered that the material necessary for the continued operation of the plant be purchased. It is believed likely that it will be possible to obtain a fair value for the plant when it is offered for sale.

Rear Admiral James H. Dayton, U. S. N., has returned to his old home, South Bend, Ind., to wait retirement.

Rear Admiral Dayton is a first cousin of Frank Kirby, of this city, and his mother was formerly a resident of this city. Recently Admiral Dayton was relieved of the command of the armored cruiser squadron on the Pacific coast station. He served forty-six years in the navy and made a brilliant record for himself.

Halley Lewis, colored, who was arrested Saturday night for drunk was fined $1 and costs. He was swinging a knife and threatening passersby at Sixth and South A streets.

S. J. Buckler and Sylvester Knight, both colored, who were accused of the theft of two chairs belonging to Gabriel Sullivan were arraigned. They claimed they believed the chairs discarded and took them as junk.

SEARCH FOR YOUNG.

Man Knocked Another Down in a Saloon.

The police are searching for William Young, who engaged in an altercation with Kelley Hartman at the Dusseldorf saloon Saturday night and knocked him down. Young is believed to have left the city.

ARCADE

NEGROES LYNCHED

Two Men Hanged Because They Shot Railroad Conductor.

THIRD NEGRO HUNTED.

Lula, Miss., Oct. 12.—In the presence of city officials, police and several women and children, a mob of men dragged two negroes, Joe and Frank Davis, brothers to convenient limbs near the depot last night and strung them up until they were dead.

The negroes were accused of shooting Conductor J. C. Kendall, who was in charge of a special train on the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley railroad, which was carrying several hundred negroes to listen to a speech by Booker T. Washington. Conductor Kendall remonstrated with the negroes for improper conduct and they shot him causing paralysis.

The wounded man was taken on a special train to Memphis, and when his condition was announced the mob formed. The members listened to pleas for and against burning and decided on hanging.

A third negro wanted for helping the brothers is being hunted by dogs and a posse in the woods.
