SOME REASONS WHY.

There has been recently organized in Indiana a Taft Railroad club which is made up of 5,000 railroad men to advance the interests of Taft. They endorse Taft for the following reasons:

"We support Taft because the railroad employees had their wages increased $100,000,000 a year under the administration of Theodore Roosevelt.

"Because this increase was due in a large measure to the mediation of Chairman Knapp of the Interstate Commerce Commission, and Commissioner Neal of the Bureau of Commerce and Labor.

"Because these same agencies were active and assisted in preventing a recent reduction in wages.

"Because the republican party enacted the employer's liability act, which will secure untold millions to crippled railroad men and their heirs.

"Because the republican party enacted laws compelling the railroad companies to install modern appliances, thereby protecting the lives and limbs of the employees.

"Because a republican congress passed the sixteen hour law by which the lives and health of our fellow workers are protected.

"Because the republican congress passed the ash-pan law, saving every fireman the danger of losing his life underneath an engine.

"Because the present republican administration recognized the railroad men as the country by appointing our fellow workman, Hon. E. E. Clark, a member of the Interstate Commerce Commission, which commission deals with every problem affecting our interests.

"Because President Roosevelt appointed the late Frank P. Sargent to be Commissioner of Immigration, besides many other railroad men to positions of honor in the councils of the country.

"Because we were treated justly and generously by the Roosevelt administration, we are in honor bound to support his policies.

"Because W. H. Taft stands for these policies, he is entitled to the unanimous support of the railroad men of this country."

The railroad men might also have added that Taft's record on the bench showed that he was not only just to the cause of labor, but that his very decisions are the ones on which organized labor now relies to organize, and further for the right according to the laws of the land, to strike when that may be necessary or advisable.

They might also have added that Taft's contact with labor did not stop on the bench, but that only recently he was at the head of the Panama Canal, the employer of over thirty thousand men. But, you say, he had a strike. Yes. But he settled that strike so justly that at its quick conclusion the laborers were so well pleased that he, Taft, the arch enemy of labor, was elected a member of that union and praised for his action.

Is it not more desirable to have a man for president who is fearless and just, whose record of faithful service to all the people is before us, whose actions have shown what he may be expected to do—than a man who never did a thing for the cause of labor when he was in congress, although his party was in power, who did not even attempt such a thing whose sole recommendation is that he will not do the things he said he would, whose only actions for the wage worker have been of high sounding words only?

LET US FORGET.

What said Mr. Bryan in 1896, at Knoxville, Tennessee?

"If there is anyone who believes that the gold standard is a good thing, or that it must be maintained, I warn him not to cast his vote for me, because I promise him that it will not be maintained in this country longer than I am able to get rid of it."

Two years ago the same man advocated the government ownership of railroads.

Mr. Bryan's statement that these things are not in the platform is perfectly true. They are not. Why? Because Bryan wrote the platform and left them out. They are to be forgotten. (He hopes).

These things may not be in the platform, but they are in Mr. Bryan. Is this thing of advocating one thing and then crying "King's X, I've got my fingers crossed, that's not in the platform," may be alright on the chautauqua platform to make a fortune with, but it is not the sort of thing to inspire the confidence which should characterize a president of the United States.

Let not the cry of the democrat beguile any one into believing that "O, well Bryan could not do anything with a republican senate in power."

Even were it true, what recommendation is that? We want a president who will not only do things, but do them right. Besides no one knows what Mr. William Jennings Bryan would do. (Least of all from his record). That is merely a nightmare of bad dreams which even Bryan himself is trying to escape from. But that record is not to be forgotten even though it is "not in the platform" it is worse than that, it is in his political character.

BRITISH SCHOONER FIGHTS ELEMENTS

Awaiting Help Out in the Atlantic.

New York, Oct. 17.—Disabled and rudderless, the British schooner Earl of Aberdeen is making a gallant fight against the elements out in the Atlantic near this coast until help can reach her.

The schooner Fannie Prescott, which arrived in port, reported seeing her last Wednesday near Fenwick Island, off the lower end of Delaware, bearing north.

Help Your Help.

Give your maids the right sort of tools for their work, and there will be no "Servant Problem." Don't use coarse rosin soaps, but take away wash day's terrors by using Easy Task soap. It can be used without boiling if you wish, and does its work so well that hard rubbing is not needed. Only five cents a cake and lasts longest.

A noted Belgian bacteriologist, Dr. Leon Bertrand, claims that he has discovered a much more powerful serum as a cure for pneumonia than now in use. It is a bactericidal, not an antitoxic agent.

CAUTION PREVAILS; CONFIDENCE STRONG

Bradstreet Reviews Business Conditions Over the Country Today.

INDUSTRY MORE ACTIVE.

COMING ELECTIONS AND WEATHER CONDITIONS RESPONSIBLE FOR SLOW DISTRIBUTION OF MERCHANDISE.

New York, Oct. 17.—Bradstreet's today says:

"Continued warm, unseasonable weather and the approach of the national election tend to hamper distribution of seasonable merchandise, the purchase of any but immediate necessities and the projection of new enterprises. On balance industry is slightly more active, some branches of the iron trade having increased forces, while building is more brisk, but at the same time drought and low water in various navigable streams tend to affect such lines as coke, waterway navigation and paper mills. Railway tonnage is heavier and current gross earnings show smaller decreases than for any time in the past ten months.

"Summed up, caution still prevails, but confidence is very strong, and, therefore, natural conditions, together with light stocks, should produce a marked degree of expansion after the turn of the new year. Until then repression seems to be the policy. The hand-to-mouth buying movement is deemed to be the part of wisdom and new enterprises are being held in abeyance, either by the credit-giving institutions or by their proprietors.

"Business failures in the United States for the week ending Oct. 15 number 244 against 256 last week, and 194 in the like week of 1907, 170 in 1906, 178 in 1905 and 227 in 1904. Business failures in Canada for the week number 29, as against 31 last week and 36 in this week of 1907.

"Wheat, including flour, exports from the United States and Canada for the week ending Oct. 15, aggregate 4,458,227 bushels, against 5,632,852 bushels last week and 4,994,000 this week last year. For the 16 weeks ending Oct. 15 this year, the exports are 62,222,816 bushels, against 58,708,876 in the corresponding period last year.

"Corn exports for the week are 62,683 bushels, against 17,759 last week and 572,825 in 1907. For the 16 weeks ending Oct. 15, the corn exports are 725,736 bushels against 15,944,900 in the same period last year."

"There is no necessity to suffer the humiliation, chargin and discomfort of bad breath, biliousness, sour stomach, gastritis, sluggish liver, etc., when a little lozenge of charcoal will cleanse the stomach and make it pure and sweet.

Do not drug yourself when a simple little natural charcoal made from fragrant willow branches, sweetened with honey, will add tone to your stomach, liver and intestines, rapidly absorb gases and stop foul odors of all kinds.

Charcoal will absorb one hundred times its own volume in gas. A box full of charcoal placed in a bed room will keep the air of such a room pure and sweet.

A little charcoal lozenge dissolved on the tongue after meals will also keep the stomach fresh and clean. Charcoal is justly called the scrubbing brush for the stomach. The old monks of medieval times cured bad cases of stomach trouble, cast out devils from the system of man by feeding such a man charcoal.

Scientific men of today believe in the great strength of charcoal for the cure of human ills. Too much of it cannot harm one. The system craves it just like an animal needs and craves salt every so often. Charcoal goes into the stomach gently and is welcome, it settles down through the action of the stomach, and filters through all the food, absorbing gas, aiding digestion and giving tone to the juices, so that when the food goes into the intestines, and there meets other digestive fluids, the charcoal holds the impurities and thus keeps them from the blood.

Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges are made from pure willow. They are prepared fragrant by the use of honey and sweetened so they please the taste and are easily dissolved.

They have an enormous sale, thus stamping them with the approval of the public. Every druggist sells them, 25 cents per box. Go to your druggist today and buy a box; then after your next meal take two or three of them and judge for yourself of their merit.

Several taken at bed time will prove to you in the morning that they have been at work all night, for your bad breath will not be so bad after all.

Send us your name and address and we will send you a trial package by mail free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 200 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

MASONIC CALENDAR.

Saturday Evening, Oct. 17.—Loyal Chapter No. 49, O. E. S., Stated Meeting.

LABOR HAS STAUNCH FRIEND IN TAFT

Credit for Conditions in Panama All Taft's, Says Roosevelt.

ATTACKS ARE UNJUSTIFIED.

PRESIDENT SAYS THESE SELF-APPOINTED POLITICAL LEADERS' EFFORTS TO MISGUIDE CAN NEVER BE SUCCESSFUL.

Chicago, Oct. 17.—T. J. Dolan, General Secretary and Treasurer of the International Brotherhood of Steam Shovelers and Dredgemen, made public a letter from President Roosevelt, answering one sent by Mr. Dolan in which the latter declared that his organization was proud of Mr. Taft's honorary membership in the brotherhood. President Roosevelt's letter follows:

"The White House, Washington, October 15, 1908.

"My Dear Mr. Dolan: I have your letter of the 13th instant, and am much pleased with the copy of the articles for your journal which you inclosed. Indeed you may rest assured that, if I do not believe that Taft would occupy just the position toward organized labor that I have tried to occupy, and in which you and I believe, I would not back him.

"As you know, I have never for one moment hesitated to oppose organized labor in any point where I thought organized labor was wrong, but just as little do I hesitate to stand up for organized labor when I think it is right. The Administration can well afford to stand on its record of positive achievement for organized labor.

"As regards the Isthmus of Panama, where we have had so much to do with organized labor, that record is Taft's. You yourself know well what the United States government has done as regards the workmen on the Isthmus. Thanks largely to Mr. Taft, the record of the government at Panama is that of model employer, both as regards wages and hours and as regards the housing and care of employees.

"I do not believe that the laboring men of this country have ever had in office a stauncher friend than Mr. Taft. The attack upon him by certain self-constituted political leaders of organized labor, if successful, would, in the long run, gravely damage the cause of organized labor; for these men are trying to persuade the people of this country that organized labor has interests apart from and hostile to the interests of the great mass of the American people, and such an attitude, if persisted in, would inevitably result disastrously to organized labor itself.

"I believe they will fall in the effort to misguide their followers, and to do wrong to the American people; and it is above all things for the interest of organized labor that they should fail. "If Mr. Taft were not elected, the chief sufferers from the chaotic business conditions that would follow would be the workmen; all of our citizens would benefit by Mr. Taft's election; but the workmen most of all."

ROOSEVELT AGAINST WOMEN SUFFRAGE

Says Million Signatures Could Not Influence Him.

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 17.—Tributes to the pioneers in the Woman Suffrage movement and a study of ways and means to spread the propaganda in the future engrossed the attention of the delegates at the sessions of the fortieth annual convention of the National American Woman's Suffrage association.

The speakers at the commemorative services in honor of the first woman's rights convention includes many descendants of the delegates who took part at that gathering at Seneca Falls in 1848.

Kate M. Gordon, of New Orleans, corresponding secretary said in her report that President Roosevelt informed her in reply to a communication that a petition with one million signatures would not move him to recommend women suffrage to congress.

Miss Elizabeth Nausser, of Warren, Ohio, made an interesting report on the work in the newspaper field by the National Press department.

TAFT CONFERS WITH PRESIDENT SUNDAY

Makes Chief Virginia Speech Tonight.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 17.—Senator Chauncey M. Depew, of New York, will make a four days' campaigning tour in Virginia beginning October 20. John S. Wise, of New York, will speak on the eastern shore of Virginia today, and in Portsmouth, Va., Oct. 23. Judge Taft will speak at Deville, Keysville and other Virginia points, en route to Richmond for his principal speech in that state tonight. Following his Richmond speech, Mr. Taft will go to Washington for a conference with President Roosevelt at the White House tomorrow.

Are You Superstitious?

There's a prevailing superstition among housewives that laundry soap to be used must be yellow. Never was there a greater mistake. It has been repeatedly demonstrated that the soap most harmless to flesh and fabric, yet deadly to dirt and grease, is a white soap called Easy Task. One five-cent cake will convince you.
