

SUNDAY PICKS AN ALL-STAR TEAM

Famous Evangelist Shows He Has Good Baseball Judgment.

BUT LITTLE DISPUTE.

BUT FEW POSITIONS COULD BE IMPROVED UPON—ALL PITCHERS ARE ACCEPTED WITHOUT QUESTION.

By Tort

The Rev. "Billy" Sunday, the famous evangelist and former star baseball player, has picked the following all-star team for Collier's Weekly, published in this week's issue:

Left field, Clark. Center field, Donlin. Right field, Cobb. First base, Chance. Second base, Lajoie. Third base, Bradley. Short stop, Wagner. Catchers, Kling, Bresnahan, and Sullivan. Pitchers, Mathewson, Brown, Walsh, Joss, Johnson, and Waddell. Utility infield, Hofman and Isbell. Utility outfield, Stone.

Sunday has certainly picked a great team—one hard to be improved on. Some fans will question his choice of Lajoie over Evers. The latter has been playing a great game the past three years, and today is probably the equal of King Larry, but not his superior. It's a toss up as to which man fits in best at second base.

Some will question the selection of Bradley for third base. The students of the game will agree, however, with Sunday in his choice. There are a lot of splendid third basemen, but the Cleveland star still heads the list by a narrow margin. There will be no dispute about the utility infielders. Some may question the selection of Stone, the St. Louis American slugger, for utility outfield, but he would fill the job nicely. He is a clever fielder and one of the strongest batsmen in the game.

The first four players appearing on the pitching staff will be accepted without question. The majority of fans will also accept Johnson, the Washington whirlwind, who Sunday predicts will develop into one of the greatest twirlers in the business, but Waddell is an in and out. Like the girl with the curl, the Rube when he is good cannot be equalled; when he is bad he is awful. Last season he won 18 games and lost 14 of them. The ever reliable Cy Young appears to deserve the call better than the Rube.

OLSON TO REFEREE

Indianapolis Wrestler to Officiate at Turk-Busch Bout Tonight.

TO BE AT THE COLISEUM.

The Terrible Turk will meet Carl Busch at the coliseum this evening and one of the most interesting matches of the season can be expected. The men will wrestle at Greco-Roman style. Busch claims that he is the champion of Germany at this style of wrestling, but the Turk claims he can put it over him at this game as easy as he can at catch-as-catch-can.

The match will be refereed this evening by Charley Olson of Indianapolis, the champion light heavyweight of America. Olson has issued a challenge to the winner of this match to meet him in this city.

MANY PEOPLE NOW IN RICHMOND

Hotels Are Crowded With Visitors.

The past few days the Westcott and the Arlington hotels have been filled to overflowing. The annual meeting of the Agents of the American Seeding Machine company brought a good sized crowd to the city. There are also a large number of traveling men now on the road. Today, between fifty and sixty people arrived in the city to attend the meeting of the State Library Association.

At the Westcott hotel this morning it was stated that this week every room in the house had been occupied and that many of the guests had to be furnished cots. Quite a number of people were turned away.

NUMBER OF DIVORCE CASES IS SMALL

May Be Two Reasons for Conditions in Wayne County.

CASES ARE ASSIGNED.

JUDGE HENRY C. FOX AND ATTORNEYS, SET DATES FOR HEARING OF CASES DURING THE NEXT TERM.

Judge Fox, of the Wayne circuit court, and the attorneys were busy this morning assigning cases for trial. No important cases are to be considered by the court until after Nov. 3. That date has a special significance to the court and business will continue very slack until all the votes are counted. The docket has been prepared as late in the year as Dec. 3. A number of important criminal cases are to be considered. One of these, that of the state vs. George Gay, has been heard once and will come up again for a re-hearing. On the last trial the jury was unable to decide upon a verdict.

The number of divorce cases that has been docketed appears unusually small. It is not known whether the few cases of this nature on the docket, is an indication of change of heart in the practice of married folks in Wayne county, or merely a calm before the storm. Heretofore divorce has figured as the most prominent cause for legal contention in this county. Neither is there a case of public intoxication appearing on the criminal docket.

The case of Deliser vs. Parker is among those set for trial. One of the defendants in this case has not been located. He left his family in Center township soon after the suit was filed a few months ago and has not been located since. The police assisted in the search and descriptive circulars were sent throughout this section of the country but without results.

Assignment of Cases.

The following is the assignment of cases as the trial docket now stands and the cause of action:

Saturday, Oct. 24—Tangeman vs. Fangeman, divorce; Carter vs. Carter, divorce.

Saturday, Oct. 26—People's Loan and Trust Co. vs. Campfield.

Saturday, Oct. 31—Jaconi vs. Jaconi, divorce.

Wednesday, Nov. 4—State vs. Bulla, abortion.

Saturday, Nov. 7—Exception to report, Stanton vs. Nye.

Monday, Nov. 9—Deiser vs. Parker, claim.

Wednesday, Nov. 11—State vs. Whitman, assault and battery with intent to kill.

Thursday, Nov. 12—State vs. Via, incest; state vs. Walters et al., assault and battery with intent.

Friday, Nov. 13—State vs. Hunt, embezzlement.

Monday, Nov. 16—State vs. Keller, murder.

Tuesday, Nov. 17—State vs. Gay, violating liquor laws.

Wednesday, Nov. 18—State vs. Jones, violating liquor laws.

Thursday, Nov. 19—Doney vs. Doney, claim.

Friday, Nov. 20—Stackhouse vs. King.

Saturday, Nov. 21—Burns vs. estate of Cecil.

Monday, Nov. 23—Scott vs. T. H. I. & E., damages.

Tuesday, Nov. 24—Farmers' and Merchants' Bank vs. Miller, claim.

Thursday, Nov. 26—Lamb vs. Farlow, claim.

Friday, Nov. 27—Lyman vs. T. H. I. & E., damages, in re Kempton.

Monday, Nov. 30—Scott vs. estate null, claim; Fausher vs. estate null, claim.

Tuesday, Dec. 1—Martin vs. Christman, claim.

Wednesday, Dec. 2—Crowe vs. McConaha.

Thursday, Dec. 3—Bethge vs. Ernest Madden.

The Twilght of Life.
The muscles of the stomach and bowels are not as strong or active as in youth and in consequence old people are very subject to constipation and indigestion. Many seldom have a bowel movement without artificial aid. Many also have unpleasant eruptions of gas from the stomach after eating. All this can be avoided by the use of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which permanently regulates the bowels so that passages come naturally, and so strengthens the stomach that food is digested without discomfort. Druggists sell it at 50 cents or $1 a large bottle.

Affairs of the Sporting World

In canceling its game with Indiana Saturday, Franklin displayed good judgment. The reason—last Saturday Earlham defeated Franklin by a score of 17 to 6.

Johnny Kling of the Cubs and the world's greatest catcher is at the head of a syndicate which is trying to purchase the Kansas City American association franchise from George Taubeau. It is probable the deal will go through. If it does Kling will try to secure his release from Chicago so he can act as playing manager of the club.

President Murphy and Secretary Williams of the Chicago Cubs in defense of their action of turning over tickets to the world's series of games to scalpers plead that they didn't mean to and the job was too large for two men to handle. The National Commission in the future should take charge of this business.

The Cincinnati Enquirer this morning states that when Manager John Gangel of the Reds secured Hoblitel to cover first base he "cooked his goose." The statement goes on to the effect that the Reds will surely have a new manager next year and that President Hermann never was enthusiastic about Gangel.

Princeton defeated Fordham yesterday by a score of 17 to 6. Twice the Tigers were shoved down the field within a yard of their goal. They were lucky to get away without being scored on.

Arrangements are being made at the Simmons pool and billiard hall for another billiard tourney to decide the amateur city championship. Last year twelve of the best players in the city compete, the honor being won by Wilbur Hibberd over Frank Braffett. It has not yet been decided when this year's event will be pulled off but probably the middle of next month. There will be from eighteen to twenty amateur cracks entered in the event this year.

The Cincinnati Reds will invade Cuba this winter under the management of Frank Bancroft. The majority of the games will be played in Havana.

TOGO ACTS AS HOST

American Officers Entertained At an Elaborate Garden Party.

JAPANESE ARE PLEASED.

Tokyo, Oct. 22—Thursday.—Yesterday was a red letter day in the season of fetes in honor of the officers and men of the American battleship fleet. There were numerous entertainments, the most important being the magnificent garden fete, in the Shingiku Imperial park, the property of the empress, clothed in oriental splendor for the occasion, at which Admiral Togo was the host and the soiree of Baron Mitsui, one of the richest men of the empire, at the Mitsui club, where a special theater had been built for Japanese performers, who contributed to the entertainment. Baron Mitsui proposed the health of Rear Admiral Schroeder and the latter toasted the emperor. The Baron toasted the admirals of the fleet and as the senior officer present Rear Admiral Schroeder again responded in a well rounded speech.

With the week of celebration half elapsed it is marvelous to note how the enthusiasm of the populace is sustained. Everywhere there are vast crowds to cheer the American admirals and their attending officers as they are hurried from one function to another and always at the vantage points en route there are groups of school children, led by their teachers, singing "Hail Columbia." Every American sailor has a Japanese sailor as guide and every officer a companion of equal rank. The cordiality between the officers and men increases as they become better acquainted and learn one another's names and characteristics.

Clockwork Precision.
Up to the present time the entire program, with all its multitude of elaborate and formal functions, has been carried out with the precision of clockwork.

Contrary to everything anticipated, the Japanese people are especially gratified with the reports published by American newspapers from their special correspondents, showing the

POTTER RETURNS.

Charles Potter, township trustee, has returned from a trip to South Bend and Indianapolis. At the former place he attended the conference of the state charity board and at Indianapolis he attended the state meeting of the Red Men.

Miss Mildred Powers of Indianapolis, was in the city today.

TAFT LEADS OTHERS

Secret Ballot Taken at Cigar Store Shows Him General Favorite.

REPUBLICANS ARE PLEASED

A secret ballot taken at the Englebert cigar store has just been completed. In the presidential vote 104 people cast ballots with the result that Taft received a plurality of 48 over Bryan and Debs, and a majority of 52 over Bryan. The result of this little test vote has been received with the greatest pleasure by the Republican leaders of this city. The vote was as follows: For Taft 76 For Bryan 24 For Debs 4

Total vote 104

The majority of those who cast ballots were men employed in the shops or in clerical positions, thus giving the lie to the Democratic statements that the majority of the workmen in this city were Bryan supporters. The ballot was absolutely secret, men writing out their ballots either in the store or elsewhere and depositing them in a small box on the counter. The vote was counted in the presence of both Democrats and Republicans.

DINWIDDIE SPEAKS TONIGHT FOR MINISTERS

Other Church Services to Adjourn Early.

Rev. E. C. Dinwiddie, formerly of the National Anti-Saloon league, but now connected with the Good Tempers will be in the city tonight to make an address at the First Methodist church. Mr. Dinwiddie comes under the auspices of the Ministerial association. That the regular attendants of the prayer meetings may have an opportunity to hear the distinguished speaker, the hour has been set for eight o'clock. All are invited.

RAINS STOP FOREST FIRES

Wisconsin and Michigan Are Benefited.

Richmond, Wis., Oct. 22.—Rains have been general all over northwestern Wisconsin during the last twenty-four hours. There is a sufficient quantity to check, if not quench, the forest fires. The government gauge shows a total rainfall of 1.32 inches.

Rains in Upper Michigan.
Calumet, Mich., Oct. 22.—The light rain which has fallen almost incessantly throughout the copper country has checked the forest fires.

LIBRARIANS IN STATE MEETING

Annual Gathering in Session To Consider Important Topics

THE PUBLIC IS INVITED.

TOPICS DISCUSSED OF GENERAL NATURE—EARLHAM COLLEGE TO ACT AS HOST TO VISITORS TOMORROW.

The opening session of the seventh annual meeting of the Indiana Library Association was held at the Morrison-Reeves Library this afternoon. The session this evening will be held at the same place and those of tomorrow at the Earlham College library. Dinner tomorrow will be served the members of the association by the college. This evening at the library, William Dudley Foulke will be one of the speakers. The public is invited. The meeting will be general in its nature and the program literary for the most part. The Indiana Library Association meets yearly but it is specified that every two years its sessions shall be held at Indianapolis. Formerly all meetings were held at the capital. About sixty members are in attendance.

At this afternoon's meeting Prof. Harlow Lindley, librarian of Earlham College, president of the association, delivered the opening address.

Miss Marill Freeman, of Louisville, Ky., library, spoke on "Publicity, How to Get Before the Public."

The address of welcome this evening will be delivered by Mrs. Ada Bernhardt, librarian at the Morrison-Reeves library. Following the address of William Dudley Foulke, the remainder of the evening will be spent in an informal social manner.

The meetings tomorrow will be held at the chapel in Earlham College. "The Relation of the College and the Public Library," will be discussed by H. S. Wedding, librarian at Washburn College. The discussion will be led by W. E. Jenkins, librarian at Indiana University. Mr. Hepburn, librarian at Purdue university, will speak, and an address will be delivered by N. D. C. Hodges, first vice president of the American Library association, who is attending the sessions as official representative of that organization.

"Story Telling for Children and Children's Readings," will be the subject of the address by Miss Foucher, who is in charge of the children's department of the public library at Fort Wayne. The discussion will be led by Miss Scott, of the public library commission, and Miss Peters, librarian at Elwood. The reports will be read and the officers elected at this meeting.

D. C. Brown, Indiana state librarian, will deliver a public address at the chapel hour at Earlham College tomorrow morning.

CONVENES EARLIER.

The prayer meeting at the Grace M. E. church will convene this evening at 7 o'clock instead of 7:30 o'clock as announced earlier in the week.

The Athenaeum Literary society will meet tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. Perry Moss at her home on South Thirteenth street.

STOPS AT CAMBRIDGE

Taft Special Will Make Short Stop at That Point Saturday.

NO SPEECH TO BE MADE.

The Taft special will be stopped at Cambridge City, and the Republican presidential candidate will make a five-minute address. The train is scheduled to arrive at Cambridge City at 8:10 o'clock Saturday morning. There is no doubt but the entire west end of the county will be at the Pennsylvania station. Cambridge City is the central point for East Germantown, Milton and Dublin, and thousands of persons from these towns and the surrounding country will be on hand for a glimpse of the man, upon whom the Republicans are depending to lead their standard to victory. One prominent Cambridge City resident said this morning the detention of the Taft train for five minutes will help the Republican party more in the west end of the county than anything else that could be done.

QUAKERS FOR WATSON

The Rev. Morton C. Pierson, Friends' Minister, Takes The Stump.

TALKS TO PROHIBITIONISTS

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 22.—Following a conference with Governor Hanly on the political situation in Indiana, the Rev. Morton C. Pierson of the First Friends' church is holding temperance mass meetings in Quaker communities and will continue to do so until the election. His addresses are directed to the Prohibitionists of whom there are many in the Friends church. He urges them to support Watson and the republican legislative tickets. He says, "If you should fail to do this and the Democrats elect Marshall and control the Legislature they will repeal the local option law, send Tom Taggart to the United States senate and you Prohibitionists will be responsible for the evils that will come from the liquor traffic in Indiana for the next twenty years."

LARGE EXHIBIT TO CHICAGO SHOW

E. G. Hill to Show Rhea Reid Rose.

E. G. Hill of this city, the world's famous rosarian, will send a large exhibit of his very latest species of roses to the great national flower show, which will be held at the Coliseum at Chicago, November 6 to 14. Among the roses Mr. Hill will exhibit will be the Rhea Reid variety, which won the highest honors at the international rose show held last summer in Paris, France.
