Professor Blackie's Opinion.
A correspondent sends an anecdote concerning the attempt of a serious minded lady to lure Professor Blackie into giving his opinion of Sankey's hymns at a time when they had an enormous vogue. The lady was giving the professor lunch, and he tried to fob her off by praising a Stilton cheese on the table. Some time after the lady sent him a copy of Sankey and a piece of the cheese, hoping thus to draw him. She succeeded to the extent of these four lines of verse:

Three blessed is she that hath done what she could
To make a lean man fat and a bad man good.
For the body, cheese; for the soul, Sankey;
For both, thanks. —Glasgow Herald.

A Polite Turn Down.
Sir Algernon West in his reminiscences tells this story of Robert Browning: "When he had become famous some one wanted very much to meet him. A kind friend arranged a meeting, and the guest besieged Browning with questions and conversation during dinner, and even after dinner he continued buttonholing his victim. 'Come,' said the poet, 'this will never do. They will say I am monopolizing you!'"

Soda and Water.
For sheer simplicity of phrase and conception few have surpassed that delightful old lady, with a shrewd twinkle in her eye, inquired whether "soda water" should be written as two separate words or if there should be a hyphen between them.

ACTION OF CIVIC

LEAGUE IS NOT TAKEN SERIOUSLY

the replies made by him to the five questions asked of him by the Civic League. Mr. Ladd's answers to these queries are clear-cut, satisfactory and sincere. Question 4, in the list of queries sent to the candidates for prosecutor, asks if the candidate is of the opinion that the prosecutor should judge whether or not the law should be enforced and what his opinion is on the enforcement of liquor laws and Sunday desecration laws. To this question Mr. Ladd replied:

"I favor law enforcement, and if elected will strive to enforce the law against all persons who violate the same. The office of prosecuting attorney is a part of the executive branch of our state government, and such officer should not attempt to determine what laws shall be enforced, as I regard it his duty to make no discrimination but to enforce all laws enacted by the legislative department. This of course applies to the enforcement of the liquor laws and those against Sabbath desecration, to which you especially refer."

Replying to the query as to who he would appoint as his deputy Mr. Ladd replied as follows:

"I have not employed anyone as my deputy and do not expect to do so unless my official duties become so onerous as to justify such appointment. In the event it shall become proper or necessary to receive assistance in the circuit court, I shall leave the appointment to the honorable Judge of that court. The Hon. William A. Bond, about whom you ask, informed me before the last primary when his name was being used in connection with my candidacy, that under no consideration would he have any connection with this office and so far as I know he has not changed his mind. I cannot expect to receive the constant of such an experienced attorney. (Mr. Ladd studied law in Mr. Bond's office) who thereby would be compelled to suffer much financial loss. If, however, it should become necessary
