

ADMITTS HE TOOK STANDARD CASH

W. A. McGee Says That It Was
For Personal Business
Debt.

HEARST SURPRISES HIM.

FORMER PITTSBURG NEWSPAPER
PUBLISHER SAID HE HAD FOR-GOTTEN ABOUT THE STAND-ARD'S DONATION.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 2.—W. A. McGee, who has been named by William R. Hearst as one of those favored with checks from John D. Archbold when he was a newspaper publisher in 1899, said Sunday:

"Certainly I got that money. I had forgotten all about it until now, but I certainly did get a check about that time from Archbold or some one connected with the Standard Oil company and while I am not certain now as to the amount of the remittance, I suppose Mr. Hearst is right in his figures when he says $1,250."

"You were publisher of the Pittsburg Times at that time?"
"I was managing director of the Times then, I believe; also treasurer. In any event, I was virtually in control of the paper, which was owned principally by my brother, the late C. L. Magee; but the newspaper had nothing to do with this money proposition from the Standard Oil people."

"Will you tell for what purpose the $1,250 was sent you by Mr. Archbold?"
"No, certainly not. It was a matter of private business. I was asked to do something in a business way for the Standard Oil people at that time, and I did it. The $1,250 was what I got for doing this work. My newspaper work was not in any way connected with this, nor did it interfere with my newspaper publishing. It was not a newspaper game, but a straight business proposition outside altogether. I do not see why my name should be brought before the public in this way."

Mr. Magee is a brother of the former State Senator Christopher L. Magee, the republican leader of Pennsylvania, for many years one of the best known men of Pittsburgh. Since the death of his brother some years ago, his eyesight has failed and the Times has been sold to and merged with the Pittsburgh Gazette, now being published as the Gazette-Times.

HIGHEST PRAISE

Some Richmond Citizens Grow Enthusiastic on the Subject.

The praise of the public. Is merit's just reward. Nothing in modern times Has received the praise accorded "The Little Conqueror."

Of some kinds of praises we are skeptical. We doubt the praise of strangers.

The highest praise for Richmond public

Is hearty expression from Richmond people.

Doan's Kidney Pills are endorsed in Richmond.

No better proof of merit can be had. Here's a case of it. We have plenty more like it.

Mrs. F. Heater, of 607 North Thirteenth Street, Richmond, Ind., says: "My son, while working one day, wrenched his back, and believing it had affected his kidneys he got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills from A. G. Luken & Co's Drug Store. After taking a few doses of this remedy the pain disappeared. He recommends Doan's Kidney Pills as a prompt cure for backache."

HAINES INSANE SAYS ATTORNEY

Once More the Trial Is Delayed.

New York, Nov. 2.—Hains brothers were arraigned in the supreme court this morning for the murder of William E. Annis. The defendants' lawyer made statements that Captain Hains is insane and any serious strain might result in his death. The case was permitted to over till next Monday, to give time for the preparation of affidavits by the defense.

Sick Headache

"I have been a frequent sufferer from sick headache for years, yet never would use headache tablets. My son persuaded me to use Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills during one of these attacks, and to my surprise it gave me speedy relief."

MRS. LOUISE LEWELLYN, Powell, S. D.
When the disturbance which causes headache affects the nerves at the base of the brain, which connect with the large nerves that run to the stomach, heart and lungs, it frequently causes headache with vomiting—sick headache.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills soothe the irritated brain nerves and the cause of pain is removed. The first package will benefit; if not, your druggist will return your money.

Beer And Democratic Oratory Flow Freely At Meetings

Indianapolis, Nov. 2.—Beer flowed freely in the Thirteenth ward yesterday afternoon and aided in driving home democratic doctrine at final meetings of the campaign addressed by Elliott Hooton, now prosecutor and candidate for re-election; Frank S. Fishback, candidate for treasurer of Marion county; Charles Remster, candidate for circuit judge and Jacob Woessner, candidate for sheriff.

The meetings were secret—that is, only the "faithful" and vouched for by some one in the rank or file, were admitted. Guards were stationed at the entrances where meetings were held, and to the best of their ability they excluded all save the "belonged."

Mr. Hooton and Mr. Fishback steamed about in a little red automobile, cheering the assembled voters and clinking a foamed-topped glass occasionally in a spirit of utter good fellowship. Mr. Remster and Mr. Woessner ambled about in a manner less plutocratic, but, in the parlance of the street, they "got there just the same."

One of the most enthusiastic meetings was that held in a barn at the rear of the residence of Charles G. Baase, formerly a saloon keeper. This was at 422 Parkway avenue. Cheers for Marshall were floating among the rafters when some one proposed a toast to the Democratic nominee for Governor.

"His health," was the slogan. The cheers subsided temporarily because they couldn't get out. The beer interfered. The seventy-five or 100 men who crowded the little place had just qualified for cheers again when Bernard Kelly rushed in to announce the arrival of Hooton and Fishback. The cheers were utilized and then John Mahoney, committeeman in the Second Precinct, introduced "the next prosecutor."

Mr. Hooton acknowledged the compliment and urged the men to get out and work on election day.

40,000 ON PARADE

Great Catholic Demonstration
Ends Centenary Celebration.

REVIEWED BY GIBBONS.

Boston, Nov. 2.—What was probably the greatest parade of a religious character in the history of New England brought to a close Sunday the centenary celebration of the founding of the Roman Catholic diocese of Boston, which was begun on Wednesday last. It is estimated that fully 40,000 men, representing the Holy Name Societies of the Roman Catholic churches in the five counties which constitute the diocese, with over 150 priests, participated, marching to the music of 100 bands. Thousands of spectators filled every point of vantage along the line of march.

Passing before the archiepiscopal residence on Bay State road the parade was reviewed by Cardinal Gibbons and Archbishop William H. O'Donnell, together with a number of visiting prelates, from a reviewing stand.

The day was begun with a solemn pontifical mass at the cathedral of the Holy Cross, with Archbishop O'Donnell as celebrant, and Cardinal Gibbons occupying the pontifical throne within the sanctuary. Tonight, in the same edifice, the Te Deum service was held.

PREDICTS TAFT WILL BE ELECTED

Local Prognostication Has a Record.

Prof. H. H. Kolling predicts that Taft will be elected. Today the Palladium received the following communication from him:

Since the first race of General U. S. Grant, for President in 1869, I have made forecasts, two days before elections as to which political party would win. My only failure was in 1877 when I predicted the election of Samuel J. Tilden.

I now forecast the election of Wm. H. Taft, for our next President to a positive certainty.

As to Governor of our State, there is such disturbing elements and confusion in Indiana, all owing to Governor Hanley's calling a special session of the Legislature, I am unable to forecast with certainty which party will win. If Watson is defeated, Gov. Hanley should be held responsible.

Sincerely,
PROF. H. H. KOLLING.

BUGGY AND HARNESS CUT BY VANDAL

S. E. Alexander Suffers a Loss.

While in the city Saturday, S. E. Alexander was made the victim of unusual treatment. Mr. Alexander resides half a mile north of Chester and after arriving in the city hitched his horse to a public rack. He left it and went down town. When he returned he found his lines and other parts of the harness had been cut. The cushions on the seats of the rig had been cut, also. It appeared as if the work had been done by a knife.

"Shet Up," Screamed Woman to Policeman Who Butted In Argument

Six women of the neighborhood gossip variety gathered in the front lobby of a building on Main street Sunday afternoon and there held forth in loud ear-piercing tones, their respective opinions of Messrs. Taft and Bryan. The black looks directed at them by a large number of people who were passing by were absolutely ignored.

"Dye want yer husband to remain poor all his life? Dye want to keep on starvin'?" Well if ye don't, what d'ye keep on chewin' the rag about Taft fer?" demanded one stout housewife in shrill tones.

"My old man aint poor and we aint starvin' now ner never have been. If you elect that there Bryan then you'll know what starvin' is alright, alright!" was the sharp come back, delivered in such loud voice that a policeman pounced down upon the disputants.

"Here you, cut that rag chewin' out. If you can't keep yer tongues from clackin' why beat it," said the policeman.

"Shetup yerself. You must be a republican," screamed the Bryan admirer in the ear of the officer, who turned and fled. The uproar of the female debaters continued for some time.

BARNARD CLAIMS OPPONENT FIBBED

Says He Never Said Old Soldiers Deserved No More Than Other Citizens.

KUHN ANSWERS BACK.

SAID OLD SOLDIERS OF HENRY COUNTY FURNISHED HIM WITH EVIDENCE NOT EASILY DISPUTED.

Hagerstown, Ind., Nov. 2.—In the most emphatic manner, Judge Barnard, the candidate for congress, denounced as maliciously false certain statements contained in a letter written by T. H. Kuhn, the democratic candidate, and sent to old soldiers over the Sixth district.

The statement which Judge Barnard pronounces as unqualifiedly false is that some years ago, when Barnard was a candidate for judge of the Henry circuit court, his opponent was an old soldier; that Barnard went about over the county saying old soldiers deserved no more than other citizens and that they had already received all they ought to have.

Barnard's speech before a large audience sizzled with indignation when he pronounced the charge a deliberate lie. All old soldiers in this section have received this letter and unite in resenting the attempt to secure their votes. Judge Barnard declared his friendship for old soldiers and said the best that was possible to be obtained for them was none too good.

KUHN SAYS ITS SO.

Says Old Soldiers Furnished Information.

When asked concerning the Barnard reply to the letters, the Rev. Kuhn of this city stated that he had secured information for his statement by several old soldiers in Henry county who had heard Barnard make the charge and the evidence could not be disputed, he thought.

MONUMENT IS DONE

Handsone Shaft to Father
McMullen in St. Mary's
Cemetery Dedicated.

IS PRESENTED TO CHURCH.

Undoubtedly one of the most unique and most beautiful monuments near Richmond, is that to the late Rev. Father McMullen, which was dedicated yesterday in the St. Mary's cemetery. The tombstone is an exact likeness to the one of Arch Bishop Elder at Cincinnati. It is made of bronze and is made up of the best known Bible characters constituting the Crucifixion, with the Virgin on one side and St. John on the other, with Mary Magdalena in the center. It was made in Europe.

It was presented to the church yesterday by Mr. Eagon through Father Mattingly, who blessed it and the vestments of the dead were held.

In his will the late Father McMullen left $100 to the St. Mary's church, the interest of which for the next fifty years is to be diverted to the keeping up of the monument and after that time, the money is to be given to the church.

A FEROCIOUS EARL

Alexander of Buchan, Known as the "Wolf of Badenoch."

During the restoration of Dunkeld cathedral the workmen unearthed the remains of Bishop Sinclair, one of those who assisted in the building of the cathedral, and of the notorious Alexander, earl of Buchan, whose ferocity won for him the significant title of the "wolf of Badenoch." A memorial marks the spot where the "wolf" was buried, and it has often been a subject of remark by visitors that a man who plundered churches and in various ways showed his hatred of the clergy should have been laid to rest side by side with bishops and other ecclesiastics.

Alexander, earl of Buchan, was a younger son of Robert II. of Scotland. During the closing years of the latter's reign the chief powers in the state were delegated to his sons, the

THE BOSTONIAN SHOE For Men

Built on reasonable lines. Every curve and swell of the foot finds a corresponding form in a "Bostonian" shoe. That means actual and unqualified foot-comfort, because tired feet, sore joints and those agonizing little things called corns, are caused by shoes which attempt to shape the foot to themselves rather than shape themselves to the foot.

"Bostonian" shoes fit like a sock—they touch all over but they do it easy; and when you come to "Bostonian" "style" and "wear," there's nothing to be desired.
