

EARLHAM HAS LITTLE CHANCE

Is Almost Sure to Be Defeated
By Rose Poly in Saturday's Game.

FOUR REGULARS ARE OUT.

BACKFIELD IS SLOW AND HAS LITTLE CHANCE ON OFFENSE.
—LARGE SCORE IS EXPECTED TO BE ROLLED UP.

By Tort.

At 7:30 o'clock tomorrow morning the Earlham football team, minus at least four of its best men, namely: Captain Harrell, Hancock, Larrance and Gaston, goes to meet certain defeat at Terre Haute at the hands of the strong Rose Poly team, which early in the season conquered Washburn. The team that Coach Vail will place in the field is in good condition but is the same crude, slow working machine that was smashed into junk last Saturday on Reid Field by Butler.

Butler defeated this outfit by a score of 31 to 0, and the indications are Rose Poly will win by a score equally large or larger. This prediction is not in the spirit of a "knock," it is made after a study of the merits of the two teams.

With Larrance running the team at quarterback, with Captain Harrell at full back, and with Hancock and Gaston on the ends might be a different tale to tell. Minus these four players the Earlham team is, from a secondary championship standpoint, impossible. Beebe, who subs for Hancock at left end, is a fairly good player, but too light. Reagan has shown no class and will be unable to fill Gaston's place with satisfaction.

Hill and C. Jones, who will alternate at quarterback, are only fair. Neither is a good field general. The back field without Harrell acts in a demoralized manner, playing a poor defensive game and being fearfully slow executing plays on the offense. It is impossible for Earlham to execute the forward pass with its slow backs, and it is equally impossible for the team to break up forward pass plays on the part of its opponents. The line is fairly good—so is the tackling and White's punting. Summing everything up the Earlham team as it now stands is a great disappointment and one of the slowest outfits that ever represented the Quaker institution.

Coach "Heze" Clark, of Rose Poly, has his team in fine shape and is confident of winning by a large score.

FOR CHAMPIONSHIP

Wrestler Olson Meets Americus in Baltimore Tonight.

HE EXPECTS A VICTORY.

By Tort.

Tonight Charley Olson, of Indianapolis, who is to wrestle here next Thursday night with Peterson, will meet Gus Schoenlein, better known as Americus, at Baltimore for a $2,000 purse and incidentally to decide the light heavyweight championship of the world. This title is claimed by both men. Americus bases his claim on his recent victory over Fred Beell. In the match tonight Olson is the favorite among Baltimore fans. The match will be refereed by Tim Hurst, the famous baseball umpire and prize fight referee.

Olson left Indianapolis for Baltimore last Sunday, and was in splendid condition for his important match with Americus. He stated that he expected to win handily. If the big fellow shows the cleverness, nerve, skill and coolness that he did here last week in his match with the Turk he should have no difficulty in securing a clear title to the light heavyweight championship of the world.

After tonight's match Olson will not again enter the ring until next Thursday night when he is billed to meet Peterson in a handicap match at the coliseum, this city. Under terms this match will be fought, Peterson wins the match by throwing Olson one time. On the other hand Olson to win the match must throw Peterson twice in seventy-five minutes.

Peterson is a big fellow and said to be a mighty clever mat artist. He has this fall met and defeated such clever light heavyweights as Joe LaSalle and Carl Busch.

BIG GAME TOMORROW

Richmond High School Eleven
Will Play Steele of Dayton.

LOCALS HOPE FOR VICTORY

By Tort.

While Earlham has one of the poorest teams in its history, Richmond high school has one of the best eleven that ever represented that institution, and if the football fans of this city desire to see one of the best football games that will be played in this city this season, they should journey to the

Affairs of the Sporting World

As usual the crowd of the season will attend the Indian game at Cambridge, Saturday. Carlisle beat Harvard last year, and has just trounced the Navy after holding Penn to a 6 to 6 tie. The Harvard management will do its utmost to keep seats out of the hands of the speculators, who, it will be remembered, were pretty badly "stung" last year.

Since 1893 Bates and University of Maine have played twenty-three games of football, meeting twice for several seasons running. Bates has won fourteen games, and Maine has won five games. Bates has scored 300 points and Maine 95 points. There have been four tie games. Maine's 6 to 0 victory over Bates, Saturday, was especially gratifying, as the teams played 0 to 0 games in 1905 and 1906, and last year played a third consecutive tie, 6 to 6.

As the days wear on, it seems a shame to go to the expense of sending the Pennsylvania eleven clear to Ann Arbor for a mere practice skirmish. Why not let the freshmen go and save the "varsity" for Cornell.

Yale foot ball player quits the eleven suddenly and becomes married. He should have the right properties for a happy life. What rolling pin or trading-stamp vase could hurt anybody with a nose guard and bear harness.

The injury to Captain Burr of the Harvard team is more serious than was first reported, and it seems almost certain that the Crimson team will be deprived of the services of this valuable player for the remainder of the season.

Dartmouth must have some surprise to spring in the game with Princeton, Saturday, for reports from Hanover are that the Dartmouth team is confident of beating the Tigers. Comparative scores make Princeton the favorite. Williams and Dartmouth tied; Syracuse 23, Williams 0; Princeton 0.

public school play grounds, South Twenty-second street, tomorrow afternoon and see the Richmond high school-Steele (Dayton) high school game. Both teams are equally matched and play fast, heady football.

Early in the season R. H. S. met Steele on its own grounds and was defeated 6 to 0 in a hotly fought, brilliant game. Steele greatly outweighed the locals, but this handicap was offset by the speed of the Richmond eleven. Since that game R. H. S. has improved greatly in its play, and the chances of victory over the Dayton eleven are good.

succeeded Senator Kittredge, who always has voted as Aldrich directed.

Hansbrough, of North Dakota, will not return; Hemenway, of Indiana, cannot be re-elected, and Foraker of Ohio, one of his chief lieutenants, will be retired.

While the members may not refuse to obey him, the fact that they replace others who have served long in the senate and were in a position to cajole the democrats into submission to aid in suppressing radical republicans will weaken his position.

This situation, as well as the position of the republicans in the house, was reviewed by the protectionists. The decision to re-elect Speaker Cannon led one leader to predict that, while there would be plenty of talk, little would be done in the way of revision.

Keep Baby Healthy; Free

No child can be well and strong unless its bowels move regularly every day at the same hour. Such regularity promotes good health. One passage is absolutely necessary, while two are not too many.

There is one remedy that is especially adapted to the needs of children, and which thousands of American mothers are using today, and that is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, the great herb laxative.

Mrs. M. F. Cash, of Webb, Okla., is an old-time friend of this wonderful child's remedy and she says she could scarcely keep house without it. She became acquainted with it through Dr. Caldwell's offer of a free trial bottle, which she found so effective on her baby that she used it in a free sample, then bought it. It is only 50 cents or $1 a bottle. It gave her little girl a splendid appetite and a vigorous stomach. Where Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin once finds its way into the home it makes a life-long friend. They soon discard salts, pills and powders.

Those who have never yet used Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin should begin to do so, for they are missing a valuable ally in their efforts to keep their children healthy. In order to acquaint you with its merits at no expense to yourself, the doctor will send you a free trial bottle on receipt of name and address. It has been justly called the nation's safeguard to health in the cure of constipation, dyspepsia, heartburn, liver trouble, sick headache, sour stomach and similar digestive ailments.

If there is anything about your ailment that you don't understand, or if you want any medical advice, write to the doctor, and he will answer you fully. There is no charge for this service. The address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 501 Caldwell bldg., Monticello, Ill.

Syracuse 0. Coach John H. Hubbard, former All-American back, after seeing Dartmouth play, said: "The Hanover back field equals any in the county, but the line is weak and would be powerless against a strong offense. I believe the line must improve 50 per cent for Dartmouth to have any chance of defeating Princeton."

Willus Britt, manager of Battling Nelson, is now looking after the affairs of Marvin Hart, the Louisville heavyweight. Willus will try to clinch a match between Hart and Al Kaufman, to be fought in California the latter part of this month if Hart is successful in beating John Wille, the Chicago pugilist, in their six-round bout at the National A. C. of Philadelphia, Nov. 14. Britt seems to think that Hart can give Kaufman a hard fight.

Abe Attell, the featherweight champion of the world, is going out of his class again to fight a lightweight. He was matched last night to meet Freddie Welsh, the English scrapper, in a fifteen-round bout at a special show to be pulled off by the Jeffries A. C. in its arena at Los Angeles, Cal., Thanksgiving day afternoon. They will battle at 130 pounds, weigh in at 2 p. m., and Attell is to receive $3,000 for his end, while Welsh will get 50 per cent of the gross receipts. It ought to be one of the cleverest battles ever witnessed in California, as both lads are scientific boxers and fairly good punchers.

Packey McFarland, the Chicago lightweight, will train at Essington, Pa., for his six-round bout with Tommy Murphy, which will come off at the National A. C. of Philadelphia, Nov. 18. Packey and his manager, Harry Gilmore, and his trainer, Pat Kennelly, will leave New York for that town today to get in shape for the contest. "I will be in grand condition for Murphy," said McFarland last night, "as Murphy is a great fighter and I will have to be an my best in order to beat him."

The first session of the twenty-third annual convention of the Young Women's Christian Association, was held at the Reid Memorial church last evening, at which there was a large attendance of both visiting delegates and the members of the Y. W. C. A. of Earlham College. The large majority of the delegates did not arrive until this morning.

Dr. William Bartlett was the speaker of last evening, and gave a very interesting address on "Christ and Womanhood," talking as his text, Luke 1:42, "Blessed art thou among women." He dealt with his subject in a most masterly way, greatly pleasing the large audience. During his address, Dr. Bartlett pointed out that the capacity of woman's love has never been sounded, and that they often give to extravagance and let their hearts lead them in the dark.

President Robert Kelley, of Earlham College, gave the address of welcome in behalf of Earlham College, and Dr. S. R. Lyons, pastor of the Reid Memorial United Presbyterian church, in behalf of the city. Rev. Allen Jay had charge of the devotional exercises. Mrs. W. F. McCrea, state chairman, presided over the meeting.

Dr. Bartlett is the pastor of the Congregational church at Chicago, and in part he said:

"One of the strange and unaccountable facts is the relation of women to the rest of the world. No one seems to know just why women should be made the butt of all jokes and invectives in civilized communities, and should have been the drudge and slave in both orient and occident. Yet all the time there stands the record sublime in its simple beauty that the crown and makes complete the creation, God 'brought her unto man,' and Adam said this is now bone of my bone and flesh of my flesh—therefore shall man leave his father and mother and cleave unto his wife: and they shall be one flesh." Perhaps you can tell me why the jeer at the mother-in-law is so common, while no one ever thinks of father-in-law. And yet who can be more unattractive at critical periods, and yet so thoughtless at other times than a possible father-in-law.

Women of the Bible.

"I desire to call your attention to the relation of Bible to woman. You have seen that in the story of creation no higher place could have been accorded to woman. The world's joys and the world's work were not possible without her, and even in the garden period before the curse of sin came into the human family, it states that she was the helpmate, showing that paradise was not playhouse, that work was a part of the plan and woman was not the toy nor the ornament merely, but a fellow laborer and co-partner in life's upbuilding.

"All through the Old Testament woman holds an exalted position. Characters like the mother of Moses, Miriam and Deborah, and motherhood with its faiths and love is exalted in Hannah. But, however, not any place in the Old Testament does it regard woman as degraded as under the regime of ancient religions of India, China, Turkey or Japan.

"The capacity of woman's heart for love has not yet been sounded. Many of the sins inflicted upon her and for which she in the beginning is hardly responsible, arise from her love which sweetens and beautifies the world. Jesus knew the history of all women. Women are to be the best rescuers of their sinning sex instead of being the harshest judges of them, even Jesus, himself, has set the example and has revealed the deepest knowledge of woman's heart. Martha was a good housekeeper to the point of worrying. Mary had chosen that good part which shall not be taken away from her. The Lord is more pleased at the attention from a sister who would listen to instructions, than to one unmetakenly supposed she should find the way to his heart through his stomach. I would here suggest that if the Lord is satisfied with lesser entertainment that much worry and anxiety and expense of modern hospitality might be spared and if we made mere man or even women of our afternoon teas partake of a simpler repast."

State Reports Read.

The reports that were given this morning by State Chairman Mrs. F. F. McCrea and State Treasurer Mrs. Kautz were the most interesting features in this morning's program of the Young Women's Christian Association that is in session at the Reid Memorial church. The reports dealt with the conditions of the Y. W. C. A.'s work in the state of Indiana, and showed that it is flourishing. It is the hope that more city organizations can be perfected during the coming year. The report by the treasurer dealt mainly with the rapid progress that has been made in the past year.

The interesting parts of the program this afternoon were the short talks by Miss Cynthia D. Meyer, general secretary of the Indianapolis city association on "The Field," and "A Valiant Soldier of Jesus Christ" by Miss Florence Hanson, of Earlham College; "The Reserve Corps," by Miss Elizabeth Wheeler, general secretary of Indiana University. "Recruiting" was a discussion in which all the delegates took part.

The chief address of this evening will be "The Opportunity of the Hour in the Far East" by Miss Ruth Paxson, traveling secretary of the volunteer movement.

CONTROL HOUSE BY SMALL MAJORITY

Latest Returns Give Republicans 41.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 6.—The republican party will, according to present returns from all congressional districts in the United States, control the next national house of representatives by a majority of 41. The figures so far received show the election of 218 republicans and 175 democrats, a gain for the latter party of 9.

The majorities in several districts are reported as extremely close, and it is possible that in a few instances the official count may change the figures given above.

How is Your Digestion?

Mrs. Mary Dowling of No. 228 8th Ave., San Francisco, recommends a remedy for stomach trouble. She says: "Gratitude for the wonderful effect of Electric Bitters in a case of acute indigestion, prompts this testimonial. I am fully convinced that for stomach and liver troubles Electric Bitters is the best remedy on the market today." This great tonic and alterative medicine invigorates the system, purifies the blood and is especially helpful in all forms of female weakness. 50c. at A. G. Luken & Co. drug store.
