CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to extend our heart-felt thanks to our many friends, neighbors and the ladies of the Golden Eagle for their sympathy and assistance during the sickness and death of our beloved husband and father, also to the Western and Southern Ins. Co. for their prompt settlement of the claim.

Mrs. Edward A. Brown and family.

CARD OF THANKS.

It is a remarkable fact that, as with various natural so-called "mineral waters" so with various "airs" which people find beneficial, no one has yet clearly and decisively shown, in the first place, whether they exert any chemical effect of a special kind on the people who seem to benefit by drinking the one or breathing the other. Still less has any one shown what is the particular chemical ingredient of the air or of the water of any given resort which exerts the beneficial effect attributed to that air or that water.

—Sir E. Ray Lankester in London Telegraph.

A Habit He Won't Contract. A man who signs himself "A Son of Rest" sends us the following:

"Several people have asked me why I never work. I take this means of replying to all.

"The habit of working is like a habit of taking dope. If a man is a dope fiend and stops it he dies. Now, if a man gets the habit of working and then stops it he starves to death. Same thing. I shall never contract such a habit."—Cleveland Leader.

Deaths and Funerals

WEIHMAYER—The funeral of Frederick Wehmayer will be Monday afternoon. Short services will be held at the home, 613 South Seventh street at 2 o'clock after which the remains will be taken to the St. John's Lutheran church where the regular services will be conducted by the Rev. A. J. Feeger. The burial will be in the Lutheran cemetery.

BIRTHS. Edward and Lenna Simms, 568 North Seventeenth street, girl, second child.

Contagion. Hershall, aged 17, in the family of Mrs. A. F. Trueblood, 20 South 12th street, typhoid fever.

NOTED ANAGRAMS.

Ingenious Transmutation of Names of Well Known Persons.

Anagrams that transmute the names of well known men and women are often startlingly appropriate. What could be better in this way than these announcements, evolved from two great statesmen's names when the reins of power changed hands: Gladstone, "G leads not!" Disraeli, "I lead, sir!" Quite as happy is the comment on the devoted nursing of Florence Nightingale, whose name yields "Filt on, cheering angel." Among those that are most often quoted we may mention Horatio Nelson, "Honor set a Nite"; Charles James Stuart, "Claims Arthur's seat"; Plato's question, "Quid est veritas?" ("What is truth?"), answered by "Est vir qui adest" ("It is the man here present"); Swedish nightingale, "Sing high, sweet Linda"; David Livingstone, "D. V. go and visit Nile"; the Marquis of Ripon (who resigned the grand mastership of Freemasons when he became a Romanist), "R. I. P., quoth Freemasons"; Charles, prince of Wales, "All France calls, Oh, help!" Sir Roger Charles Doughty Tichborne, baronet, "Ton horrid butcher Orton, biggest rascal here," and many shorter specimens, such as telegraph, "great help;" astronomer, "no more stars" and "moon starters;" one hug, "enough;" editors, "so tired;" tournament, "to run at men;" penitentiary, "may, I repent;" old England, "golden land;" revolution, "to love ruin;" fashionable, "one-half bias;" lawyers, "sly ware;" misanthropist, "mind his map;" poorhouse, "Oh, soul hope;" Freehymer, "best in prayer;" sweetheart, "there we sat;" matrimony, "into my arm;" Chambers' Journal.
