A basket supper will be given at the Boston Short Creek school on the Boston pike in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Study of Williamsburg, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. Y. Barnes, 1315 North A street, over Sunday.

Mr. George Fulle left last evening for Chicago for a few days' stay.

Miss Ina Clawson will entertain a number of guests informally Thursday evening at her home on South Eighth street.

A number of young people from Dayton will spend Sunday in this city.

Miss Mabel Barber entertained a number of guests informally last evening at her home on South Thirteenth street. The affair was in the nature of a dinner party.

Mr. Bruno Steindel is well known to Richmond musicians. He is without question the world's greatest living cello virtuoso and his recital will be an event in our musical life.

Mr. Hans Schroeder was for many years one of Berlin's greatest opera baritones, singing the leading roles in "Trovatore," "Faust," "Mignon," "Tannhauser," "Figaro," etc. Later he was led by the refined quality of his voice to devote himself entirely to concerts and oratorios, meeting with unusual success as a Lieder and Oratorio singer in Berlin, Leipzig, Munich, Vienna, and Amsterdam. As a reader of Brahms, Schumann and the classics, Mr. Schroeder is unsurpassed.

Jeanette Durno is a product of the great Leschetizky, and has made a tremendous success abroad, as well as in America, appearing with our greatest orchestras. She has played over twenty-three times with the Thomas orchestra alone, and was a favorite artist with Mr. Theodore Thomas himself. She left America the last of December to fill two years' engagements in European musical centers. Mr. Thomas called her "a student in Bach and Beethoven, a poet in Chopin and Schumann, and an Amazon in Liszt and Tchaikowsky."

Hugo Kortschak was for six years a member of Berlin's Hugo Heermann String Quartette, and was brought over to America with Hugo Heermann, the greatest violinist Germany has ever produced, by Dr. Ziegfeld, of the Chicago Musical College. At his first appearance as soloist with the Theodore Thomas orchestra, Mr. Stock and the orchestra went wild over him, many saying he played like Vsay and Kubelik.

Mr. Glenn Dillard Gunn is the musical editor of the Chicago Inter Ocean, has twice been elected president of the Illinois Music Teachers' Association, and in connection with the University of Chicago Extension has given over twenty lecture-recitals in Chicago during the past year. His lectures are illustrated at the piano by comprehensive programs, selected from the whole range of classic and modern music, including not only the literature of the piano, but such examples of orchestral, operatic and song literature as are essential to his purpose.

The first recital will be given Dec. 9, the second Jan. 6, the third on Feb. 8, and the fourth on some date in April, yet to be selected.

No single admissions will be sold to any of the concerts, but a number of season tickets will be issued. It is expected that the tickets will all be taken two weeks before the first program. But a small number remain to be subscribed for and when they are taken no further seats can be had. The recitals will be held at the General theater.
