BUT THEY WERE GUILTY.

It is a good thing in these days when success is measured in dollars and cents and the world's estimate of a man is usually "How much is he worth," to see that occasionally men who amass fortunes by devious methods come to grief. Therefore the conviction of Charles W. Morse is like a draught of ice water in a desert.

He is sentenced to jail for fifteen years for violating the banking laws of the United States.

Morse, is one of those reckless figures in American finance who has caused no end of trouble to his business associates and who was one of the first of the rolling stones in the panic of 1907.

His rise from a small coal and ice dealer to the control of the Ice Trust and thence on to his notorious chain of banks may be romantic—but unhealthful reading, it is certainly.

But the time came when Morse could no longer borrow over half the resources of his bank undisturbed or rather the panic which was instituted by his business rivals, prevented him from putting it back.

It may seem a commentary on the board of directors and the American system of banking. But it is nevertheless true that it was largely this occurrence which led to the late ruling of the comptroller of the currency that the bank examiners must question the directorate of each bank to establish what relations are actually in force between the directors and the management.

Be that as it may.
The reorganization of the banking laws is as nothing compared with the gain which the public morality receives in this case.

It is a good tonic.
Perhaps now the thing once known as honesty will prove a little more attractive. This sounds harsh. Wall Street itself has a harsher thing to say.

The Wall Street Journal—the "Pulse of the Street," remarked in editorial comment not long ago, that what American business needed for its own good, was failing the restoration of the Ten Commandments to power and suggested that congress assembled try furnish a substitute for them.

As for the sympathy which is perhaps rightfully bestowed on his family—it is not the jail sentence which should be so hard to bear as the jeers of the rabble of New York. And yet the poor of New York City can remember the time when babies died for want of ice, the price of which Morse, the Ice King had raised to five times the prior rate.

Whether this man yet escapes on a technicality—he is branded with worse than a hot iron—but who will say he does not deserve it?

Usually these things are found out after the funeral.

WOULD NOT BE MORGANATIC WIFE

No Definite Plans for Abruzzi-Elkins Wedding.

Elkins, W. Va., Nov. 10.—That the marriage of the Duke of the Abruzzi to Miss Catherine Elkins, daughter of United States Senator Stephen B. Elkins, is still a matter of future determination is the information given out here by members of the family.

It is strongly denied that Miss Elkins has ordered her trousseau and it is also declared with emphasis that under no circumstances would there be the slightest consideration by the Elkins family of a morganatic marriage. It is given out there has been no change in the status of affairs for several months and that no definite announcement need be expected for some time. It is also asserted there has been no talk of a special dowry.

MASONIC CALENDAR.

Tuesday Evening, Nov. 10.—Richmond Lodge No. 196, F. & A. M., called meeting, Master Mason's degree.

Friday Evening, Nov. 13.—King Solomon's Chapter, No. 4, R. A. M., stated convocation.

Charles P. Taft May be Made Member of the United States Senate From the State of Ohio

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 10.—That Charles P. Taft is a candidate for United States Senator to succeed Joseph Benson Foraker is firmly believed by every republican politician about the capital. It is hardly necessary, therefore, for him to make a formal declaration at this time. Inquiry develops the interesting fact that practically every member of the republican state organization from Arthur I. Vorys down is for Taft. They add the qualification, however, that this support is to be forthcoming only in the event that he enters the race. This is a very proper action on their part even though it means nothing just now. Something may turn up that will prevent the Cincinnati man from standing as a candidate, and in that event these leaders would be free to act in the interest of some other favorite son. The wisdom of Mr. Taft in letting matters drift is now apparent. It is enough to let the members-elect of the republican caucus know that he is a possibility.

ELECTION PETITION

Effort Will Be Made to Make Preble County Dry as Sahara.

MANY VOTERS SIGN IT.

New Paris, O., Nov. 10.—Petitions are being circulated in every school district of Jefferson township in the effort to secure signatures asking for a special election under the Rose county local option law. It is expected 75 per cent of the voters will sign the petition. Similar petitions are being circulated throughout Preble county in the effort to have it voted dry.

Those persons who are promoting the petition proposition are confident enough of signatures will be secured to induce the commissioners to call the election. After the call is issued the real work will begin. It has been the history of such events in other counties that many men who will not sign the petition will vote against the saloons and on the other hand there is a number that will sign the petition, but not vote against the saloons. A determined fight is to be put on in this county and it is expected the result will be close.

HEXAMETHYLENETETRAMINE

The above is the name of a German chemical, which is one of the many valuable ingredients of Foley's Kidney Remedy. Hexamethylenetetramine is recognized by medical text books and authorities as a uric acid solvent and antiseptic for the urine. Take Foley's Kidney Remedy as soon as you notice any irregularities, and avoid a serious malady. A. G. Luken & Co.

INTEREST TAKEN IN CORN SCHOOL

Event at Centerville in February.

Interest is being aroused among the farmers in the township school, which will be held at Centerville in February. A leading farmer in every township has been appointed as a committeeman and he has been asked to appoint helpers. It is expected that in this way every rural resident will learn that something can be gained by attending the school. Special privileges will be accorded pupils of the township schools.

FINGERS AMPUTATED.

Samuel Gramney Meets With a Bad Accident.

While cleaning a machine at the Richmond Casket Company's plant yesterday afternoon, the fingers of the left hand of Samuel Gramney were lacerated. He was removed to the hospital in the city ambulance. Amputation of all the fingers was found necessary. Dr. Morrow was summoned in the case. Gramney resides at 129 South Ninth street.

The Quickest and Simplest Cough Cure.

Better than all the cough medicines you could buy and far more effective, is a simple remedy that you can make at home in five minutes. A whole pint of it—enough to last a family a long time—costs only 54 cents. It is pleasant to take.

It will usually conquer a deep-seated cough in 24 hours. Two or three doses usually overcome an ordinary cough. It is also splendid for colds, bronchial troubles, incipient lung trouble, whooping cough, etc. This is the recipe:
Granulated Sugar Syrup.....13½ oz.
Pinex.....2½ oz.
Take a pint of Granulated Sugar, add ½ cup of water, stir and let boil just a moment. Put the 2½ oz. Pinex (fifty cents worth) in a pint bottle and fill it up with the Syrup. If kept well corked it will never spoil. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours as required.

Granulated Sugar Syrup is a simple but excellent sedative. Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway White Pine Extract and is rich in all the medicinal elements of the pine. Colds and coughs are almost unknown in the great pine forests, and it is in these wonderful woods that consumption has been most successfully treated, the very air being charged with the chemical virtues of the pine. There are many pine oil and pine tar preparations, but none of these compare with the real Pinex itself. All druggists have it or can get it if requested.

HORTICULTURALISTS MEET IN DECEMBER

State Convention To Be Held In Indianapolis.

On December 2 and 3 at Indianapolis, the fruit growers, truckers, gardeners and other horticulturalists, will meet in annual convention. The meeting promises to be of unusual interest, as vital problems which confront the horticultural interest, will come up for consideration.

The program is most excellent and contains the names of some of the most able men in the United States. Among these are Prof. U. P. Hedrick, horticulturist, New York Agricultural Experiment station; Prof. S. W. Fletcher, director Virginia Agricultural Experiment station; Mr. U. T. Cox, president Ohio State Horticultural society; Prof. Jas. Troop, horticulturist of the Indiana Agricultural Experiment station; Prof. B. W. Douglass, state entomologist, besides other practical and eminent men from our own and other states.

The sessions will begin on Wednesday, December 2, at 1:30 p. m. Three hundred dollars in premiums are offered for exhibits in fruits, flowers, nuts and vegetables.

BRIDGE BURNS; TRAIN DELAYED

The Big Four Sends Trains Through Richmond.

Big Four trains between New Castle and Lynn yesterday were delayed via this city. A bridge at Losantville burned out. The Big Four trains came to this city over the Panhandle lines and returned to their own tracks at Lynn off the G. R. & I. tracks. It is believed the bridge was fired by a passing engine dropping coals on it. All traffic on this line was delayed. Repairs were made as soon as the fire was extinguished.

Mind Your Business!

If you don't nobody will. It is your business to keep out of all the trouble you can and you can and will keep out of liver and bowel trouble if you take Dr. King's New Life Pills. They keep biliousness, malaria and jaundice out of your system. 25c. at A. G. Luken & Co. drug store.

TYPHOID FEVER EPIDEMIC OVER

Only Three Wernle Orphans Have Disease.

The epidemic of typhoid fever has practically run its course among the children at the Wernle Orphans' Home. During the scourge there were thirty patients and out of this number two fatalities resulted. The stamping out of the disease is due mainly to the excellent treatment given patients at the Reid Memorial hospital. It is now believed by the officials of the home that there is very little likelihood of new cases.

At present there are three patients at the hospital, but it is stated that they will be able to return to the Home some time this week.

CASTRO'S SECOND NOTE RECEIVED

Dutch Slow to Act Against Venezuela.

The Hague, Nov. 10.—The reply of President Castro of Venezuela to the second note of the Netherlands government has been received here. There will be several meetings of the cabinet to discuss the communication before any definite decision is reached regarding a future course of action.

Addressing the second Chamber Foreign Minister Van Swinderen explained that the suspension of the Holland-Venezuelan treaty of 1894 has been ordered because President Castro had failed to comply with the demand of the Netherlands government that the transshipments decree issued last summer against Curacao be withdrawn before November 1.

SOUTH PREPARES FOR TAFT VISIT

President-elect Will Winter in Georgia, According to Plans.

LIKES THE GAME OF GOLF.

PRESIDENT SAYS HE INTENDS TO DO WHAT HE CAN TO POPULARIZE IT, AS IT FITTED HIM FOR STRENUOUS CAMPAIGN.

Hot Springs, Va., Nov. 10.—President-elect Taft spends the greater part of the time on the golf links.

Mr. Taft says that he intended to contribute his share to popularizing golf in this country. He is going to start right in here at Hot Springs.

Playing golf is a serious work for Mr. Taft, as he has explained.

"A man of my build requires exercise in the open air," he said, "and exercise, to be beneficial, must be entertaining, of course. I can ride, but one cannot maintain a keen interest in riding a horse. In golf there is just enough skill required to get up a keen interest in the game, and this takes up your thoughts while you are getting a five or six mile walk."

Not a Rich Man's Game.
Judge Taft maintains that golf is not a "rich man's game." In Scotland, he said, it is played generally by the populace, and in this country its devotees are becoming more numerous each year.

It was golf, Mr. Taft believes, that put him in the splendid physical condition he was in when he took up the strenuous work of the campaign and enabled him to get through it without a breakdown. He will play the game this winter as much as possible to get in shape for his duties at the white house next spring.

The stay of President-elect Taft at the Virginia Hot Springs will be prolonged until the first week of December, if the ordinary season of mild weather here prevails. It is Mr. Taft's determination to fit himself by riding and golf for the strenuous duties which await him in March. He has accepted the request of Miss Boardman, of Washington, president of the National Red Cross, to attend the annual meeting of the society in Washington, December 9. He expects to remain here until then. Although his plans have not been determined, it is his intention to then go to Augusta, Ga., to take a cottage and remain during the winter. The Taft family physician in Cincinnati has recommended the Georgia city as the ideal place for outdoor exercise during the winter. The air is said to have enough of the sting of cold to thicken the blood and to be mild enough to make it pleasant in the open.

Georgia Hospitality.

Business men and others in Georgia have sent a representative to Hot Springs to tell Mr. Taft anything he wants to know about wintering places in any part of that state and to extend the glad hand to him generally.

Georgia folks have heard that the President-elect is thinking of spending two of the winter months in that state, and they want to make sure of him. The presence of the special representative is not the only evidence of Georgia's hospitality. A man in Atlanta has offered Mr. Taft the use of both his city and his country place. Mr. Taft is thinking of going to Bon Air, near Augusta, where there is a fine golf course.

VALUABLE TIMBER LANDS MAY BURN

Worst Forest Fire in W. Va. Is Imminent.

Marlinton, W. Va., Nov. 10.—Unless there is a providential rain, which now seems improbable, the 140,000 acres of timber land owned by the West Virginia Spruce Lumber company, a subsidiary corporation to the West Virginia Pulp and Paper company, of New York, and valued at more than $7,000,000, will be in imminent danger of destruction by one of the most appalling forest fires in the history of this part of the lumber-producing portion of the state.

The fire extends for almost five miles through the densest timber country in the immediate neighborhood of the spruce company operations.

Reports from the line of the scene are meager because of the burning of the telephone lines.

ROOSEVELT MEETS LABOR LEADERS

Conference in Washington, November 17, to Discuss Laws.

GOMPERS IS OMITTED.

EXPLANATION ISSUED FROM THE WHITE HOUSE—PRESIDENT DESIRES COOPERATION IN PLANS FOR LEGISLATION.

Washington, Nov. 10.—The President will give a big dinner at the White House on November 17, to which he invited nearly a dozen labor leaders. The dinner is to be given in honor of the labor leaders, but several Federal Judges will be invited and a number of prominent members of the President's official family.

The President's idea of entertaining the labor leaders is to secure their cooperation and that of other leaders in public thought in his plans for labor legislation. He wants to bring about a better understanding between labor leaders and Judges respecting the rights of the laboring classes, especially in injunction cases. It is known that the President was very angry over the attitude of certain Federal Judges in labor cases some months ago. He thinks that the issue made on injunctions in the recent Presidential election has left bad feelings which ought to be remedied. This can be accomplished, he believes, by getting together all hands and engaging in a frank discussion.

The most significant feature of the affair is the omission from the list of invited labor representatives of Samuel Gompers, President of the American Federation of Labor; Frank Morrison, Secretary; John B. Lennon, treasurer, and James O'Connor, third vice president. It was explained at the White House today that the national convention of the Federation of Labor would be in session at the time and it was thought that the officers of that organization, whose names have been left out of the list of invited, would be much occupied at the time.

Demanded $10,000 of Wealthy Denver Woman and Threatened Life With Stick of Dynamite

Denver, Colo., Nov. 9.—Mrs. Genevieve Chadler Phipps, divorced wife of Laurence C. Phipps, steel magnate, was Monday afternoon threatened with death by dynamite unless she at once gave up $100,000 to a determined woman.

To the police the woman gave the name of Mrs. H. C. Cohen, but went on to say that as soon as she came out from under the influence of a certain clairvoyant's "spell," she would have another name.

Mrs. Phipps had been in one of the big department stores, leaving her chauffeur, one of her children and nurse in the car before the door on crowded Sixteenth street. When she came out of the store a heavily veiled woman dressed in mourning of the most fashionable cut, standing by the car, said: "I'm starving. I am desperate. I must have money. If you do not do as I tell you I will send you and your daughter to eternity."

Mrs. Phipps remained outwardly calm and the woman continued: "You must give me $100,000 at once." "I haven't that much money with me, of course," replied Mrs. Phipps, "but I can get it by going over to the International Trust Company, on Seventh street."

"All right," said Mrs. Cohen, "but don't play any tricks on me, for I've got the stuff to blow us all up."

Then they entered the automobile and were driven to the trust company, where a special officer arrested the woman. Before this could be accomplished the woman realized she was in a trap and hurled the stick of dynamite. It struck the sidewalk, curbing and broke in two, but did not explode.

An Event of Vast Importance

The fact that Ritten, the Rheumatism Expert, is coming here, arriving on Thursday, cannot be passed over lightly, as it is of grave importance to the majority and should be looked forward to with great interest.

Ritten, both in English and German, will expound the benefits from the famous Rheumatism Remedies. They don't cure everything, but they do cure Rheumatism, Lumbago, Sciatica, Neuralgia, Gout and Blood, Liver, Kidney or Stomach Troubles arising from Uric Acid and Ritten will back it up by absolute proof of many cases, not in remote districts, but right close by—people to whom you may write and find out the truth for yourself. He tells you why Rheumatism cures the above diseases and also why it does not affect the heart or stomach in any way, showing this by good sensible logical reasons.

If you are troubled by any of the above diseases (and most every one is to some extent), go to see Ritten when he arrives. He won't insist upon your buying the Remedies for he is here more to explain Rheumatism in its various forms and the action of Rheumatism upon it, than he is to sell. He does this through the solicitation of A. G. Luken & Co. who prevailed upon him to spend a short time here, they knowing the amount of Rheumatism in Richmond, and also knowing that the Rheumatism Expert could explain its workings far more thoroughly than they could. So it's merely out of desire to benefit the people that he comes, and everyone should grasp this chance. He arrives Thursday.
