POLICE TO DANCE

Annual "Hop" To Be Held at Coliseum on December 9th.

EXPECT LARGE PATRONAGE

The annual ball given by the local police department will be held the evening of December 9 at the Coliseum. Arrangements for the affair are not complete, but it will be of the same nature as all previous events of the kind. Runge's full orchestra will supply the music. The coliseum hall will be decorated. The committee having the dance in charge is composed of Supt. Bailey, Sergeants McManus and Winters and Patrolman McNally.

The department always has been patronized liberally in previous years and the same generosity is expected to continue this year. It is the only proposition the police department puts before the public. The proceeds of the ball are devoted to the expenses of the department not provided for by the regulations. These include bicycle repairs, flowers for the sick, etc.

SCRAPES ARE BARRED

Principal Knouff, of the high school, told the seniors at a meeting held last evening that class fighting was naughty and that if any members of school sought to solve class disputes by hostilities, they would be compelled to leave the school. The young men and women were duly impressed with the statement and it is probable that class scrapes are now things of the past.

Mr. Knouff also presented the class constitution and it was adopted with only one amendment, which requires that seniors shall be eligible for graduation before they are officially recognized as class members. The senior class also decided to allow the juniors to have charge of the publication of the school annual, which is expected to devote much of its space to saying nice things of the seniors.

Mr. Knouff recommended that the seniors give a play next year, but that it be of a higher standard than the last senior class play.

BANKERS' MEETING

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 11.—Bankers from all sections of Indiana are here today to attend the sessions of the Indiana Bankers' association, which will continue over Thursday.

Between four and five hundred men of finance are in the city and unusual interest is being taken in the convention.

The executive council of the association held a meeting at the Claypool last night to arrange the final details for the meetings.

The most attractive feature of the program was the address by Henry Clews, the New York banking and financial expert. Mr. Clews arrived at 7 o'clock this morning. "Monetary and Trade Situation and Prospects" was his subject.

The bankers' section met at the Claypool hotel at 10 o'clock, and at 2 o'clock the trust company division met.

This evening there will be a smoker at the German house, a feature of which will be a debate between Indianapolis and Chicago chapters of the American Institute of Banking, on bank guarantee.

BOYS REPRIMANDED.

Ora Morrow, Leslie Cook and Raymond Harrison were reprimanded severely in city court by Judge Converse this afternoon. Harrison was charged with assault and battery and the other two with provoking. Harrison struck Cook and Morrow after they had made uncomplimentary remarks about him last Saturday night.

WHITEMAN APPEARS WITHOUT COUNSEL

Case Against Man Charged With Assault on Wife Delayed.

AN UNNECESSARY EXPENSE

COUNTY LOSES BY DELAY WHEN ONE FIRM THROWS CASE BACK ON PAUPER ATTORNEY WHO WAS NOT PREPARED.

The idiosyncrasies and misunderstandings of attorneys in regard to the trial of a case are responsible again for the county having to bear unnecessary expenses. Three weeks ago the case of the state vs. Whiteman was set for trial today. The witnesses and jurors were notified. They were on hand in court this morning. The defendant was brought up from the county jail. The judge was on the bench ready to open the trial. Then he was told Whiteman was without an attorney. There had been a misunderstanding as to whether he would be defended by the pauper attorney or Robbins & Robbins. Byron Robbins, of the latter firm, notified the court, his firm would not defend the man. The pauper attorney, Perry J. Freeman, told the court he could not begin the trial today. The prosecutor did not want a continuance. Finally the court had to settle the squabble by continuing the case until Friday morning.

The court censured Whiteman and blamed him for his procrastination. The pauper attorney talked with Whiteman, who is charged with assault and battery upon his wife with intent to kill, several days ago, and was told by Whiteman he would secure Robbins & Robbins as counsel. Mr. Freeman then withdrew from the case. According to the information given the judge, Whiteman failed to raise a sufficient fee to retain Robbins & Robbins and they passed the case up. That left Whiteman in an embarrassing predicament.

Mr. Freeman notified the court Whiteman has some $40 in cash and with this could employ regular counsel and would not need to call on the pauper attorney for services and be an expense to the county. Freeman is appointed by the court at a specified salary to defend pauper clients and he was instructed by the court to handle Whiteman's case and be ready for trial Friday.

CAMPBELL ARRAIGNED.

Lewis Campbell, driven of the wagon that was demolished at Third and Main streets yesterday afternoon was placed on trial in city court for public intoxication this afternoon.

Florence McCarthy and Joseph Tarry were tried in city court this afternoon upon the charge of jumping moving trains. They were arrested last midnight by Patrolman Cully in the C. & L. railroad yards.
