

SHOT ON WHARF WHERE FOES DIED

General Leconte Captured and Murder of Haytien Residents Avenged.

NEWS IS JUST CONFIRMED.

MINISTER OF INTERIOR CAR-RIED ON HIGH HANDED METH-ODS IN CAMPAIGN WHICH RE-SULTED IN OWN DEATH.

Port Au Prince, Haiti, Nov. 26.— The report that General Leconte, the Haitian minister of the interior, has been killed at Jeremie, has been confirmed. The circumstances of his death are briefly as follows:

Upon arriving at Jeremie, at the head of a government detachment sent out against the revolutionists he found the government gunboat Croyant ashore. He at once accused the commander, Captain Ostema, of treason, and, refusing to listen to any explanations, he forthwith had him executed.
After this act Leconte landed at Jeremie for the purpose of recruiting men to fight against the rebels under General Simon, leader of the government against President Nord Alexis. Some of the people of Jeremie protested against this course, whereupon Leconte selected two of the most prominent citizens and had them executed.
These outrages wrought the people up to a great degree of excitement and indignation. They armed themselves lastly and advanced against Leconte and his troops. There was practically no resistance. Leconte was taken prisoner, and in his turn executed by a fusillade upon the same wharf where he had caused the killing of Ostema and the other two men.

HEXAMETHYLENETETRAMINE

The above is the name of a German chemical, which is one of the many valuable ingredients of Foley's Kidney Remedy. Hexamethylenetetramine is recognized by medical text books and authorities as a uric acid solvent and antiseptic for the urinary tract. Foley's Kidney Remedy, as you notice, is

THANKSGIVING TRADE WAS GOOD

Grocers and Market Gardeners Kept Busy.

Grocers and market gardeners as well as the butchers report a good Thanksgiving trade. The market house was open all day yesterday, last evening and a short time this morning. Hundreds of buyers visited the place to lay in their supplies. The grocers' sales were about the same as usual in quantity, although the value may have been a little greater. There was a good demand for turkey, but more chickens and ducks were purchased than is customary.

Settled It Themselves.
In western China European travelers recently found a simple method of settling disputes. One of them writes: "While we called the midday halt at Tachade, we asked the villagers concerning some new graves which we noticed in a field close by. They answered, 'Our head man and two others were killed three months ago in a feud with a village higher up the hills.' It settled now? 'Yes.' 'Did you report the matter to Laowo?' 'No.' 'What would have been the use? We just settled the matter ourselves.'
'How?' 'Oh, we killed eight of the other party.'"

The Apple of Discord.
At the marriage of Thetis and Peleus, where all the gods and goddesses met together, Discord threw on the table a "golden apple" for "the most beautiful." Juno, Minerva and Venus put in their separate claims and, not being able to settle the point, referred the matter to Paris, who gave judgment to Venus. This brought on him the vengeance of Juno and Minerva, to whose skill is attributed the fall of Troy.

Literary Taste.
"I have written a book that everybody ought to read," said the author.
"I am afraid it won't do," answered the publisher. "What the public seems to want now is a book that nobody ought to read."—Washington Star.

Crime is increasing rapidly in New York city. There were more complaints, more indictments, more charges preferred and more cases tried during the last half year than in any six months in the history of the city, and the increase has been in much larger proportion than the increase in population, which is estimated at 65,000.

THE THEATER

"The Servant in the House."
The company which will present "The Servant in the House" at the Gennett theatre this afternoon, tonight and Friday night, arrived in Richmond today. It is expected that the S. R. O. sign will be displayed at all three performances, as the company and the play are of the best on the American stage today. The advance sale of seats has been unusually large.

This is the play that the Chicago Daily News calls "the most beautiful play of all ages," and which the New York Evening Post declares is "the best example of dramatic art extant." It has received the most enthusiastic praise from every critic who has seen it, and is acted by a company as remarkable as the play. It is a modern comedy in the best sense of the word, but at times verges on tragedy. Although hailed as a wonderful work of art by scholars, it tells a human interest story that appeals to every audience. Clergymen in New York, Chicago and San Francisco have made it the theme of sermons in which they have advised their congregations to see the play, yet men and women who seldom attend church services have been fascinated by the human interest story in which the central character is readily recognized as the reincarnation of Christ. The author, Charles Rann Kennedy, has written a powerful drama that combines comedy, tragedy, pathos, satire, declamation and tableau. It has created a sensation in the West as well as the East and has attracted capacity houses even during the hottest days of the past summer.

denly denounced as a criminal and forger, his extreme forbearance and silence presents a climax of sustained interest, after which, justice appears, as a rainbow, and in an intense moment of sorrow he is crowned with a happy lot.

A performance of the play in this city is set for Nov. 28, matinee and night, at the Gennett theatre.

the other's heels so fast do they folpopular esteem, that its advent is invariably an occasion of no small rejoicing among those who attend the theatre with the sole object of passing away an evening in unrestrained merriment. The coming therefore to the Gennett theatre of Hoyt's funniest of all mixtures of humor, frolic and melody, can only be regarded in the light which concerns the betterment of human nature, as there is naught to compare with a good hearty laugh in the world of plentiful woe.

This season's blend of captivating features puts "A Bunch of Keys" to a still more favorable advantage as an entertainment of the choicest qualities, from every point reckoned, and the employment of so many exceptionally clever artists, in all the departments of Jollity and song, furthermore enhances its value among the acceptable forms of stage diver-tissement. Gennett theatre, Nov. 30.

Ye Colonial Stock.

Ye Colonial Stock company which will be at the Gennett theatre five nights of next week beginning Tuesday is well and favorably known to Richmond theatre goers. Since its last engagement here, Manager Benner has strengthened the personnel, added new plays, made improvements wherever they could be made until now the stock company is one of the best on the road. Among the new people are Miss Dorothy Smith, late leading lady of the Murray Comedy company, who as an actress ranks among the very highest with popular priced attractions and Harry Waterhouse, an Eastern actor of much ability and excellence. The company will play a matinee each day. The open bill Tuesday afternoon will be the sensational comedy drama, "Slaves of the Orient."

DAY'S ATTRACTIONS WELL PATRONIZED

Shows, Skating Rink and Foot Ball Game Benefit.

The city was well supplied with holiday amusements today. Probably the greatest interest centered in the attraction offered at the Gennett Theatre. This afternoon "The Servant in the House," was played to a large audience. Indications are for a larger attendance this evening. This play is psychological and one that has made an immense impression upon the public wherever it has been presented.
There were large crowds at the skating rink both this morning and afternoon. The climax is expected to come this evening. The vaudeville at the New Phillips was presented to large audiences. The bill offered this week is above the average and well worth seeing. The football game was well patronized.

INSANE ARE WELL ENTERTAINED

Annual Festivities at East-haven Successful.

The annual entertainments in progress at the Eastern Indiana Hospital for the Insane have proved as successful this year as always they have in the past. The entertainments are made up of various attractions including dramatic performances, dances and musical entertainments.

Some hospital physicians are urging that horseflesh be more freely used as being not only cheaper than beef, but more tender and digestible. If dried and reduced to a powder it becomes almost tasteless.

Foley's Honey and Tar clears the air passages, stops the irritation in the throat, soothes the inflamed membranes, and the most obstinate cough disappears. Sore and inflamed lungs are healed and strengthened, and the cold is expelled from the system. Re-low package. A. G. Lehn & Co.

ENGINEER A HERO

Saves Lives of 150 Passengers by Staying With Flyer.

BAD WRECK WAS AVERTED.

La Crosse, Wis., Nov. 26.—Only the heroism of Engineer Julius Severson of La Crosse, saved the lives of 150 passengers in a passenger and freight wreck at Portage Junction, Ill., according to a written testimonial signed by all the passengers and submitted to Superintendent Cunningham of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad on the arrival of the train here.

As train No. 47, running 60 miles an hour, drew near Portage Junction a freight was noticed just ahead. The fireman, Edward Cater, jumped, and was killed, but the engineer, at the risk of his life, applied the emergency brakes and reduced the speed of the train, before the freight was struck.
A half dozen boxes were smashed and piled onto the passenger engine, but when the engineer was dug out of the debris he was uninjured. No passengers were hurt, though they were thrown to the floor from their berths by the shock.

CITY IS ADVERTISED

Fall Festival Parade Commented on by Journals All Over the Country.

"GREATEST IN THE WEST"

The fame of the Richmond Fall Festival has been written in in almost every news publication in the United States in some way or other. It also has been prominent in a number of magazines, especially those devoted to theadvertisements of manufacturers.
There is one magazine that could not be said to be devoted to either of these interests that reflects credit to the undertaking in its current issue.
"The Show World," printed for the welfare of theatrical folks and theatrical interests contains a picture of the Henley roller skate that was exhibited in the festival parade. This is the largest roller skate in the world.
The entire float is shown and a description of the skate given. This skate was designed and made by Earl E. Henley, son of M. C. Henley, the manufacturer.

Of the parade The Show World says:
"The industrial parade in which the Henley float was a conspicuous figure, was one of the greatest ever known in the middle west, it taking several hours to pass a given point."

SCALPING.

Indian Tradition That Tells the Origin of the Custom.

According to the Indian tradition, scalping arose in this wise: Hundreds, perhaps thousands, of years ago, when all the Indians in the world were of one tribe and under one chief, there arose a dispute in the tribe as to who should succeed the old chief, who had just died without issue. There were two principal aspirants to the honor, each having a considerable following. The dispute finally ended with strife and war, and for the first time in the history was "brothers' blood shed by brothers."

The chief of one of the factions had a beautiful daughter, and one of the bravest warriors was a suitor for her hand. Her father consented to the match on one condition—that the young hero should journey to the camp of the enemy, many miles away through the deep snow, kill the chief, his rival, and return with some unmistakable token of his death. In spite of the snow and the distance, the young man immediately set out on his journey and, after lying in ambush for several days, finally entered the camp, boldly attacked the chief in his tent, slew him and cut off his head.

Next morning the murder was discovered, and the tribe set off in hot pursuit. Little by little they gained upon the fleeing warrior, who in his anxiety to elude his pursuers cast away all his impediments, to his very clothing, retaining only his stone knife and the trophy which was to win him his bride.

His pursuers gained rapidly until finally so near did they come he could hear them on his trail. His grewsome burden grew heavier and heavier, and as a last resort he whipped out his knife, stripped the scalp from the head of the dead man and, thus lightened of his load, reached his own camp in safety, presented to his chief the token of his prowess and was wed, amid great rejoicing, to the damsel of his choice.

From thenceforth he was permitted to wear an eagle's feather in his cap, and to this day the eagle's feather remains the sign of the successful warrior, the number he displays depending upon the number of scalps he has taken.—Chicago Record-Herald.

An estimate by the British Board of Trade of the sugar production of the world for 1906 makes a total of 14, 312,716 long tons, of which 7,317,472 tons were cane and 6,995,244 tons beet, the production of both kinds advancing practically at the same rate since 1898. In the production of cane sugar British India had the largest output of 2,223,409 tons and in beet sugar Germany ranked first, with an output of 2,362,187 tons. In consumption of sugar per head Australia stands first at 129 pounds, the United States coming next with 89 pounds and the United Kingdom following at 81 pounds.

NOVEMBER TRAVEL SHOWS INCREASE

Conditions Elsewhere Not Duplicated Here.

In many places there are reports out that the travel so far during the month of November has been considerably less than for the same month of last year. This is not the case in Richmond. The sale of tickets has greatly increased and according to the statements made yesterday by local officials the sales will be much larger than in former years.

The number of persons leaving the city today are fewer than the number leaving last year. There were a large number of persons arrived in the city today.

Although there are now no cases of plague in Pacific coast ports, there is no relaxation of the precautions against the disease. The secretary of the Washington Board of Health recently asked the mayor of Seattle to order that "all vessels shall breast off from the dock at least six feet by means of a float or by spars, and that on all lines or spars passing from the vessel to the dock metal rat guards, at least two feet in diameter, shall be placed in such a manner that they will thoroughly encircle the lines of spars, and that the face of such rat guards shall be at right angles to the length of the lines or spars, and that all gang planks shall be raised or guarded when not in actual use for passengers or freight."

The most curious railway in the world is built on ice. It is laid between Cronstadt and Oranienbaum, and is in use only during the winter.
Its success has suggested the construction of a similar winter railway between the two important commercial centers, Kremenchug and Ekatarinoslaw, which are united in summer by the steamboat traffic along the Dnieper river. This means of communication is closed in winter by the ice. A costly, roundabout journey has to be made between the two towns, though they do not lie far apart.
