

HANDICAP REMOVED

Probable Settlement of Traction Fight Pleases T. P. A.

NOTES OF LOCAL POST.

It has been stated in the papers recently, that a difficulty existing with the Dayton & Western Traction company, relative to freight service will be settled at a very early date.

This matter has been hanging fire for a long while, and we are sure, that every traveling man will welcome the fact that freight service will soon be established on the traction line east.

This is a big advantage to the shippers of the city, as they have been working under a serious handicap for a long while, in handling eastern trade.

Dayton and other towns, which had traction service, have reaped the benefit of Richmond's losses. A speedy settlement is certainly much to be hoped for.

We are advised by our president, Mr. Jas. M. Lewis, and also our chairman of the board of directors, Mr. John B. Hegger, that a smoker will be held at the club rooms on Saturday evening, December 5.

The directors will, on this occasion, act as a reception committee, and Mr. Lett Turner, whose reputation is well established, will act as chairman of the committee of "Something to Eat."

With these efficient gentlemen in charge of the affair, we can look forward to one of the most interesting smokers that Post C has ever had.

It is desired that every member of the Post, that can possibly do so, be present on this evening.

Among the prominent speakers for the occasion will be Elmer E. Lobo, whose subject will be "Why Sorrel Complexion People Rule the World," Marion E. Shreeve will give a short talk on "My Recollections of Lockum and It's People."

James M. Lewis will speak on "The Fish I did not Catch, and Why."

John B. Hegger will speak on "Why I so Often Look Like a Sick Headache," and Chas. W. Morgan will give "My Experience as a Grocery Peddler in the Early Fifties."

The speeches will be interspersed with songs by the musical members.

Members of Post C should at this very early date, begin to think about attending the state convention at Evansville, next spring.

Each member must remember that we will have an candidate before that convention for the honorable position of president of the state division.

The gentleman, who will be the candidate, has not yet announced himself, but the chairman of the press committee, feels at perfect liberty to announce the fact that we will have a candidate before that convention, and one who will serve with credit, as Indiana's executive officer.

A number of the traveling salesmen spent Thanksgiving at home, eating turkey.

James M. Lewis is visiting his mother, near Arba, and at the same time making it lively for the rabbits and quail.

The board of directors has very kindly tendered the use of the rooms for business gatherings where the representation is not large and a member is the host for his visiting business friends.

We are pleased to receive the applications of Charles Zattermeister and E. E. Elleman.

We are advised that we are to soon have the T. P. A. news letter revived and members will receive a copy each month.

JAP WIFE A SUICIDE IN BLOOD ATONEMENT

Couldn't Understand Doctrine of Christ's Sacrifice.

Easton, Pa., Nov. 28.—That Mrs. Teru Utsumiya, the Japanese who was found dead with her throat cut, killed herself because she thought "blood atonement" was essential before she could be a Christian, became known at the inquest.

She had worried over the problem for weeks, and couldn't understand how another could expiate her sins. Half an hour after the return from the First Presbyterian church yesterday she was found dead in the cellar of the home where she was employed as housekeeper. Her husband was arrested, but was released after the inquest today.

"It is clear she took the blood sacrifice in a literal sense," said a woman mission worker. The pastor, the Rev. Plato Jones, declared on the stand that Mrs. Utsumiya knew her catechism well, but that she could not understand how another person could atone for her sins.

QUEEN OF INDIANS

Western Newspaper Woman Made Ruler of Zapulpan Tribe.

AN INDIAN BY ADOPTION.

Spokane, Wash., Nov. 28.—Mrs. Harry L. Eisenhart, formerly Miss Horace Greeley Mary Perry, who fought for law and order in the Coeur d'Alene mining camps east of Spokane while editor of Governor Steunenberg's paper, The Tribune, at Caldwell, Idaho, before and after his assassination three years ago, has been elected queen of the Zapulpan Indians in the state of Michoacan, Mexico, according to advices received here.

Mrs. Eisenhart is widely known as a newspaper woman of ability, but she is best remembered in the Spokane country for her lovable character and sturdy bravery. She did newspaper work in practically all parts of the United States and proved herself a thorough "newspaper man." That is what she calls herself.

Mrs. Eisenhart is an Indian by adoption having been a ward of Andrew John, chief of the Six Nations of New York, also a ward of Denman Thompson, the actor-playwright. Her father is T.M. Perry, a newspaper man of St. Peter, Minn., where she started in the business. She met Chief Andrew John when a child, and he took a fancy to her and later adopted her, with the consent of her father. She lived with the family of the old chief and among the Seneca Indians of New York a number of years, during which she met some of the most influential people of the country. Chief Andrew John, then the most noted Indian living, was a member of the court of Indian claims at Washington, and one of the close friends of President Roosevelt and many of his predecessors.

Boy—Don't sit there, sir. That seat's broke. Testy Old Gentleman—Humph! In my young days boys had a sense of humor!—London Punch.

CONSCIENCE HURT HIM; SURRENDERS PENSION

Restitution Made by Civil War Pensioner.

Washington, Nov. 28.—Vespasian Warner, commissioner of pensions, told President Roosevelt of a remarkable case of stricken conscience.

Some time ago the commissioner received a letter from a pensioner of the civil war, surrendering his certificate and enclosing two $500 coupon bonds of the United States and a draft for $172, thereby making full restitution to the government of all money he had received on account of the certificate of pension.

Commissioner Warner refused to give the name of the soldier and declared he had not disclosed it to the treasurer of the United States, to whom was turned over the bonds and conscience money.

"Like father, like son," said the knowing one.

"In what way were they alike?" asked the curious one.

"First, the old man, when the boy was a child, tried to break his son's will. Now the son is trying to break the old man's."—Baltimore American.
