SCHWAB NAMED AS ONE OF DEFENDANTS

Sensational Suit Brought in New York Against Big Financier.

INVOLVES SILVER MINE.

INDIANAPOLIS MEN ARE AMONG THOSE NAMED AS CODEFENDANTS IN CHARGES OF CONSPIRACY TO DEFRAUD.

New York, Nov. 30.—Charles M. Schwab, former president of the United States Steel corporation, was today served with a summons and complaint in a sensational suit brought in the New York supreme court to recover a ten million dollar mining property in Mexico, known as the San Toy silver and lead group.

The plaintiffs are Alfred S. and Sidney S. Witherbee, brothers, of Mexico. A number of other prominent financiers have been served with like summonses and several remain yet to be served. Among the latter are Walter B. Wright, John C. Wright, Frank W. Lewis, Artemus Hadley and W. G. Paxton, all of Indianapolis, and named as co-defendants.

Since the former steel magnate and his friends announced their ownership of the San Toy they have increased the capital stock from two millions and blocks of the new issue have been sold to the public. The Witherbees allege that there was a scheme for conspiracy to defraud them when the mine passed into the hands of Schwab and others, and they seek to regain possession.
