WIFE FINDS HER HUSBAND HANGING

Well Known Jefferson Township Farmer Suicides This Morning.

WIFE FOUND THE BODY.

AWAKENED DURING NIGHT AND FINDING HER HUSBAND NOT NEAR HER, SHE GOES IN SEARCH OF HIM.

Hagerstown, Ind., Dec. 1.—Ell Hoover, a prominent and prosperous farmer, living near White Branch, about five miles north of Hagerstown, was found dead in the barn at three o'clock this morning hanging by a rope suspended from the rafters. Death must have occurred shortly before, as the body was still warm.

Mrs. Hoover on awakening and not finding him in his bed, hastened out to the barn, finding him. He had been despondent for some time and had been so much so at a few times, that it is thought that the man had been brooding over making away with his life and was temporarily insane. The family had constantly been watching him, expecting something of the kind to happen.

The deceased was 55 years of age and is survived by the widow and three sons, Martin, Omar and Arthur. Funeral services will probably be held Thursday at the German Baptist church, west of town, of which he was an influential member. Interment in the cemetery adjoining.

WOULD SET ASIDE WILL.

Suit of One Woman Against Another Heard.

In the effort to have set aside the will of the late George Fryharger, of Fayette county, the suit of Ida M. Fry Martin et al. vs. Sophia Chiswood et al. was placed on trial in the Wayne circuit court today.

WIND DOES DAMAGE.

New Castle, Ind., Dec. 1.—This place was struck by a terrific gust of wind yesterday morning that did considerable damage. The slate roof on the court house was damaged. Electric lights were blown down, windows blown in and awnings torn off. No serious damage has been reported from the rural districts.

Kodol For Indigestion.

Relieves or stomach, palpitation of the heart. Digests what you eat.

NO ATTEMPT MADE TO ROB BANK

Officials of Union National Deny Story.

Officials of the Union National bank do not see any joke in it, just because a window in their establishment was broken yesterday afternoon, when the awning was being removed. A local morning newspaper printed a sensational account of a suspected attempt at robbing the bank and related how a policeman stood on guard during the night. The breaking of the glass was attributed to probable robbers, and the act was characterized as a very nervous one.

George Cates, president of the bank, said today there was absolutely no grounds for such rumors. The bank was not closed last evening until after the window had been broken.

BOARD MEETS TONIGHT.

The official monthly business meeting will be held at the Grace church this evening at 7:30 o'clock. It is highly important that there is a large attendance as there are some important questions to be discussed.

A Pinionless Angel.

Here is a rhapsody from the Houston Post on the Texas wife: "She is a jasmine scented, rosy cheeked, red headed, pinionless angel and more. She is a sock danner and a pants patcher. She is a battercake flapper and a waffle turner. She is a pie architect and layer cake contractor and a chicken frier and a lush contractor for the gods."—Chattanooga Times.
