CLEARS THE COMPLEXION
OVERNIGHT

Pimples, Rash, Eruptions, Etc., Quickly Eradicated by New Skin Remedy.

Since its discovery one year ago, poslam, the new skin remedy, has, in its extraordinary accomplishments, exceeded the most sanguine expectations of the eminent specialist who gave it to the world. It has cured thousands of cases of eczema and eradicated facial and other disfigurements of years' standing. The terrible itching attending eczema is stopped with the first application, giving proof of its curative properties at the very outset.

In less serious skin affections, such as pimples, rash, herpes, blackheads, acne, barber's itch, etc., results show after an overnight application, only a small quantity being required to effect a cure. Those who use poslam for these minor skin troubles can now avail themselves of the special 50-cent package, recently adopted to meet such needs. Both the 50-cent package and the regular $2 jar may now be obtained in Richmond at W. H. Sudhoff's and other leading drug stores. Samples for experimental purposes may be had free of charge by writing direct to the Emergency Laboratories, 32 West Twenty-fifth Street, New York City.

THE THEATER

THEATRICAL CALENDAR.

GENNETT.
"The Matchmaker"—Dec. 7.
May Irwin—Dec. 15.

NEW PHILLIPS.
Vaudeville all week.

Colonial Stock Company.

The Ye Colonial Stock company is playing to good houses at the Gennett theater this week. The company is well balanced and its repertoire is on an average with the best that has been seen here this year. Tonight "The Bell Tolls" will be presented and Saturday night "Deadwood Dick" will be given.

May Irwin.

Miss May Irwin, easily the funniest woman on the English speaking stage, will appear at the Gennett theater in the big double bill "The Mollusc," a three act comedy by Hubert Henry Davies and "Mrs. Peckham's Carouse" a farce in one act by George Ade. These plays were the comedy hits of the season at the Garrick theater in New York. Fashionable London took very kindly to "The Mollusc." It was first produced there by Sir Charles Wyndham's company three seasons ago, and is still being played by the same company and at the same theater to crowded houses. This season sees Miss Irwin for the first time as a Charles Frohman star. In the double bill she appears to especial advantage and not in many seasons has she been so admirably suited in stellar roles. George Ade wrote "Mrs. Peckham's Carouse" especially for Miss Irwin and in it she has scored one of the greatest hits of her career. Seats will be placed on sale at the theater for Miss Irwin's engagement on Dec.

15 and it would be well to make early application.

Vaudeville—New Phillips.

The vaudeville bill at the New Phillips has given great satisfaction this week. It has been well balanced and of a good quality throughout. The special feature has been the black art exhibition by the Colbys' which in staging and working out, is the best thing of its sort ever seen here. The other acts are all high grade, and one particularly that of Harry DeCoe, has been a great applause getter.
