What He Did.

A good story of the Winston Churchill wedding was told by one of the public men of Manchester. He himself was at the wedding, and shortly afterward he was "spotted" by an elevator attendant. The dialogue was as follows:

"Been to the wedding, sir?"
"Yes."
"Fine lot of presents, were there not?"
"Very fine."
"He deserves 'em for what he's done."
"What has he done?"
"Got married."

It is customary in Spain when an infant first begins to notice things to place before it a silver coin, a sword, a silver cross, a book and some fruit. The object to which the child stretches his hand indicates, according to accepted belief, his future vocation. The coin is for commerce, the sword for the army, the cross and the book respectively point to the church and the law or learning, while the fruit denotes a farmer or landowner.

FAMOUS SWINDLER

NOW IN TOILS

Raymond L. Bernier, Founder Of Financial Magazines, Back in Chicago.

HIS PYROTECHNIC CAREER.

MADE GREAT SPLURGE IN CHICAGO, BUT ESCAPED FROM CITY ABOUT THE TIME VICTIMS BEGAN TO SURROUND HIM.

Chicago, Dec. 5.—Raymond L. Bernier, founder of two financial magazines, who had a career pyrotechnically unexcelled in the field of wild-cat finance, was arrested in Goldfield, Nev., and arrived here today in charge of secret service men.

The greatest care was taken by the government officers to keep the arrest of Bernier a secret.

Bernier had offices in the Majestic building, occupying the whole top floor. Many persons were hit hard in the mining swindle which he is charged with perpetrating.

There is to be some secret scheme to free Bernier from his liabilities and responsibilities, but the exact nature of the plan and its purpose is a mystery, and many other things connected with the flight of the man.

There was a large splurge when Bernier came to Chicago from New York two years ago, the stir caused by the authoritative appearance of his Journal of Finance and the sensation following the publication of the first and only number of "Opportunities of Today," the reaping of the first harvest and then the discovery that there was not a mountain of gold behind it, the consequent dwindling of his establishment, and then the flood of complaints which caused his hasty departure.

Bernier bought a small farm magazine in Michigan to obtain a circulation status, and opened his offices in the Majestic building. The entire nineteenth floor was fitted up at a cost of $40,000. Several editors and writers were employed, a well known artist hired, and the magazine was ready for business. To a big printing firm he paid more than $20,000 to get out the first number of the magazine, which was to boost his stock schemes.

The magazine came out after numerous delays, and was said to be one of the finest examples of the printers' art ever issued. The first number alone cost more than $20,000. The printers went to work on the second number of the magazine when the word went around that Bernier was "broke."

The postal authorities say the Milwaukee man who paid over $20,000, did so for mining stock, which he has never been able to sell. Even an approximate amount of the money belonging to other people that Bernier is accused of getting away with is not definitely known.

CHINESE STUDENTS

COME TO AMERICA

Will Be Sent Here First of the Year in Accordance With Agreement.

EARLHAM MAY BE FAVORED

DECLARED PROBABLE THAT PART OF CHINESE DELEGATION WILL BE EDUCATED AT LOCAL INSTITUTION.

Pekin, China, Dec. 5.—Early next year the plan of sending two thousand Chinese students to America for the western methods of education will be put into force. These Chinese will be sent to America in accordance with the agreement negotiated by Minister Rockhill.

There is a commission in this city which shall designate the schools to which the young men shall be assigned after their arrival in the United States.

There is a probability that Earlham college will be among the institutions selected to receive some of the Chinese students. In the last few years Earlham has broadened its scope and now is known as a denominational institution only in the strict sense of the word. The college is allied with and supported by the Friends' church, but its students are not required to adhere to that faith. At the present time nearly all religious denominations including the Catholic, are represented by the student body. There is nothing in the curriculum that tends to teaching the doctrine of the Friends. The members of the faculty nearly all are Friends and the majority of the student body is composed of members of Friends families, but further than that the denomination is lost sight of.

China has begun to make strides in favor of educating its young men in accord with western ideas. The United States is recognized as the most thoroughly cosmopolitan nation in the world and for that reason this country is to be recognized with favor by the Chinese government in the selection of a place to educate the chosen few.

For a number of years Japan has recognized the high standard of the American colleges and has sent annually, hundreds of young Japanese to this country. China has begun to follow in the footsteps of her aggressive rival and conqueror of recent date. The announcement of the intention of that nation to send students to America will be received with pleasure by all American educational institutions, owing to the compliment.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank our neighbors and friends for their kindness during our sad bereavement through the death of our wife and daughter.

Percy L. Bennett,
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bennett.

OBITUARY.

Maria A. and John C. Davis, was born July 28, 1883, and departed this life December 1, 1908, aged 25 years, 4 months and 4 days.

She was united in marriage to Percie L. Bennett, Feb. 3, 1901, with whom she so happily lived until her sad death. She leaves a broken-hearted husband, two brothers and a dear old grandfather and grandmother and many friends and relatives who deeply mourn her loss. Sure never knew a mother's tender love, as her mother was called to that better world when she was a mere babe, her father also dying a few years later. But this dear grandma, whom we now look upon with her head bowed in this awful sorrow, took those little children and made for them as happy a home as she could, and Susie, although she had been married eight years, never forgot the kindness of those dear old patient hands, and never was there a week passed that she didn't go to see grandma. When but a little child she was united with the United Brethren church, and has ever afterward followed in the path of Jesus, and in her last hours was trying to do all she could for a poor sick brother, taking care of his little ones that he might not be disturbed and doing all she could to make them happy and cheerful. Susie was welcomed in Mr. and Mrs. Bennett's home as a dear daughter and she always greeted them with a cheerful smile and willing footsteps, so we fully realize how keenly this awful blow is felt, and now as we look on this sweet face so calm and peaceful and pure as the lily, that has been cut down by the sickle, we cannot understand why God has taken this sweet innocent life, but we must remember that God has said, "My ways are not thy ways," and he doeth all things well. Yet

"All is dark within our home,
So lonely are our hearts today,
For Susie, whom we so dearly loved,
Has forever gone away.
Gone to that blessed rest,
Undisturbed by grief or care,
But we
