Danger in Delay

Kidney Diseases Are Too Dangerous For Richmond People to Neglect.

The great danger of kidney troubles is that they get a firm hold before the sufferer recognizes them. Health is gradually undermined. Backache, headache, nervousness, lameness, soreness, lumbago, urinary troubles, dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease follow in merciless succession. Don't neglect your kidneys. Cure the kidneys with the certain and safe remedy, Doan's Kidney Pills, which has cured people right here in Richmond. Enoch Cromer, Conductor on the Penna. R. R. and living at 221 North Nineteenth St., Richmond, Ind., says: "The continual jarring of the trains, to which I was subject while railroad-ing, had a bad effect on my kidneys. These organs became weakened and the secretions were so frequent in action that I was forced to arise many times during the night. As a result of the loss of sleep, I felt weak and depressed and was in no fit condition to work. I was also subject to fainting and dizzy spells and a feeling of lassitude was with me constantly. Being advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills I procured a box at Hatt's Drug store. This remedy soon brought me relief. The backache was eradicated and my kidneys were restored to a normal condition."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

The Japanese have no use for buttons, buckles, or hooks and eyes. Cord serves every purpose of fastening, and furnishes artistic possibilities seemingly without end. The Japanese have hundreds of knots. Some are as old as the time when history was recorded by a series of knots, just as it was in China and Peru before the invention of writing. There are dozens of knots in common and ceremonial usage, and these every Japanese child can tie. To name but a few, there are plum-blossom, cherry-blossom, iris, chrysanthemum and pine-tree knots, turtle and stork knots, the "old man's," which is easy to tie; the "old woman's," which is difficult, and many others.

Emerson was a notable sufferer from the vagaries of memory. His biographer relates that he met him one day in Boston, apparently at a loss for something, and asked him where he was going. "To dine," said Emerson, "with a very old and dear friend. I know where she lives, but I hope she won't ask me her name," and then he proceeded to describe her as the mother of the wife of the young man—the tall man—who speaks so well," and so on, until his interlocutor guessed to whom he was referring.

MUST "DIE" AGAIN

First Electrocuting Must Be Followed Until Death Does Ensnare.

A CASE IN NEW JERSEY.

Trenton, N. J., Dec. 9.—Prosecutor William J. Crossley, speaking of the proposed test by County Physician Scannell to see if life can be restored after electrocution, which test is to be made in the case of John Mantas, who is to go to the electric chair the week of Dec. 21, said tonight if the test should result in restoring Mantas to life the prisoner would have to be electrocuted again. This, Prosecutor Crossley said, would be necessary to carry out the sentence of the law that the prisoner be put to death.

County Physician Scannell, when told of the prosecutor's statement and asked if it would have any effect on the proposed test, said it would not. The test, he said, would be made.

The county physician, however, said he had not the slightest notion the test will result in restoring life. He said the test was merely to satisfy public sentiment because of the contention that electrocution does not cause death.

U. S. SHOES WORLD

This Country Leads Boot and Shoe Exporting Nations Of the World.

OUR BEST CUSTOMERS

Washington, Dec. 9.—The United States leads the list of boot and shoe exporting nations of the world, the value of exports in 1908 aggregating $11,470,000, according to the bureau of statistics. The growth in the boot and shoe industry has been remarkable. This country now supplies two-thirds of the world's cotton, more than half of its copper, more iron for manufacturing than any other nation, more illuminating oil, meats and bread and is rapidly increasing the supply of finished manufactures sent to various sections of the world, and prominent among these are boots and shoes, the demand for which soon will make this country the "world's shoemaker," in fact.

The growth of exports from 350,000 pairs in 1878 to 6,500,000 in 1908, reveals the marvelous growth of this industry. It is estimated that during the past thirty years the export value of boots and shoes shipped to all parts of the globe amounted to $88,000,000, representing about fifty-seven million pairs. Our best customers are Great Britain, Germany, France and Belgium.

THE RULE OF THREE.

A Superstition of the Men Who Build the Skyscrapers. These airy crews are a generous crowd, says Ernest Poole, writing in Everybody's Magazine of men who work on skyscrapers. They earn high pay. When working full time they make $27 a week, and, like their rough brothers out on the plains, they are quick to give of their earnings. On Saturday afternoons when they line up at the pay window the Sisters of Charity are always there, and quarters and dime jingles merrily into their little tin boxes.

Behind this generous giving is a superstitious belief that amid risks like these it is well to propitiate fate all you can, for fate is a relentless old machine, and when once its wheels begin grinding no power on earth can stop them. The "rule of three" is centuries old. You may hear of it out on the ocean, in the steel mills, in the railroad camps and down in the mines. And you find it up here on the jobs in the skies.

"Believe it?" said an old foreman. "You bet they believe it." "Do you?" I asked. "Well," he said, "all I can say is this: It may be a spell or it may be because the way of the whole crew is expecting it. But, anyhow, when two accidents come close together you can be sure that the third ain't very far off."

BUYING CHAIRS BY SIGHT.

Few Folks Ever Think to Try Them by Sitting in Them.

"I went with some folks the other day," the man said, "to buy a couple of chairs. We went to a furniture store and looked over what they had to offer. 'There were just ordinary chairs for a bedroom, so that it wasn't a very momentous purchase. The folks I was with looked at the cloth on the chairs and asked questions about the wood and how the chairs would wear. Then they bought the chairs and ordered them sent home.'

"What struck me as peculiar about the transaction was that never once did either of the two persons with whom I was think of sitting down in the chairs to see whether or not they were comfortable. I dropped into a furniture store not long afterward and asked a salesman about it, and I wasn't surprised to learn that very few persons buying chairs ever seem to think about testing them by sitting in them."

"Except in the case of rockers, that is. Few persons can resist the temptation to take a few preliminary rocks in a prospective purchase."—New York Sun.

STRANGE POINT IN CONTROVERSY

Bonding Company Would Have Cars Run on Sunday.

INVOLVED 2,500 ACRES.

Indianapolis, Dec. 9.—Whether a street car company may be compelled to operate its cars on Sunday is one of the questions involved in the suit of the Chicago Electrical Installation company against the Winona Interurban Railway company in which argument was heard yesterday by Judge Anderson in Federal court. The argument was on the defendants' demurrer. The interurban line connects Goshen and Warsaw. The Chicago company, holding bonds of the interurban company, says the road's earnings are decreased by the absence of Sunday cars.

LAW IS APPROVED

Supreme Court Sustains Employers' Liability Bill as Constitutional

IS A BLOW TO RAILROADS.

Washington, Dec. 9.—The Supreme Court in three decisions which have been handed down declined to hold the Indiana employers' liability bill unconstitutional. The cases were those of the Big Four Railroad vs. George W. Lighthouse, Thomas Collins and William R. Ross. These were suits for personal injuries growing out of a railroad accident, at Logansport, Jan. 23, 1901. The Indiana Supreme Court decided in favor of the defendants.

Allen Zollars and George E. Ross, attorneys for the railroad company, in their appeal attacked the constitutionality of the Indiana employers' liability law, enacted March 4, 1893, holding that it is repugnant to and in violation of that provision of the Constitution which vests in Congress exclusively the power to regulate commerce among the several states; also that provision which prohibits any state from passing laws that impair the obligation of contracts.

The United States Supreme Court was asked to reverse the finding of the Indiana Supreme Court. It dismissed all three of the cases, alleging want of jurisdiction.

TEACHER FINED FOR WHIPPING BOY

New Castle School Principal Is Found Guilty.

New Castle, Ind., Dec. 9.—The extent to which a teacher may go in the punishment of a pupil formed the basis of an interesting discussion in the court room of Justice of the Peace P. M. Koons, and in the evening the jury returned a verdict of guilty against Orville Craig and he was fined $1 and costs.

Craig is principal of the South Side school, and a thirteen-year-old son of Frank Dean was sent to him by a teacher of one of the grades for punishment. Craig whipped the boy, and it was charged he used several switches entwined together. Dean charged that the boy's clothing was torn and that wounds and bruises were inflicted, which bled profusely. Several witnesses testified to this effect, and, although Craig testified he had only inflicted ordinary punishment, several incidents were presented to show that he had been exceedingly angry. The school board is standing by Craig, and it is expected the case will be appealed.

There is a coach bog belonging to one of the car barns uptown that takes a constitutional when they let him out. He runs ahead of the Broadway car from the barn to the Battery, returning with the car. That satisfies him. Then he returns to the barn and loafs during the rest of the day.

Aches and Pains

"No remedy that I have used has been so sure a cure for pain of every kind as Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. They are a sovereign remedy for pain." MRS. H. BRADEEN, Rapids, Maine.

Pains are in the nerves—all feeling is; headache, toothache, neuralgia, sciatica, rheumatic pains, backache, etc.—They're all there, but in different parts—It's nerve trouble.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills relieve the nerve irritation, and the pain subsides—that's all, no derangement of the stomach, no disagreeable after-effects. That's why they are so popular with those that use them. The first package will benefit; if not, your druggist will return your money.

MRS. MAYBRICK WINS

Secures Judgment Against Attorney Accused of Securing Title to Lands.

INVOLVED 2,500 ACRES.

Richmond, Va., Dec. 9.—The case of Mrs. Florence Maybrick and her mother, Baroness von Roque, of New York involving title to land said to be worth $2,500,000, was decided Tuesday in their favor in the Chancery Court here.

Judge Grinnan announced the decision. Under the decree deeds conveying 2,500 acres of land in Virginia, West Virginia and Kentucky to D. W. Armstrong of New York, former counsel for Mrs. Maybrick and her mother, are set aside and Armstrong is ordered to give an accounting of all lands and money handled by him while attorney for them.

Mrs. Maybrick and her mother inherited the land from the first husband of the baroness. They employed Armstrong as their attorney to secure deed to the enormous tracts of land shortly after the death of Mrs. Maybrick's husband, for which she served a term in the British prisons, her imprisonment furnishing a famous international episode.

If It Disappears, It's Eczema.

How to Tell Whether a Skin Affection is an Inherited Blood Disease or Not.

Sometimes it is hard to determine whether a skin affection is a sign of a blood disorder or simply a form of eczema. Even physicians are often puzzled in their diagnosis. The best way for any one afflicted is to go to W. H. Sudhoff's or any good druggist who handles pure drugs and obtain 50 cents' worth of poslam. Apply this, and if the itching stops at once and the trouble is cured in a few days it may be set down as having been eczema, as this is the way poslam acts in the worst cases of eczema, and in curing acne, herpes, blotches, tetter, piles, salt rheum, rash, barber's and other forms of itchy, scaly scalp, and all surface skin affections.

Those who will write to the Emergency Laboratories, No. 32 West Twenty-fifth Street, New York, can secure, by mail free of charge, a supply sufficient to cure a small eczema surface or clear a complexion overnight and remove pimples in twenty-four hours.

"I have heard a good many stories illustrating thrift," remarked a Bronx resident, "but the janitor of some new steam-heated flats told me one that beat them all. On Sundays the tenants have a great many visitors, and the janitor discovered that these visitors paid the tenants 2 cents each for the privilege of taking a hot bath: 5 cents if they did not bring their own towels."

Three Tests for Moore Law

Question as to Whether County Local Option Bill Has Repealed it, Will Be Decided by Litigation Started.

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 9.—The question of whether the county local option law has repealed the Moore remonstrance law will probably be determined by the outcome of litigation that has begun in three counties. At Wayne, legal action to decide the present force of the remonstrance law has been started. In each case there are applications for license. In districts made dry by remonstrances and the applicants are maintaining that the remonstrances that have been in effect ceased to have effect when the local option act became a law. At Ft. Wayne R. C. Minton, legislative superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league, is looking into the case before proceeding to Whitley county, where a petition for county local option has been filed and the warfare over it has begun. It is necessary at the present time, Superintendent E. S. Shumaker, of the Anti-Saloon league, said today, to restrain the temperance people of some counties in their desire to undertake a fight for county local option. In one county a minister has sent out petitions to be signed, without organizing all them ministers of their ilk first. The ministers themselves, Shumaker said, are not enough to insure a winning fight, but it is necessary to have men with them who know something of politics.

Seven Human Life Stars

A Celebrity is born every day. Who is he? What is his story? How does he live, work, play? What about his family, his friends, his enemies? Read HUMAN LIFE, its exclusive field is interesting articles about people. HUMAN LIFE marshals the world's celebrities of the day together and gives them to you in picture and story as under a field glass.

HUMAN LIFE is absolutely original. There is no other magazine dealing with people exclusively. It is filled from cover to cover with stories and pictures of people and will keep the entire family posted as to the actions and doings of all the prominent people of the entire world.

It has the greatest writer in this country of vigorous, virile, pungent, forceful, piquant English, as its editor-in-chief, Alfred Henry Lewis, the caustic contributor to the Saturday Evening Post, Cosmopolitan, Success and many other, representative periodicals; the author of "The Boss," "The Wolf," "Andrew Jackson," and other books of story and adventure, every one scintillating with the best authors and best artists, and filled to overflowing with human interest.

You will find the great and the most great, the famous and sometimes infamous, described in HUMAN LIFE with a knowledge of their little humanities that is encyclopedic.

HUMAN LIFE has a peculiar style and method of its own, which gets the reader into intimate relation with the subject matter about. It may be said here, on these pages, you almost meet the people. You get them at close range, "off the stage," as it were; you see all their little mannerisms and peculiarities, and you hear them tell good anecdotes; you laugh with them, you find out about their homes and hobbies and children and "better halves."
