to hang therein their collection of pictures."

Opportunity Accepted.

The Art association, responded to Mr. Nussbaum's statement with the following resolution, presented by Mrs. M. F. Johnston:

"Be It Resolved that the Art association of Richmond, Indiana agrees to accept the opportunity offered by the school board of placing its permanent collection of works of art in the proposed art gallery of the high school building to be erected on North Ninth and B streets; provided, that the collection be properly cared for and freely accessible to the general public and to the pupils and teachers of the public schools at such hours as shall be determined by the two boards; and provided that the board of directors of the Art association, or some committee appointed by it, shall have supervision of and jury power over all exhibitions held in the gallery, understanding that a member of the school board shall be a member of the board of directors of the art association, and that the two supervisors of drawing in the public schools shall be members of the jury and the other members representing the different art interests of the city."

"Understanding that the Art association aims in the future to be democratic as it has been in the past, to the end that anyone in Richmond doing an acceptable piece of art work shall feel assured of the opportunity of exhibiting it; that the art movement in Richmond shall continue to be not only a means of happiness and culture to the children of the public schools, but to everyone in our city."

This resolution was adopted by the directors of the art association and approved by all the members of the school board.

Student Government Is Likely

"Governor" in Boys' Dormitory May Lose Official Position When "Home Rule" Is Adopted By Young Men.

Earlham men are discussing the subject of student government. Prof. Mendenhall is in favor of student rule in Bundy Dormitory and it is thought that the faculty will be ready to grant the privilege if the proposed venture is a success.

The student council met last evening and discussed a plan for the student government of the evening study hour. They will bring the plan before the student body to be voted on and it is generally conceded that the plan will be accepted. Should self government for the evening study hour be successful the plan will be gradually extended to the whole day. When the governor, the present governing office will be done away with and will merely be retained in Bundy dormitory as a faculty advisor.

The movement is entirely new at the Quaker institution.

STATE LOSES FUNDS

County Local Option Proves Costly to Ohio State Government.

ESTIMATE IS $1,800,000.

Columbus, O., Dec. 10.—Interesting figures relating to the revenue of the state and the various counties arising out of the recent local option elections have been secured from Auditor of State Guilbert. The money derived from the tax on saloons goes to the general revenue fund of the state, while the municipalities for the police and infirmary funds and to the county for poor relief and county infirmary purposes.

Through the voting dry of 58 counties the state loses $538,729 and the counties themselves $1,256,432.70. The net gain in the general revenue fund of the state last year, according to the figures furnished by State Treasurer Green, was $364,418.48. It will be noticed that the loss sustained by the state will wipe out that gain unless there is a secondary increase from some other source not now discernible.

CHRISTMAS CANDY MUST BE COVERED

Must Be Protected Against Dust and Dirt.

H. E. Barnard, state food and drug commissioner, has issued warning to dealers in Christmas candies to keep the display under glass to protect it from dust and dirt as required by law. "The season is approaching," said Mr. Barnard, "when large quantities of Christmas candies will be

BRYAN IS ARRESTED

Nebraskan Violates Texas Game Laws and Is "Caught Up."

SHOT TOO MANY DUCKS

Galveston, Tex., Dec. 10.—W. J. Bryan fell into the hands of a game warden yesterday when he and three other hunters were arrested at Lake Surprise, the famous preserve of Banker Moody of Galveston, in Chambers County.

Bryan, Moody and two friends are charged with having violated the state game law by killing more than twenty-five fowls each. The law limits that number of birds to each hunter in each twenty-four hours. More than 150 dead ducks testified to the work of the sportsmen who are said to have honored Mr. Bryan by allowing him the majority of the shots so that he made a record in the number of birds killed.

When the game warden appeared they swore Mr. Bryan had killed very few canvasbacks. Moody and the other two pleaded guilty and were fined $25 each, which they paid.

Lake Surprise is off the railroad and practically inaccessible. The game warden's appearance was a surprise.

displayed. Such goods can not be displayed except under glass unless in violation of the law.

"We have had practically no occasion to speak of this matter since last year and hope that the conditions which have prevailed during the summer season will obtain during the rush season. The reasons which make it necessary to cover the candies eleven months out of the year are very much more urgent during the Christmas rush, when the stores are being tramped by an increased number of people and there is a very general consumption of sweets among all classes."

KERN AND LAMB

IN AN ALLIANCE

In Case Either Quits, Strength Will Be Thrown to The Other.

PRACTICALLY CONFIRMED.

ONE OF TERRE HAUTE MAN'S FRIENDS SAYS CANDIDATES UNDERSTAND EACH OTHER—THE BREWERS FOR SHIVELY.

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 10.—An alliance, offensive and defensive, has been entered into by John Worth Kern, of Indianapolis, and John E. Lamb, of Terre Haute. Democratic candidates for the United States Senate, Kern, it was said, will get Lamb's votes, or most of them, if Lamb finds that he can't win.

If Kern falls down unexpectedly he will attempt to land Lamb the position.

Kern and Lamb have not appeared together at the Denison, which is the headquarters for the Democratic members, but it was learned that they lunched together at the Claypool a few days ago, and that afterward they had a conference.

One of Lamb's intimate friends says that he and Kern understand each other's position thoroughly, and that Lamb is very anxious for Kern to win if he sees that he hasn't sufficient strength himself.

Lamb has not been making the aggressive fight expected of him a month ago, when he entered the race. He came here several times during the 10 days following his announcement, but since then he has been sticking close to Terre Haute.

Rumors Not Confirmed.

There have been rumors that he would withdraw before the Legislature in convened, but none of them has been confirmed. Lamb, it is said, has no intention of retiring, as he figures that "while there is life there is hope," and the toga might come to him if there was a slip-up in the Kern movement.

Close observers of the race say that with Lamb out of it, Kern will have the place as good as nailed down in spite of everything that L. Ert Slack and his followers can do.

One Democratic leader, who is a member of the machine that controls the party, said last night that neither Kern nor Lamb are the favorites of the brewery combine, notwithstanding the reports to the contrary. He said that there was a pre-election deal between the Democratic leaders and the brewers by which Benjamin F. Shively, of South Bend, was to have been sent to the senate. He asserted that the brewers are anxious to make good for Shively but they have been told by the followers of Kern and Lamb that if they "butt in" the county local option law cannot be repealed.

There are rumors here that some of the Marion county members are weakened in their support of Kern, but they were not confirmed. Kern's followers say that every member here will be loyal to him in the caucus.

$50,000 FIRE.

Union City, Ind., Dec. 10.—Electric sparks, caused by pulling two sides of leather apart suddenly, set fire to the Schlemmer Enameling Works here. Owing to naphtha gas in the building the fire spread like a flash and many of the workmen saved themselves only by jumping from the windows. The loss is estimated at $50,000, with $25,000 insurance.

VETERANS MAY VISIT

SCENES OF WAR DAYS

Indiana Monument at Vicksburg to Be Unveiled.

The old G. A. R. men of Richmond have during the past several days been receiving circulars announcing the unveiling of the Indiana monument at Vicksburg, Miss., Sunday, December 27. It is probable several veterans from Richmond will go to Indianapolis and take the special train that has been provided by the railroad companies. Gov. J. Frank Hanly and staff and the officials of the different departments of war, will attend the services. An elaborate program has been arranged by the monument commission.

There are in Glasgow 17,000 unemployed, 16,000 being dwelling houses.

Giving evidence at an inquest at Lambeth, London, a woman said that she had had twenty-one children, six of whom were alive.

INSTRUCTS JURY

IN WILL CASE

mental condition of such person can be judged with absolute certainty. No definite line can be drawn nor boundary fixed so as to show where sanity ends and insanity begins. Judgment in such matters must depend in a great measure upon the facts and circumstances surrounding each particular case.

No Rules to Judge.

You have been instructed that no definite rule can be stated nor absolute standard fixed by which mental conditions can be judged, yet the courts, in the light of experience, have formulated rules to aid juries in investigating and judging of such conditions that will serve this purpose as nearly as it can well be done. You are therefore instructed that while the law does not undertake to measure a person's intellect and define the exact quality and quantity of mind and memory which he shall possess to authorize him to make a valid will, yet it does require him to possess mind and memory enough to know the nature, extent and value of his property, the number and names of the persons who are the natural objects of his bounty, their capacity and necessities, and that he shall have sufficient active memory to retain all these facts in his mind long enough to have his will prepared and executed.

A Valid Will.

In order to enable a person to make a valid will he must at the time that he executed it have a disposing mind and memory—that is, he must be capable of making his will with a rational understanding of the nature of the business in which he is engaged, realize that he is making a will for the purpose of disposing of his property; he should possess mind and memory sufficient to enable him to fully recollect and understand the nature and extent of his property, the persons who are the natural objects of his bounty as well as the persons whom he desires to make legatees and devisees in his will; he should be capable of forming a rational judgment as to the manner in which he wishes to dispose of his property and of doing exactly what he desires and intends to do.

In determining in a given case as to whether a person possesses testamentary capacity or not, it is the mental rather than the physical condition that is to receive attention.

You are further instructed as a mat-

OFFICIALS MUST QUALIFY SOON

Both Trustees and Assessors Required to File Bond Before January 1.

NOTICES ARE SENT OUT.

SEVEN ASSESSORS AND SEVEN TRUSTEES HAVE MET ALL REQUIREMENTS OF THE LAW—HOWARTH'S BOND $32,000.

It is important that the township trustees and assessors-elect should qualify for their offices by the first of the year. A number having failed to do so, the county authorities have undertaken to notify in each instance, where the future officeholder is known. The county auditor has not been supplied with the names of some of these men and for this reason will not send out notices of election, and requests that the proper qualification be attended to. The bonds required of each assessor is $3,000. Each trustee is required to put up a bond equal to twice the amount of any one semi-annual settlement. In Wayne township a bond is required that is larger than that given by the county treasurer.

The township assessors handle only very small amounts of money and for this reason the bond is low. No discrimination is made because of size of township or value of taxable property. The assessors who have filed their bonds are: Abraham Rummell, Jackson township; George Cook, Perry; Edwin Dalbey, New Garden; William Hyde, Franklin; E. S. Lamb, Clay; Charles Potter, Wayne; and Charles Petro, Jefferson.

In Center township the bond required is almost twice that required of the trustee of Jackson township. This is because of the fact in Jackson township there are the school corporation and town corporation that have separate jurisdiction not controlled by the trustee. Those who have filed their bonds and made arrangements to qualify for office are: James Howarth, Wayne, $32,000; Nathan Grave, Franklin, $9,000; Dr. C. I. Stotelmeyer, Jefferson, $7,000; Samuel Clevenger, Abington, $4,200; Amandus Mason, Jackson, $8,000; W. H. Miller, Washington, $7,500; James F. Harris, Center, $15,000.

REVENUE OFFICERS VISIT SALOONS

Seek Violation of Government Regulations.

Two revenue officers arrived in the city late yesterday afternoon unheralded, and visited several of the saloons for the purpose of seeing if the various government regulations for the sale of beer and whiskey were being complied with. So far as known the officers did not find any violations of these regulations. So frequent of late have been the visits of the revenue men that the local saloonists are very careful.
