

E. M. HAAS WILL HAVE NONE OF IT

Says He Is Not Candidate for Secretaryship of Indiana Senate.

AN INDIANAPOLIS RUMOR.

POSITION WILL BE AN IMPORT-ANT ONE NEXT SESSION OF LEGISLATURE OWING TO PROB-ABLE PARTY CONFLICT.

In Indianapolis, political wiseacres have it that Edward M. Haas of this city, is a candidate for the secretaryship of the Indiana senate, which it is predicted will be a very important position with Lieutenant Governor Hall in the chair, but when the Sixth district chairman was seen this morning he emphatically denied that he was seeking the place.

"I am not, nor will I be a candidate," said Mr. Haas. "I have denied the rumor once and I do not see why I should be called upon again to issue another denial. No, not under any circumstances, will I accept."

The republicans feel there is much in having a secretary of the senate who is "on to his job." They expect emergencies to arise when they will have to make use of rules such as were used during the session of 1905, when Mortimer Nye was lieutenant governor, and virtually the same situation existed as now exists in the senate. At that time the rules were amended so as to provide that the senate could elect some senator to preside in the absence of the lieutenant governor or the president pro tem. Rule 23, adopted at the opening of the session, provided that "when a motion is made and seconded it shall be stated by the presiding officer, or, if in writing, shall be handed to the secretary and then read aloud before debated, and should the presiding officer fail or refuse to put the question upon any motion or resolution when duly seconded then, upon demand of three senators, the secretary of senate shall put the question and declare the result of the vote thereon." Col. W. H. Huffman of Anderson, thus far is the only avowed candidate for the secretaryship of the senate.

unmanageable. He was arrested after stealing $9 from a trunk at home. The lad was arrested a short time ago after brother following the latter's attempt to correct him. The boy will be placed in the custody of the juvenile court.

CASTRO LANDED IN FRANCE IN PEACE

Much Heralded Apology Is Not Given.

Bordeaux, Dec. 11.—Cipriano Castro president of Venezuela, was allowed to land on French soil when he arrived at Caulliac, thirty miles from Bordeaux on the steamship Gaudeloupe, yesterday.

After a conference with the representative of the French government, Castro came ashore and proceeded to Bordeaux in a special car. The president went to Paris today.

It is believed to be the intention of the government to exact an apology from Castro before permitting him to land, but apparently a communication received by the government from M.
Merlou, French minister to Peru, who also was a passenger on the Gaudeloupe, that Castro was anxious to arrange a settlement of the differences between the two countries and the interview the government's representative had with the president at Pauillac, combined to bring about a change in the plan.

Learned by Experience.

"I always make it a point," said the man with a wart on his nose, a couple of cross eyes and a hair lip, but otherwise possessing a perfectly good face, "to say polite and complimentary things to the ladies. It does me no harm, and I notice it always gives them a lot of pleasure. My motto is to scatter sunshine provided it costs no money as I journey along."
"I used to do that, too," said the man whose set of neglected whiskers were calling plaintively for the lawn mower, "but I have been broken of the habit. No more sunshine radiating from these quarters."
"And what cured you?" asked the other.

"A couple of breach of promise suits."

Yes, It Was True.

"Is it true that you threw something at Mike that caused the swelling over his eye?" the squirrel inquired of a little woman.

"Yes, sor, I did," said the woman, catching her breath, "but I never mint to hurt him, an' well he knows it.
We'd just come home from me cousin's weddin', an' I was feelin' kinder soft to Mike, an' I up an' axed him if he loved me as much as he did the day we was married, an'-an', yer after, he was so slow answerin' me that I up wid the mop an' dung it at him! If we poor women don't have love our hearts jist breaks inside uv us!"
