

FAVORS PRESENT METROPOLITAN LAW

Mayor Schillinger Hopes That Measure Will Not Be Repealed.

IT WORKS FOR GOOD.

MAKES POLICE DEPARTMENTS OUT OF POLITICS—CITY'S EXECUTIVE DOES NOT FAVOR A "WIDE OPEN" TOWN.

"I hope the legislature will not repeal the metropolitan police law. It is a good law and should remain on the statute books. Of course this law places the management of police affairs directly in the hands of the governor and in the event the governor is narrow-minded and bigoted, dissatisfaction is caused, but on the whole the best way to manage police affairs is under the present system. It makes the police departments of the various cities effected by the law more efficient because it bars politics."

The above statement was made by Mayor Schillinger, who, it was generally thought, favored the repeal of the law.

"Will you ask Mr. Marshall, when he becomes governor, to appoint two democrats, selected by yourself, on the police board?" the mayor was asked.

"I do not know that I shall have the opportunity of making my selections of officials on the board of police commissioners. Mr. Marshall has not yet consulted me on the matter. He has stated through the newspapers that he will consult the mayors and the council of the various cities on this matter. I have not given the question of the re-organization of the board of police commissioners a thought," Mr. Schillinger replied.

"Who would be your choice for police chief?" he was asked.

He replied that he had not given that matter a thought. "That is up to the police commissioners," he said.

"If the metropolitan police law should be repealed would you favor the tilting of the lid to some extent," was the question put to the mayor.

"I believe in law enforcement. How much I may oppose a law personally I think that so long as it remains on the statutes it should be enforced. I have never favored running the city on the so-called 'wide-open policy,' he answered.

MARRIAGE IS A LOTTERY; 'TIS PROVEN

This Time Hubby Acted Unbecomingly a Husband.

Married bliss remained but a very short time for Mary Higley, according to the representations in her complaint for divorce from Lemuel Higley. In her allegations she says she was married August 24, 1907 and separated from her husband October 24 of this year, when he left her and went to Los Angeles, Cal. She says that for more than a year previous to the date of separation the defendant had been guilty of cruel and inhuman treatment. She charges him also, with failure to provide.

WONDERS OF WEST

Washington State Normal President Speaks to Richmond Teachers.

IS A FORMER INDIANIAN

President Mathes, head of the Washington State Normal school at Tacoma, gave an interesting lecture before the high school and the Richmond teachers yesterday at the high school auditorium. Mr. Mathes was formerly from this state, but went West and made a name for himself in the educational world. Now when he comes to visit his parents, east, he always throws into his grip, a hundred or more lantern slides, for he has found that the people of the central states are always anxious to learn of the Northwest. Mr. Mathes has traveled much and knows the state of Washington thoroughly. Among his slides he shows the life in the hop fields, the salmon industry on the Columbia river, the life of the lumbermen, and the irrigated farms. The resources of Washington were shown to be truly wonderful. Irrigated land in the heart of Washington commands fabulous prices—often $5,000 an acre. The United States is planning to build a great irrigation ditch to thoroughly water all this central part of the state. The canal will cost $8,000,000.

Mr. Mathes gave his lecture a humorous turn now and then, which, with his interesting material, made it an hour much enjoyed by the audience.

"George," spoke his better half, "you are interested in the temperance movements, are you not?"

"Why, certainly I am," he answered.

"Well, suppose you go out and make a few of them with the pump handle. I am in need of a pair of water right away."—Bohemian Magazine.

"That second speaker was a very singular man."

"There was nothing in his appearance to indicate singularity."

"But didn't you notice that when he got up he didn't say the toastmaster's introductory remarks reminded him of a story?"—Chicago Record-Herald.

$100 Reward, $100
The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.
