When the projector of the railroad up Mount Washington sought a charter from the New Hampshire legislature one of the lawmakers in his speech on the subject said, "Give the fool permission, but he might as well ask for a railroad to the moon!" But the railroad is still running.

WIDOW SEEKS TO PUNISH WOMAN WHO WROTE HUSBAND

with her. When I was present in the room where my husband was confined Mrs. Bertsch treated him just like a good friend and I never had any cause to believe their relations had ever been other than those of good friends.

Letters Withheld.

Postoffice Inspector Fletcher stated this morning after Mrs. Bertsch had been arraigned in the commissioner's court, that he could not show any of Mrs. Bertsch's letters he had in his possession.

"All I know about the case is what I have read in the letters and what Mrs. Cheesman told me. She said that a short time before her husband died, he told her to look in the old chest. She did so after his death and discovered the letters."

"Are they rich, rare and spicy?" asked a reporter.

For answer Mr. Fletcher grinned expansively.

Husband is Faithful.

Mr. Bertsch believes his wife innocent of the charge registered against her. At least that is what he told Deputy United States Marshal David C. Rankin, when Mr. Rankin appeared before him at his law office at Centerville and informed him that he had come to arrest Mrs. Bertsch.

To avoid causing a sensation in the little town the deputy marshal had Mr. Bertsch take his wife to the Inturbaran car, where Mr. Rankin joined them. When the deputy marshal informed Mrs. Bertsch of the charge against her, she did not for a moment lose her composure and quietly stated she was not guilty.

Takes Matter Quietly.

In the commissioner's court, when she faced Commissioner Breckenridge Deputy United States Attorney Clarence W. Nichols, she did not appear to be disconcerted and watched the proceedings with the keenest interest. She refused to make any statement concerning the case. A reporter sought to interview her and the commissioner remarked, "As you know, no one I think it proper to wait until she makes no statements at the present time, as it would be held in evidence against you."

"I have no intention of making any statements," quietly replied Mrs. Bertsch.

Wanted News Suppressed.

Mrs. Bertsch requested the newspaper men not to publish anything about the case, but even when she said that it would be impossible to suppress it. Mrs. Bertsch is a handsome woman and, it is stated, very popular with her many friends in this city and in Centerville. She has always been a good reputation as did her alleged affiance.

Mr. Bertsch is one of the most prominent residents of Centerville. He is considered well-to-do, being interested in the hardware and building business. It is not known whether he ever suspected the relationship alleged to have existed between his wife and Cheesman.

Reporters made an effort to secure some of the letters for publication, but Inspector Fletcher, who is being closely watched by the police, refused to comply with the request. He said he did not even have what was known as the letters except in his possession, and he did not fit to be sent through the mails.

Deaths and Funerals

SPAULDING—The funeral of William W. Spaulding will take place at the home of his father-in-law, Sunday afternoon, at 1:30 o'clock, because the home of Mr. Spaulding, east of the city, is undergoing repairs. The Revs. I. M. Hughes, formerly of the Presbyterian church, and the Rev. R. J. Wade, of the First M. E. will officiate. The White Water Lodge of Odd Fellows, will hold funeral services over the body this evening. The Odd Fellows lodge of Red Men will have charge of the services at the grave. The funeral will be in Earlham.

MOFFET—Mrs. Louise Moffet, wife of William Moffet, died last night at her home, 107 North Fifteenth street, after a prolonged illness. She was survived by her husband and two daughters, Mrs. Harry Brooks of this city, and Mrs. Samuel Vaneman of Earlham.

The funeral will take place Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, from the home. The burial will be in Earlham. Friends may call to view the remains any time after 7 o'clock Friday evening. The burial will be in Earlham.
