Additional Club Notes

Mrs. Charles Kolp was the charming hostess for a meeting of the Wednesday Bridge club yesterday afternoon at her home on North Tenth street. The game was played at two tables. Miss Clara Myrick and Miss Grace Robie were awarded the prizes. A dainty luncheon was served at the conclusion of the affair. The club meets in two weeks with Mrs. Charles

In addition to the regular meeting of the St. Paul's Guild held yesterday at the parish house, a sale of Christmas articles was a feature. A large number of the members were in attendance and the hours were spent socially. It is very probable that the sale will be continued some time before Christmas.

"Molds and Yeasts" was the subject for discussion yesterday at a meeting of the Home Economic club which was held at the home of Mrs. Augustus Scott, 126 North Tenth street. The discussion was led by Miss Bertha Fihe, all the member aiding in the affair, making the discussion a spirited and interesting one. The club will not meet again until Wednesday, January thirteenth, although an open meeting will be held Wednesday afternoon, January sixth, at which time

Professor Frank Lamar will be the principal speaker. His subject, as given in the year book will be "Laboratory Work in the Sciences which Underlie Domestic Sciences." The public is invited to this meeting.

An all day "quilting-bee" was held yesterday by the aid-society of the Fifth Street M. E. church, at the home of Mrs. Levi Jones on School street. A large number of members were in attendance. Dinner was served at noon by the hostess. During the afternoon a short program was given.

The teachers and members of the various Sunday schools are busy preparing for their Christmas programs and exercises. Some of these will be given tomorrow evening, while others have decided to wait until after the joys of the Christmas festivities in the home circle have subsided. It seems as though the Christmas tide will be just as full of "Good Cheer and Good Will" as in former years.

"THE NATIVITY."

Cantata to Be Rendered at the First Presbyterian Church.

The Christmas music at the First Presbyterian church will be rendered next Sunday under the direction of Prof. Will Earhart. Mrs. Fred Miller will be the organist. The program will consist of a cantata, "The Nativity," which will be rendered Sunday morning by a full choir which will be assisted by a string quartet.

SPLIT BETWEEN TAFT AND BURTON

Ohioan Plans a Hard Fight Against the President-Elect's Brother.

PREPARES FOR ONSLAUGHT

HARD CAMPAIGN WILL BE MADE IN STATE OF OHIO BY CLEVELAND MAN IN ORDER TO SECURE SENATORSHIP.

New York, Dec. 17.—Charles P. Taft will have to fight hard to be elected United States senator from Ohio, if Theodore Burton can add to the obstacles in the path of the Cincinnati editor.

The announcement was made last night that the offer of a cabinet portfolio, made to Mr. Burton by the president-elect, had been withdrawn, definitely for all time. Behind this simple statement lies a story from Washington—and credited by the knowing ones—of a serious breach between the newly elected chief executive and the congressman from Cleveland.

Everyone knows that Mr. Taft and Mr. Burton met in Washington last Saturday. After their conference neither would discuss what passed between them. Mr. Burton hurried back to Ohio and reports from that state show he lost no time in getting to work.

"Burton Men" Get Busy.

"Burton men," the reports say, are out in every bailiwick in Buckeye land, and when the Ohio legislature meets to elect a successor to Mr. Foraker some surprising things may come to pass.

"Brother Charles," who was in New York for the purpose solely of attending the Ohio society banquet last night, did not seem frightened by conditions in Ohio.

After a conference of republican leaders last night, at which the Burton episode was discussed, the Cincinnati editor said:

"I am going to win. Everything is favorable."

The president-elect's brother apparently was more than pleased with the day's developments, and fairly bubbled over with good humor. As to the leaders who attended the conference, the senatorial candidate said:

"They came on for the dinner of the Ohio society last night and to talk over political matters at home. They were here to see brother Will, and after a long talk with him they all went away in good shape."

The president-elect had nothing to say regarding the conference other than that it had to do with Ohio affairs. Mr. Taft has repeatedly announced that he was keeping "hands off" the Ohio senatorial situation, and would not use whatever influence he might have in favor of or against any candidate. He so stated his position anew to Congressman Burtop

THE CHIEF HAINS WITNESS SUICIDES

"Mr. Curtis" Who Sent Trouble-making Letter Was Orlan Cullen.

SENSATION SPRUNG TODAY

MRS. ANNIS, WIFE OF MURDERED MAN WAS ON STAND—HAINS GROUP DOES NOT DISPLAY ANY ANXIETY.

Flushing, N. Y., Dec. 17.—The counsel for Hains made a sensational announcement this morning that one of the most important witnesses had committed suicide last Sunday. The counsel produced a letter sent to General Hains outlining the alleged boastful declarations by Annis of his relations with Mrs. Peter C. Hains and signed "Mr. Curtis."

Lawyer Shay says the mysterious Mr. Curtis was in reality Orlan Cullen, of Princeton, who suicided at Catonsville, Md., Sunday.

Mrs. Annis was one of today's witnesses. The Hains group display no outward signs of anxiety over the outcome of the trial.

THREE OTHERS GET COVETED "E"

Walter Camp's Decision Responsible.

Homer Furnas, Clarence Doan, and Fred Francis were awarded the coveted Earlham "E" at a meeting of the Earlham Athletic association held this morning. The award of the "E's" to these men is due to the decision recently made by Walter Camp, giving the Quakers the Wittenberg-Earlham football game. This makes fifteen men that won the letter this year.

Honor: Order Gold Medal Flour next time. FELICITY.

"Kitty" Arouses Neighborhood But Police Can Do Nothing

"Scat."

"Here kitty, come on, nice kitty." And other threats and pleadings were wasted on an obdurate tabby, which for the past several days and nights has held forth in the top of a tree opposite a North Fourteenth street apartment house.

Officer Hebble, at an early hour tried to charm the alarmed feline from its exalted position, but all his flat-ware and threats of vengeance and bodily harm were of no avail. All the cat did was to take a firmer hold on the tree and increase the volume of its howls, which have driven the apartment house dwellers almost to the verge of nervous prostration.

Chief Bailey is now considering sending the entire police force up the tree to dislodge the cat. If this fails, the fire department will probably be called out, and should this method be defeated the state militia, as a last resort, will be called out.

Summoned to the White House

President-Elect Taft's Trip to Georgia Delayed By Urgent Message from President Roosevelt This Morning.

New York, Dec. 17.—President-elect Taft received a mysterious telegram urging him to hurry to Washington for a conference with the chief executive. He departed on the eight o'clock train this morning, although he had previously planned to leave for Georgia on the ten o'clock train. The remainder of the party departed on original schedule and Taft hopes to get through with "Teddy" in time to continue South with the party.

"HEN FRUIT" SCARCE

Yellow Flecks on Chins of People Regarded as Signs of Opulence.

EGGS ARE SOARING HIGH.

"O, look, look, what I've got here."

And the West Richmond lady of the house rushed in to her family. Her face was radiant with joy and the children presumed for a moment a gold mine might have been found in the back yard, or diamonds plucked from the gooseberry bushes. But, no, it was a nice white, freshly laid egg, which the delighted woman held in her hand. It was the first the flock had produced for several months. The mother was "dee-lighted" and the kid brother hoped the hen would lay every day for that would mean pumpkin pies for Christmas.

The price of eggs has soared higher than the fowls can fly. Retail dealers demand from 35 to 40 cents per dozen and the half dollar mark may be reached by next week. The man who comes to work with a fleck of yellow on his chin these days is looked upon as one who is trying to create the impression of opulence. Friends who pass him extend their tongues and try to remind him what a poached egg for breakfast would taste like. The owner of more than two laying hens is a fit subject for government investigation or a special message on the charge of violating the Sherman anti-trust law. Hen fruit is equally as scarce as hen's teeth.

Christmas Money

The thing you certainly must have, in order to bring to your loved ones, the joy and happiness they are so eagerly awaiting, should, when you are temporarily short, be borrowed where it can be had with the least cost to you.

That we can and will loan you money cheaper than it can be had of similar concerns, can be proven to your complete satisfaction by an investigation.

We loan money in sums to suit the borrower, on household goods, teams, livestock, farming implements and all other personal property, without removal, giving you as much time as you may desire, making your payments weekly, monthly, quarterly or such as may suit your convenience, and absolutely guaranteeing you a lower rate than can be had of any similar concern in the city, none excepted.

We also offer you liberal rebates for all unexpired time and grant you free extensions in case of sickness, a thing almost unheard of among the ordinary loan companies.

If you are in need of a loan and cannot call at our office, cut out the following and mail to us and our agent will promptly call on you.
